JAMES DUNN, Pastor.

Gold 111 1/2.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Devlin & Co., Clothiers, Broadway, New York. These gentlemen have been engaged in the clothing business for a number of years, and their superior facilities for importing foreign goods direct, and controlling many leading styles of American fabrics, enables them to furnish clothing at a much cheaper figure than can be procured elsewhere in New York city or at any other point.

Mr. John A. Stewart, of Cherrytree, lost his pocket-book at the depot, yesterday. He had just purchased a ticket and his pocket-book laid near the window of the office, when he was called to the door, leaving the purse lying there. Upon returning a moment after it was missing.

In the matter of The Trinity M. E. Church of Oil City vs. the O. C. & A. R. R., praying for an injunction against the Railroad comp'y to restrain them from using lands which the church claim as their own, Judge Trunkay has delivered an opinion denying the prayer of the plaintiffs.

The Petroleum House, at Oil City, has again changed hands, Messrs C. W. Staats and J. R. Miles assuming the proprietorship this time. Under the new management this old and reliable hotel will continue to gain in popularity.

See new time-table of Buffalo, Corry & Pittsburgh Railroad, in another column.

The bill for a steam ferry at Parker's Landing has passed the Senate and up to third reading in the House.

Preparations for developing the McCray and Dalkell farms, as soon as the weather will permit, continue to be made.

Green vegetables of various kinds have made their appearance in the market.

Petroleum Items from all Sources

EMLESTON OIL DISTRICT. The Bennett and Crawford well, the new strike on Middleton Run, is now pumping ten barrels daily, not 45 as at first represented.

The Redfield well is producing 12 barrels. The Baum well is producing nine barrels.

The Widel well is being sunk deeper, the discovery having been made that the well was not through the third sand.

Five wells have actually commenced drilling on the Marshall farm, two miles below.

THE TIDLOUPE DISTRICT.

This locality is daily attracting more and more attention of operators in all parts of the country. On the Henderson farm, the Clapp well is pumping seventy-five barrels, and many new rigs are going up.

The Tidloupe & Warren Oil Co., sold 5000 barrels of oil Friday, at the following prices 2000 barrels $3.87 1/2; 3000 bbls at $3.90. We hear of a sale of 4000 barrels on private terms.

On the Tidloupe & Warren tract, the Fisher & Cushing wells are as follows: No 1 in third sand, No. 2 drilling, No. 3 pumping thirty barrels, No. 4 pumping sixty barrels, No. 5 sparring around tools, No. 6 pumping eighty barrels and increasing.

On the N. Y. and Allegheny tract, Parshall No. 2 testing after torpedoing; No. 3 pumping 15 bbls; No. 4 pumping 150 bbls; No. 5 15 bbls; No. 6 testing. Stevens & Fisher testing.

WEST HICKORY ITEMS.

This new and important oil field is being rapidly developed. The good producing territory is now fully one mile square, and the prospects are that it will prove as large as any old district heretofore discovered.

Miles farm is owned by the Warren & Veazoo Oil Co., of Pittsburgh. The wells are among the oldest in this district and have fallen off considerably within the last sixty days. Coe, Smutz & Co., 2 wells producing 27 bbls, Cellios Bro., two wells producing 10 barrels, Irvington Oil Co., two wells producing 4 barrels. Arminia well, producing 2 barrels, Wideawake well, producing 4 barrels, Hoffman well, producing 2 bbls. Total 50. Number of wells drilling, three.

On the Royal E. Scott farm. This farm is owned by Scott, Grandin & Fisher. Dewey & Laney well producing 7 barrels. No. of wells drilling, 2.

On the R. C. Scott farm. Thornburg well producing 6 barrels. Goodrich well producing 35 barrels. Total 41. No. of wells drilling, 2. Harmony well, testing.

A San Franciscan, speaking of the orchestra in the Chinese Theatre there says: "I tell you, you can bet your bottom dollars that you never heard anything like in; why, when that Band struck up, it sounds like ten thousand wash bills tumbling off a fire story building on to a brick sidewalk."

Bon Platt laments the degeneracy of the race as seen in the "spindle shanked whiffets, with blue ties and slim umbrellas, who walk with a long stride, suggestive of cranes in postprandial vibrations." He declares that a Washington girl "graduates half-fledged into full fashion, and becomes a leader of society, to churn up, night after night, champagne, ice cream and indigestible cake in round dances, until she captures a whiffet, and becomes the weakly mother of whiffets."

