It will be seen by reference to the proevedings of the meeting held last evening, that active measures are to be taken to rid the town of the roughs with which it has beenfinfested for some time past. We are glad to note this movement, and hope the committee will use every endeavor to attain the object desired. They will be sustained by every law-abiding citizen in the community. Let good men be chosen who are not afraid to do their duty, and the miserable scoundrels and knaves will soon "take a walk for their bealth," to a! warmer climate. One that abounds with sulphur would be the most agreeable, the warmer the better.

The meeting of Odd Fellows, at Good Templar's Hall, last evening, was quite largely attended, over lifty members in good standing in the order being in attendance. A committee was appointed to correspond with the officers of the State Lodge, for the purpose of securing a charter for a lodge to be established in this place. It is thought there are at least 150 Odd Fellows in this vicinity who would become members sho'd the lodge he ence organized.

The Wallace Sisters are playing to crowded houses at Franklin. They deserve it.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad are now running "Silver Palace Sleeping Cara" on both of the night express trains, and both ways trom Pittsburgh to Corry. This is a decided accomodation to passengers as they can now take a sleeping car at Corry, on the evening train, and arrive at Pittsburgh next morning bright and early and in good trim for business.

Two special terms of Court for civil cases will be held on the first Monday of May and and the first Monday of June.

The first consignment of through freight from Buffalo to Pittsburgh via the Allegheny Valley Railroad, was received in that city on Wednesday.

It is officially stated that no passenger was killed on the Allegheny Valley Railroad during the last year, and no serious accident occurred to passenger or freight trains.

Attention is called to the advertisement of "House for Sale." This bouse is pleasantly located, and is supplied with all the modera conveniences. It is a very desirable piece of property, and witt be sold on reasonable terms.

Says a New York letter writer: The luckiest vessel I ever knew in the India trade was the Achbar. She cleared for her own owners in one voyage cut and back, $200,000 net profit. A cargo was shipped to Calcutta and there sold, and thence salled for Canton. The English had, at that time blockaded the Chinese ports, and the blockede had just terminated as the Achbar arrived. She loaded with fresh tess and sailed for New York, where the market was very high. Her arrival made a great sensation, and teas fell twenty cents per pound in one day. Notwithstanding this decline. the Achter teas paid an enormous profit.

A meeting of the citizens of the upper end of the town was held at the American Hotel, last evening, for the purpose of adopting measures to rid the town of the roughs and pimps with which it is infested. The meeting was called to order, and on motion E. W. Barker was called to the Four ministers passed through Titusville yesterday going down to the Centre It is irreverently binted that they were "going down to Oshkosh to have a me fun with the boys."

—Pleasantville Guelight.

They should have brought the editor of the Caslight along to introduce them around among "the boys," as one would naturally suppose, after reading his paper awhile, that he was better posted in regard to what was going on in Ushkosh than most any one else. Oshkosh, the "benzine" portion of it especially, and the editor of the Guslight are probably better acquainted than he is with the praying portion of community .-Poor boy!

Alluding to the officers and crew of Oneida, the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser says: "It is a proud, sad piece of history. which touches the hearts and brings water to the eyes of the countrymen of that gallant crew, Their death was a victory over death itself-a spectacle of moral grandeur, which only a heroic race could exhibit, and worth more to their country and to the service than a dozen triumphs won in passion and aplendor of battle. We feel as though we would give all the ships in the navy to have saved them, and yet we would hardly be willing to have saved them at the sacrifice of their great example."

A young lady met in company a young gentleman who evidently had an excellent opinion of himself. During conversation he introduced the subject of matrimony, and expatiated at length upon the kind of wife he expected to marry, that is," if ever be should take the decisive step. The honored lary must be wealthy, beautiful, accomplish. ed, amiable, &c., &c. His listener quietly waited until be ended, and then completely confounded him by asking in the coolest possible manner, "And pray, sir what have y in to offer in return for this?" The young man stammered, reddened a little, and walked away.

A Portland club has the following question proposed for discussion: "Can a Lig man sche berder than a little man!"

Hans Breitmann seems to have written a travesty on "Excelsior," by which the raptdly fading Shoo Fly is for a few brief hours galvanized into new life. The first two etanzas run in this way:

Der efening clouds was seddling fasd, As a young man drough der filinge bassed, Shkading along mid der shdorn and bail Mit dese vords tied on his coad dail: "Shoo, fly."

"Oh! don'd go such a night like dose," His mudder gries. "You will got froze: Dot John Frosd dot will nib your ear." He only said so mit a shneer: "Shoo, fly."

The Texaus are packing 27,000 beeves this winter, costing at the packeries two and one half to three cents in gold per pound, one beef making two barrels. Two thirds of this amount is packed in tierces and sent to Europe. These packeries are located near water transportation, and are entirely distinct from the great slaughter houses where cattleare killed for their hide

The Internal Revenue Assessors get some funny answers to thequestions printed on their blanks. For instance, "Had your wife any income lastyear?" one person replies, "Yes, one boy" Another, "An impertinent question, at no." A third, her busband's love, andas much money from him as she wants, sut no other incame: fourth, "Yes, twins-both well; willing to be taxed for them;" ifth, "Have not been able to discover thathe had any," etc.,
