Gold to-day 121 3/4.

We received a call to-day from our old friends Geo. Westervelt and Jas. Hart, of Pleasantville, formerly of Pithole. The sight of the jolly countenances of our old-time friends brought vividly back to mind the remembrance of many happy days in Pithole in its palmy days, when the Swordsman's Club and the Forty Thieves were in full operation.

Quite a jolly time was had at the upper end of the town. The "boys" got drunk as to speak. Consequence—several broken heads, bloody noses, &c. Chance for good folks to work to advantage. All this took place Saturday evening.

We learn that the banking house of F. L. Stowell & Co., at Rouseville, closed its doors on Saturday. This house is also connected with a banking house at Olean, N. Y. Wm. M. Irish is the assignee.

Rain! rain! rain. Nothing but black looking clouds overhead and mud underfeet. In the mean time it rains.

Sberry's New York Theatre are playing in Titusville.

We notice the jovial phiz of Dr. Jas. L. Thayer, the prince of circus men, in town. The Dr. looks as if he might be "sold out" a few times more and not hurt him any.

The up creek train Saturday evening was delayed an hour and a half by an engine running off the track at Miller Farm.

RAILROAD ELECTION.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oil City and Pithole Railway was held at the McHenry House, Meadville, on Monday, January 10, 1870. H. Steele President, and J. T. Blair Secretary.

At a public fair in Moscow, the Emperor Alexander held out his hand to an old gipsy woman, and wanted to know what would happen to him. The old woman looked into his hands, shook her head, and said, "Beware of 1873. 'I see blood for you in that year!' The Emperor, who is superstitious, grew pale, and left the fair without saying another word.

Brigham Young already has one Iowa lady among his wives. She is his favorite, and is known as "Amelia, the Queen of the Harem." In fact, he likes her so well that he is looking around for another captive from the same State. An Independence paper says that "an agent of the great Brigham has been in the vicinity of our city for the express purpose of negotiating a matrimonial alliance between his exceedingly-married chief and one of Independence's fair daughters. We are not at liberty to divulge the name of the fair one, further than that she wears blue orbits and is accounted very charming."

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—Well executed counterfeit notes of the new fractional currency are in circulation. These are the first counterfeit of the new series, and well calculated to deceive.

During a review of a British regiment at Pieter Martizburg, Natal, a heavy thunder storm arose, and fourteen men were struck by lightning, one being instantly killed. Fortunately for the men, their arms were at the "order," with bayonets unfired. Had it been otherwise a great loss might have occurred.

The saddening confession has been made that there are twenty-five thousand confirmed inebriates in Massachusetts. In spite of the prohibitory liquor law and the authorities are now turning their attention to the subject of inebriate asylums. Prevention is undoubtedly better than cure, but when all schemes for prevention slightly fail, it is time something should be attempted in the way of cure.

Her Majesty Queen Victoria, sent Mr. George Peabody her picture because he was a citizen of the world, and now the Crown owns a land that belonged to him, because he was an alien to Great Britain.

SIX O'CLOCK P. M.

The workshops open wide their doors At six o'clock p. m. And workmen issue forth by scores, At six o'clock p. m. Of all the minutes in array, Of hours that go to make the day, There's none so welcome, so they say, As six o'clock p. m.

How many children show delight At six o'clock p. m. How many homes are rendered bright At six o'clock p. m. How many little happy feet Go out into the busy street, With joyous bounds papa to meet, At six o'clock p. m.

Thousands of tables draped in white, At six o'clock p. m. The gathered families unite, At six o'clock p. m. And as they eat the frugal fare, They quite forget their toil and care, And drop their heavy burdens there, At six o'clock p. m.

Then blow, ye shrieking whistles, blow! At six o'clock p. m. And let the weary toilers go At six o'clock p. m., Ring out, releasing bells ring out! And bid the welkin take the shout, And echo it all round about, "Tis six o'clock p. m.!"

The driver scowled, muttered and was driving on, when Derby, in an authoritative tone, ordered him to halt, saying, "If you don't have 'Eagle Bakery' painted off that wagon I'll have you court-martialed!"
