Oil Producers Meeting in Regard to the Free Pipe Bill.

FRANKLIN, March 30, 1870.

Editor Record: The Free Pipe Bill has passed the House of Representatives, and is now pending before the Senate.

A strong opposition to its passage is said to exist, endangering the success of the bill.

It is necessary that all who are interested in the cheap transportation of oil, at regular and uniform rates, unite, in presenting to the Senate their petitions for the passage of the bill, with the reasons which support the petitions.

Immediate and earnest action is necessary to save this important measure from defeat.

A meeting of oil men, both Producers and Shippers, is called to be held at Oil City on Friday, April 1st, in Library Hall, at ten o'clock a. m., to adopt such measures as the occasion requires.

A full attendance is desired. Wm. BROUGH, Pres't. Pet. Producers' Association.

A general order from the headquarters of the army announces the death of General Thomas. It gives an account of his life and services, and says: The General has known General Thomas intimately since they sat as boys on the same bench, and the quality in him which he holds up for the admiration and example of the young, is his complete and entire devotion to duty.

Though sent to Florida, to Mexico, Texas and Arizona, when duty there was absolute banishment, he went cheerfully and never asked as a personal favor, exemption or leave of absence. In battle he never wavered; firm and full of faith in his cause, he knew it would prevail, and he never sought advancement of rank or honor at the expense of any one.

Whatever he earned of these were his own, and no one disputed his fame. The very impersonation of honesty, integrity and honor, he will stand to us as the best ideal of a soldier and a gentleman. Though he leaves no child to bear his name, the old army of the Cumberland, numbered by tens of thousands, called him father, will weep for him in tears of manly grief.

His wife, who cheered him with her messages of love in the darkest hours of the war, will mourn him now in sadness chastened by the sympathy of the whole country. The last sad rites due him as a man and soldier will be paid at Troy, N. Y., on the arrival of his remains, and friends of his family and all of his comrades who can be present are invited, there to share in the obsequies.

At all military posts and stations flags will be placed at half mast, and fifteen guns fired on the day after the receipt of this order, and usual badges of mourning will be worn thirty days.

By command of General Sherman.

Owing to recent rains the Allegheny River is now navigable for light crafts, and the rivermen are availing themselves of this opportunity to run up from Pittsburgh with barges of coal and take back the oil which has accumulated at different points for transportation. On Monday the "Oil Valley," "Gipsy," and several other tow boats passed Parker's, bound up with barges, and the General Larimer down with these barges of oil in tow.

Oil City will not ship much oil to Pittsburgh by the present rise, but at Tidlow, Oleopolis and White Oak, there is considerable that will be moved, while at various points upon the river below Oil City, small quantities are awaiting shipment.—Herald.

On Saturday morning about twenty minutes past nine o'clock, one and a half miles west of Altoona, Pa., as the Pacific Express going west was rounding a curve on the mountain side at a rapid rate, a deep precipice on one side and high impending rocks on the other, a wee lad was seen ahead, waving his hat and tossing his little arms aloft. The train was stopped within a few feet of a mass of rock and dirt upon the track sufficient to have thrown passengers and cars over the precipice.

The lad, whose name is William Canko, not yet ten years old, had seen the fall and hastened to signal the approaching train.

The San. Lake Daily Telegraph, a Gen. tile paper, says, in regard to the Caloon bill, that it agrees with the Sun and other journals that the better way for Congress to deal with Utah is to admit her as a State, and let the high civilization, religious teaching, noble example and Christian arguments of the millions of the republic lead the thousands of Utah to a higher moral plane, if they can.

A dreadful accident occurred Tuesday morning at the coal mine of Richard Hechschler, a few miles from Shenandoah City, Va. Schurkill county, Pa. All were instantly killed.
