J. & M. BARRETT.

Petroleum Centre, Nov. 12th, 1899.—17

The Crown Princess of Prussia, Queen Victoria's daughter, is the idol of the Prussian army. At the last general maneuvers at Sinsgard, she revealed herself with glory by attacking, on horseback, at the head of a regiment of dragons, whose colors she is, the famous Hungars, routing them totally. For this feat the staff of her regiment resolved to make a demonstration in honor of the intrepid Amazon. It has presented to her Royal Highness a magnificent sword, manufactured by the most celebrated jeweler of Berlin. On the blade will be embelzoned, in characters of gold, "The Dragoons of the Princess Royal to their gallant Colonel."

A case was in progress in the Courts of Cincinnati, on Friday wherein a woman claimed damages from two saloon keepers in Clevely who sold her husband liquor, thus making him drunk and causing him to fall and break his leg.
