The religious interest in the Presbyteri an Church still continues. This is the third week, and the meetings are still well attended. The Rev. S. J. M. Eaten. D. D., of Franklio, will preach this evening. Rev. Eaton is well known here as the author of a history of the oil regions. He is an eloquent preacher, and an earnest devout Christian. Let there be a large attendance to bear birg.

Elsewhere will be found an account of the staking of the United States steam corvette Onelds, by which upwards of 120 souls found a watery grave. Among the names of those reported lost, we notice that of Assistant Surgeon Edward Frethingham. Mr. F. is a brother of our townsman, Thos. Frotningham, the well-known oil operator He had been connected with the navy for a number of years, and was universally respected by atl.

P. S. -By a dispatch from London, dated Murch 1st, it is stated that fifty six lives were sayed at the sinking of the Oneida. . It is barely possible that Surgeon Frothingham is among the number saved.

Yesterday morning the Titusville Herald came out in an enlarged and improved form. The proprietors of the Herald. Mess:s Bloss Bros. and Cogeswell, have labored long and earnestly for the interest of Titusville, and are eminently deserving of the success they have met with. The Herald bus long rank ed among the first-class dailies in the State It gives us pleasure to witness the success of our neighbors. May it continue to my in "gnodness and grace."

Among the bills introduced in the State Legislature is one for enlarging the corporate powers of the Pittsburgh and Cherry Ron Petroleum Company.

It should be torns in mind by pleasure lovers that to-morrow examing Wellington & Bronner's Minstrels and Brass Band are to appear at Sobel's Hall, in one of their select on tertainments. Connected with the troute are several of the best performers in the burnt cork profession. That they will be greeted with a full house there is no

Near Cynthiana, Ky., on Wednesday, Mrs. Thomas Lenten, who bad been married but about a week, undertook to build a fire in her stove with coal oil, when the flames leaped up and communicated with bet dress. In an instant all her clothes were in a blaze, and there being no aid at hand, she ran out into the yard and rolled over several times in the snow, but the garments continued to burn until the last vestige of them was consumed, and the body of the unfortunate woman was baked almost to a crisp. Death put an end to her sufferings in a few moments after the terrible occurrence. Deceased was sixteen years of

The Waco (Texas) Examiner says that a few nights since a party of young gentlemen determined to give a fair lady the compliment of a seronade. Near midnight they repaired to her residence, and soon trains of fairy-like music stole upon the balmy air. After going through a choice programme, vocal and instrumental, a second story window was raised, and the face of one of Afric's dark hard daughters protruded. "Look heah," said she; "missus ain't here, but won't you please play the Morkin Bird for me?"

THE LOSS OF THE ONEIDA, WITH 120 MEN -Point de Galle, Ceylon, Feb. 22, via London, Feb. 28 .- A collision occurred near Yokohama, between the Peninsular and Oriental Company's steamship Bombay and the United States corvette Oneida .-The latter sunk with all hands, numbering a hundred and twenty men. The Bombsy dies. was slightly injured. It is not stated that any of the officers or crew of the Oneida were saved.

The Bombuy was due at Yokobama from Hong Kong on the 24th of January.

The Oneida was a third rate vessel, carrying eight guns.

A telegraph operator, who recently sent message to a family in Norwalk, Conn., to meet an expected visitor at the depot with the "borse," blunderingly substituted the word "bearse," and on the arrivel of the train the visitor found that vehicle in waiting to transport him to his destination.

The boiler of heating furnace No. 3, at the railroad iron relling mill of the Lackswanne Iron and Coal Company, Scranton, exploded Monday atternoon. A portion of the roof with all its heavy timbers, shatting etc., seventy-five feet by ninety-five feet was blown in the air, and fell with a trem ndous crash. The noise of the explosion shook half the city. Twenty or thirty men were buried in the ruins. Nine dead bodies have been taken from the rules so far.

Col. O. P. Harding, formerly a citizen of Corry, who has met with his "ups and downs" like most men boring for oil, we are downs 'like most men boring for oil, we are pleased to learn is succeeding admirably at Parker's Landing, baving in operation several wells, each of them producing handsomely. He is worthy the success which now attends him.—Corry Blade.

The Col. is well known bereatouts, and his many friends will be glad to learn of his good luck.

Rev. Father Finucane, of Meadville, is to lecture at Shamburgh on Thursday evening next, in the Catholic Church.

The Pleasantville Garlight says: There is an engine now pumping oil on Pittole Run, below Pithole city, which was made to order for use on the Plantation of Jeff Davis, in 1860.

Fresh oysters are constantly received at the Petroleum Exchange Hotel. They are nice and no mistake.

Asserdate of Mohemet All.

A writer in the Peuple Français tells a rather hard story of Mohemet All, in illustration of his nice sense of justice. Making_ a tour of his provinces, in great state and with a cavalry guard, he was stopped by an old woman, who threw berself at his feet. "Your Highness," said she, "one of your soldiers has bougat some milk of me, and won't pay me."

"Why don't you pay her?" demanded Mohemet Ali of the soldier.

"Master," said he, "this woman lies .she has sold me no milk and I owe her nothing."

"You swear by Allah that you speak the truth ?" said the Pacha then to the woman. "Yes, I swear it."

"And you, as well?" said he to the sol-

"Yes. I swear it."

"Very well," said the Pacha. Then turning to his guard, he added, with perfect composure, "Take this man and open his atemach."

The Pacha's order was obeyed, and the milk was found. The so dier had just drank

"The woman is right," said Mohemet Ali remounting his horse; "let her have the six paras that are due her," And he continued MINSTRELS his journey.

These thoughts of truth and beauty are from the Vincennes (Indiana) Guzette: Spring is coming, the season of flowers and sunshine. Its return is heralded not only by the singing of the bine-bird and the robin, the green grass springing up by the wayside, and the budding poplars, but by the political candidates springing up thicker than poles in the hop-yard. The saloou-keepers rejetce and the loafers make merry. The old political stagers go forth into the lanes and by-ways and call out to the voters-white red and black -to take a
