The Crown Princess of Prussia, Queen Victoria's daughter, is the idol of the Prussian army. At the last general maneuvers at Sinsgard, she covered herself with glory by attacking on horseback, at the head of a regiment of dragons, whose colonel she is, the famous Hussars, routing them totally. For this feat the staff of her regiment resolved to make a demonstration in honor of the intrepid Amazon. It has presented to her Royal Highness a magnificent sword, manufactured by the most celebrated jeweler of Berlin. On the blade will be emblazoned, in characters of gold, "The Dragons of the Princess Royal to their gallant Colonel."

A case was in progress in the Courts of Cincinnati, on Friday when a woman claimed damages from two saloon keepers in Clevel who sold her husband liquor, thus making him drunk and causing him to fall and break his leg.
