Gold Hired.

Our citizens will be pained to learn of the dangerous illness of our former townsman, Mr. W. W. Marshall. He is now at his home in Kentucky, and is not expected to live. Mr. M. was for a number of years engaged in the practice of law in this place and his many friends and acquaintances will sincerely regret his illness.

"Thirty persons were added to the Pres- byterian Church in Petroleum Centre last Sunday," the Record says. Can this be true or is it a canard. We never heard before there was a church at Pet. Centre. We always supposed the Record was the only evidence of civilization down there.— Jamestown Daily Journal.

Can it be possible that there are such heathen in Jamestown. While there are no doubt many churches in Jamestown, we never heard of a revival there, except per- haps in the "boozing" trade.

Our old friend, Dan. E. Crocker, proprie- tor of the Kane City Hotel, is meeting with good success at that place. The hotel has been thoroughly repaired and refitted throughout and presents a neat and home- like appearance. Those of our citizens vis- iting Kane City, should drop in and see Dan; get a good square meal and an extra cigar, and our word for it they will go on their way rejoicing.

Upwards of forty leases have been given out on the McCray farms and the Omega Oil Co.'s land, and wells are to be started at once on many of the leases as soon as the weather will permit. Lively times are anticipated thereabouts.

As an evidence of the fact that Charlie Topfif, proprietor of the Rialto Hotel, has resumed specie payment, we have now on exhibition at this office a fifty cent silver piece coined in the year 1856, presented to this office by him, with appropriate speech- es, toasts, &c. It will be on exhibition for a few days only. Admission free. For further particulars apply at the Rialto.

The Story farm post-office is proving a success in a financial and business point of view. The sale of stamps is continually increasing.

Oil operators at Burning Springs give promise of a great increase in the spring. We are informed that arrangements have been made to commence ten new wells soon as the weather permits, while others are in expectancy. Some of the wells will be located on new territory, and hitherto un- developed. We trust that we shall be able to chronicle some big strikes there next summer.—State Journal W. Va.

The well known firm of Winsor Bros., hard- ware dealers, &c., have established a branch store at Lawrenceburg, near Parker's Landing, and are now prepared to furnish oil well supplies of all kinds to the residents throughout. The well known reputation of this firm cannot help but build up an ex- tensive trade at that point, as it has else- where in the oil region.

The act passed by the House, Thursday, at Harrisburg, to prevent gambling and lotteries, enacts that all gamblers shall be fined not more than $1,000 and imprisoned not over five years, and all keepers of games the same. Lottery dealers are punished in the same way, but purchasers of tickets are exempted. Constables are charged with the duty of watching for such games, and punished for neglect; and keepers of hotels, inns and restaurants are forbidden, under severe penalties, for allowing games in their houses. The relatives of those who lose are enabled to sue and recover in any court of record.

A young and sprightly widow once ap- peared at a masquerade at Bath, England, with a paper pinned to her bosom bearing the following lines:

"To be let on lease for the term of my life, I, Sylvia J., in the shape of a wife; I am young, though not handsome, good- natured, though thin— For further particulars inquire within."

A New York correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says: "I was riding in an omnibus the other day when some Adol- phus, with his hair parted in the middle, reached up his fare and upon his thin little arm was a heavy band bracelet. Shortly I noticed he had another upon his other arm; and since then a party dining at an opposite table at Delmonico's displayed the same ornaments upon the wrists of three gentle- men."

A liberal subscription poured in after the Avondale calamity, and some very favora- ble reports were made of the disposition of the funds. The committee who have the matter in charge now speak again, and in tones that should excite a sense of shame. Subscriptions to the Avondale fund have not been paid, and the Secretary is direct- ed to commence suit for the recovery of the amount. A list of those recalcitrant sub- scribers would be interesting. Sympathy is cheap, but when sympathy puts its name down for a hundred dollars let it keep its word.

A little Episcopal Sunday school pupil in Boston, upon being told, recently, that he was old enough to work for Jesus, began his missionary labor by leading a blind man to the Unitarian church. That boy has started for heaven, but he can't go that way and please. "The Church."

Cornelius O'Dowd expresses the opinion in Blackwood's Magazine, that in England a man meets a marvellous energy and "go," that he finds nowhere else. "I, of course, except America," he says; "for with us we work life at high boiler pressure, but the Yankees do more; they sit on the valves."

POLICE.—Warrants were issued this fore- noon for the arrest of two men named Jas. Sullivan and Richard Burke, charged with assault and battery on oath of Mrs. P. Don- egan. The warrants were placed in the hands of officers McHugh and Lawrence, who started in pursuit of the culprit and tracked them as far as Pioneer. Getting wind of the fact that the officers were after them they made off through the woods in the direction of Gregg's Switch and got away. These two scoundrels are connected with the gang of loafers who infest this place, and we hope will be arrested and put in confinement. We give them the benefit of this notice free gratis, and trust that officers of the law elsewhere in the region will be on the look out for them as they are wanted here.

The jail at Starkville, Miss., is described as being difficult to get in but easy to get out of, consisting in fact of a series of big holes with a few bricks scattered around them.

Two Georgia dorkies injudiciously tam- pered with a steam boiler the other day.— They were picked up in the next town- ship.

The "suspension of the Captain of the Bombay for six months" is well enough as far as it goes, but it ought to have been at the end of a rope.

Hayden advises state that the amnesty issued by the Provisional Governor to the Piquets in the district of the south includes their officers, the only man exempted from its terms of pardon being the leader of the Piquets one Jaquet, who has arrogated to himself the title of President of the Repub- lic since the fall of Salnave.

General Quesada is out in a card in which he says: "I will not busy myself at all with denying what the public press may say with regard to me, as I need to devote all my time to the fulfillment in as short a time as possible, of the mission with which the Republican Government of Cuba has charged me."

The numerous stores to rent in Broad- way and other desirable locations in New York, are evidence of the depression in general trade. Over one hundred thousand men are out of employment in that city.— The reduction in the prices of labor has in all cases been initiated by the employers who claim that they are unable to pay the existing rates and the employees have been forced, in every case, to submit.

Captain John Arthur, of Brooklyn, vis- ited New York on the third of February to collect outstanding debts and purchase a sloop, but has not been heard of since. It is believed that thieves know of his busi- ness intentions and waylaid and murdered him. Edward Flannery, a prosperous boat manufacturer, is also missing.

Sam Collier, the pugilist, has issued a manifesto, in which he says that his fight with Billy Edwards was not for the light weight championship, and if the latter wants the title he will give him an oppor- tunity to fight for it, and for as much money as he wishes to put up. Barney Aaron is out with a challenge to Billy Edwards.— He wants to fight at one hundred and twenty pounds, and as an earnest of his inten- tions he has deposited $500 as a forfeit for Edwards to cover.

There was a brilliant and beautiful dis- play of aurora borealis at Louisville Mon- day night, between eleven and twelve o'clock. The sky at first was suffused with a deep roseate hue, then changing rapidly to crimson, purple and yellow, with stream- ers of flame color diverging in different directions. The sky was perfectly clear, and the magnificent phenomenon was witnessed by many persons. The effects were not felt upon the telegraph lines.
