Advertising.

Perhaps the best way to attain marked success in business is carefully to observe and faithfully to put in practice the maxims of these men who have achieved eminence in business pursuits. We subjoin herewith the opinions of some of these men:
"Without advertising I should be a poor man to-day."—H. T. Helmbold.
"My success is owing to my liberality in advertising."—Bonner.
"Advertising has furnished me with a competence."—Amos Lawrence.
"I advertised my productions and made money."—Nicholas Longworth.
"Constant and persistent advertising is a sure prelude to wealth."—Stephen Girard.
"He who invests one dollar in business should invest one dollar in advertising."—A. T. Stewart.
P. T. Barnum, the noted exhibitor, ascribes his success in accumulating a million of dollars in ten years to the unlimited use of printer's ink.
"A man who is liberal in advertising is liberal in trade, and such a man succeeds while his neighbor with just as good goods fails and drops out of market."—Horace Greeley.

Have a "sensation,"—in Juniata township, Blair county. Returning one night to his home, where he resided alone, a man discovered twenty-one candles burning on a table in a room, but when he entered all became dark. On another occasion he discovered a single candle under similar circumstances. Then again, on going to bed he blew his out, but awakening in the night discovered it burning. "Responsible citizens" have seen the phenomenon, and those fond of the supernatural are much excited.

A Methodist festival in Buffalo listened to a song from an accomplished young lady in that city Wednesday night, whereat the Commercial gives her the rather indifferent praise of saying that "she is fast, and very deservedly, becoming a favorite with the public."

At San Francisco, in the Camilla Urso Festival, the cannon shot two artillerymen and a small boy in the "Anvil Chorus."