A trial in an Alabama town not long since, one of the witnesses, an old lady of eighty years, was closely questioned by the opposing counsel relative to the clearness of her eyesight. "Yes," was answered. "How well can you see me?" persisted the lawyer. "Well enough," responded the lady, "to see that you're neither a negro, an Indian nor a gentleman." The answer brought down the house and silenced the counsel.

Griffes Bros. continue to add to their stock of fancy articles. The latest invoice consists of combs, brushes, &c.

The fresh fish trade is quite lively at present. Hucksters occupy every corner of the street nearby, to the great detriment of regular dealers.

A man named Hale was arrested this forenoon by officer McHugh, charged with throwing stones at several individuals last evening. He gave bail for his appearance before Justice Donaghy for trial.

Several of the trains on the O. C. & A. R. R., were delayed yesterday by land slides between Oleopolis and Oil City.

The new Fox well is yielding about 18 barrels per day.

The roads are almost impassable.

Spring fashions of clothing are making their appearance.

At the last term of Court in Armstrong county, the following cases from Parker's Landing were tried:

Com. vs. Ben. Hogan, Ben. Sabins. Indictment, keeping bawdy house. A true bill.

Com. vs. W. P. Book, Charles Green, Wm. Hart, Wm. Casey. Indictment, keeping bawdy house. A true bill.

Com. vs. Charles Green, Wm. Reeves, McCormick. Indictment, malicious mischief. A true bill.

Com. vs. W. P. Book. Keeping gambling house. A true bill.

Com. vs. Charles Green, alias Davis. Indictment, keeping bawdy house. A true bill.

In all of the above cases a nolle prosequi was entered, conditioned that the defendant enter bail for good conduct in future, and if any further pursuit of their vicious and pernicious habits they to be treated as refugees from justice. There were also over thirty-two bills found against persons for illegal traffic in liquor, but will not be tried until June session. About two hundred witnesses were in attendance at Court from Parker's alone.

General Sherman wrote a letter, on Thursday, acknowledging the receipt of one from General Sheridan, wherein the latter defends his conduct on the Indian question. General Sherman replies that he indorses Sheridan's letter, and says he prefers to believe Colonel Baker relative to the details of the attack on the Piegans, rather than the stories trumped up at Denton, one hundred miles from the scene of the fight.

He believes Baker when the latter says that a majority of the Piegans who were killed were warriors; that the firing on them ceased when the resistance ceased; that quarter was given to all who asked it, and that one hundred women and children were allowed to go free and join other portions of the tribe. He believes this, he says, rather than the absurd report that only thirty warriors were killed, the rest being women and children afflicted with small-pox. Nor does he believe that Colonel Baker wantonly and cruelly killed any of them.

Miss Anna Dickerson sent Miss Susan Anthony a silk gown and two hundred dollars as a birthday present.

A chap advertises in the Elmira Advertiser that he wishes to "room and board" with some widow in that city.

A Haverhill man advertises for a partner with a capital of $1,000 to go into the manufacture of stone giants.

Thalberg, the pianist, is said to be worth half a million. He does not play at concerts any more.

Dawes is the recorder of the House, and Dick Yates the decanter of the Senate.—Detroit Free Press.

A Trentonian persisted in dying with his boots on. Since then the mourners have found $17,000 in them.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PETROLEUM CENTRE.—The impression having gone forth that I intend to leave town and resign my position as night watchman after the 1st of May, I take this method of informing the citizens of Petroleum Centre that it is my intention to remain in town and act in the capacity of night watchman until dismissed by the citizens.

PETER KINSEY.

Grace Greenwood tells a story of the effect once produced by the eloquence of Senator Nye, Biblically backed, fervent and effectually, by telling texts. Though what vulgarly called a stump speech, it had as much the character of pulpit oratory that one auditor, at least, was perfectly affected. A nice, susceptible old lady, wiping the tears from her eyes, said, addressing some callous politicians about her: "I don't know what you may think; but I believe that man knows something about vital piety."

A New London Sabbath School teacher said to a little boy, recently: "Suppose some bad, wicked boy should stop you on your way to church, and ask you to go to some bad place with him. What should you say?" "What should I say?" repeated the little wag. "I should say: 'Shoo! shoo! don't bother me; I'm bound for Sunday school.'"

The coal trade continues to be lively at present.

The new Mayor elect of Titusville will be inaugurated on Monday next.

Corry has purchased a steam fire engine.
