THE EXCHANGE HOTEL AT FRANKLIN DESTROYED BY FIRE.—A special dispatch from Franklin, received last evening, states that the Franklin Exchange Hotel took fire at half past four, yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon, and was entirely consumed. The loss on the hotel and furniture is estimated at one hundred and thirty thousand ($130,000) dollars; the insurance was thirty-four ($34,000) thousand. In the building was situated the Postoffice, two telegraph offices, and two insurance offices. Most of the furniture and papers were saved all the mail matter was also saved. The Exchange was a comparatively new hotel having been erected in 1866. It was owned by a stock company of liberal and wealthy citizens, Col. Blakely, Messrs. Hanna, Hoover and others. Mr. T. J. Byles of Oil City, was the first landlord. His successors were Messrs. Stratton & Graper, and latterly Mr. Stratton has conducted it alone. On Wednesday last Messrs. Goodwin & Walker became the lessees. Mr. Goodwin being from New York City, and Mr. Walker from Brown's hotel at Erie.

DARING ATTEMPT AT HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Last night about 9 o'clock, while Mr. James Wilson, who is operating on the Gebring farm, was on his way to the Centre, at a point on Benninghoff Hill where the woods are rather thick, he was met by a stranger who inquired into his circumstances, &c., and finally made the remark—"You are the man I want; give me your money," at the same time drawing a revolver and firing on him. Mr. W. threw up his left arm and partially warded off the shot, which struck him in the fleshy part of the arm and made a very severe flesh wound. Mr. W. drew his revolver and fired several shots at the man, who ran away into the bushes and disappeared. As the night was a bright moonlight one, Mr. W. recognized his assailant and says he would know him should he see him. This is the most daring attempt at highway robbery that we have heard of for some time.

P. S.—Officer Kinney arrested a suspicious character at a late hour this morning, but Mr. Wilson failed to identify him, and he was subsequently set free.

Our citizens will bear in mind that Sherry's New York Theatre commence a brief engagement at Sobel's Hall, this evening. The performance will commence with the powerful four act drama, by Dion Boucicault, entitled "After Dark; or, London by Night," in which the entire strength of the company will appear. The performance will conclude with the side-splitting farce of "Jenny Lind." Let there be a crowded house.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of H. C. Wachter, who is now established in his new quarters on Wild Cat street, at Bryan's old stand. He has also established a branch store at Huntington's old stand, on Washington-St. Mr. W. is a fair and honorable dealer, and will undoubtedly build up a good trade, as we trust he may. Give him a call.

The French Congress at Chicago is said to be harmonious.

THE SEASON AND THE CROPS.—The Chicago Republican says the past winter with all its snow, has been most favorable to all kinds of crops, and warrants the belief that the coming harvest will be most bountiful. The soil has been but slightly frozen, and there has been no winter killing. The departing snows expose smiling fields where the plow was allowed to do its last fall's work. But the spring season for plowing will be late, and must be hurried. Still, the first of May will probably exhibit a breadth of planting equal to any past year. Stock has wintered well, and comes out in good condition. Fruit of all kinds has escaped damage, and the promise of a crop was never better.

When the funeral train of Gen. Thomas reached Dunkirk, the President of the village went aboard and invited General Sheridan to come forth; he was greeted with three cheers, a salute and music. Solemn funeral, that. The Dunkirkers are "up" to the delicate proprieties of life. General Sheridan didn't consent to make a stump speech or to "take a drink" with the crowd.

During the past ten years April has been a memorial month in the calendar. The attack on Fort Sumter and the beginning of the long civil war occurred on the 19th of April. Richmond and Petersburg were evacuated on the third of April; Lee surrendered on the 9th; Abraham Lincoln was shot on the 14th and died on the 15th, a little past seven o'clock; Wilkes Booth, the murderer, was shot by Boston Corbett on the 24th, and on the 27 Johnson surrendered his army to Sherman.

At the battle of Gettysburg General Gabriel R. Paul of St. Louis was shot through both eyes, and his eyesight wholly destroyed. The Excelsior Oil works, owned by Messrs. Gudeville, Mayer & Co., Dundas, Ontario, were destroyed by fire last week on Wednesday. All the buildings and machinery are total wrecks. About 2000 barrels of crude oil, and a quantity of refined was destroyed. Loss not known, but very heavy. The fire occurred through the carelessness of one of the workmen, who was holding a lamp near one of the stills, when the gas ignited, and the buildings were instantly in flames. Although only doing business for a few months, the works were said to have turned out some of the most superior burning and lubricating oil, ever seen in Canada, and their operations were to have been extended to the manufacture of paraffine and even dye-stuffs.

A fire broke out about 7 o'clock last evening in Manning's cooper shop, Oil City. The cooper shop, engine house of the refinery, three cars containing six wooden tanks filled with oil, and other property was destroyed. Loss about $5,000.
