CRUDE PETROLEUM.—We find some remarks in the Daily Bulletin on the condition of the market for crude petroleum, which are interesting enough to quote, and we regret that we are compelled to abridge them.

To-night the celebrated Hattie Watson Combination appear at Sobel's Hall, in the great burlesque extravaganza of "Pluto, or the Magic Seven." The entertainment promises to be a grand affair and no doubt the house will be crowded.

We were favored with a call this forenoon from Mr. S. M. Johnson, of the firm of Peterson, Johnson & Co., manufacturers of D. Simmons' Axes and Edge Tools, Lockport, N. Y.

There was a full house at the Arlington Minstrel entertainment, last evening. The performance was excellent.

A young man from the vicinity of Riceville sent to Petroleum Centre last week for a pure article of whiskey for a medicinal beverage.

There is nothing very remarkable about the above when the fact becomes known that most of the "blue ruin" liquor sold in this place at retail comes from Titusville, at which place it is fair to presume that the liquor is mixed with strychnine, arsenic and other pleasant ingredients.

The Columbia Cornet Band Concert, to come off Friday evening, will be a grand affair.

Last evening about train time we noticed an inebriated laying in the snow near the depot "dead drunk." When the train came in he was lifted up and deposited on board like so much baggage.

A charter has been obtained for the erection of a new bridge across the Allegheny river at Tionesta.

Not for Joe.

"O, no, no! we don't blow, Not as we know of, Not on Joseph."

A young man living down town, without the fear of his sweetheart's parents before his eyes, undertook to "hook" the object of his adoration from a second story window in her father's house, an Friday night last says the Louisville Sun.

"Look here, you cussed sneak, when ever you go and learn a decent trade, and kin make enough money to pay house rent, an' raise a family, you kin come here with out a ladder, walk in the front door an' marry my darter, an' not onil then. D'ye hear?"

THE PROGRESS OF OPINION.—A Nantucket sea captain tells the following anecdote about a shipmate who accompanied him on one of his early whaling voyages:

Stiles was a simple hearted, transparent young fellow, and when he sailed, had been paying attention for some time to a young lady, who he had reason to think, did not fully reciprocate his ardent feelings.

At the opening of the New Foundland Legislature, Thursday, the Lieutenant Governor, in his speech, expressed the hope that nothing would occur to prevent the colony from becoming confederated with Canada.

Sam. Hilderbrand, the Missouri outlaw, under the name of "Miller," visited the capital of the State the other day, and staid over night.

Reddy, the Blacksmith, met his peer, and something more, on Wednesday, in the person of a Philadelphia rough, and now lies in one of the New York hospitals in a precarious condition.

Mormonism is spreading on Long Island like rot among a flock of sheep. Among the Saints are many wealthy persons. The work is not to be confined to that region.—Pennsylvania as well as other States is to be visited by missionaries.

Trains are now running over the new bridge at Oil City, which connects the Allegheny Valley Railroad with the O. C. & A. R. R. This is a decided advantage to travelers, who are thereby saved the bother of a long omnibus ride.

A meeting for the purpose of forming an oil company to develop oil lands in the vicinity of Corry was held at that place on the evening of Feb. 4th.

PARTING.

The summer sky was overcast, I knew the sunshine would not last; We mused upon the golden past Together.

And then we thought of what might be Of all the life-long misery, The sunless days we should not see Together.

And ere I left my happy land, "This is the last time we shall stand," I said, "my darling, hand in hand Together.

"And since we two may never wed, Dear love! how blessed to be dead, And laid to rest!" "Ahl yes," she said, "Together!"
