A SONG. Tis not the murmaring voice of Spring

That stirs my beart and makes me sing; Tis not the blue skies, bubbling o'er With sumshine spilled along earth's floor; Nor yet the flash of bursting rose, Nor bloom of any flower that grows.

It is that long, long years ago, When all the world was blashing so-It is then my cheek blushed too, My heart beat fast for love and you; There was a music in the air I fail to find now any where.

And so, when Spring comes wandering by I lose the thread of misery; Trusting the promise of her days, I tune my voice to sing her praise, And cheat myself with the sweet pain That in the Spring Love blooms again.

Jenkins, of this city, purchased of the Huidekoper Petroleum Company of New York, sixty acres, laying along and north of the Pittsburgh and Cherry Run Petroleum Company lands, near Shamburgh. The price paid was $24,000. But little development has been made. The Jenkins well No. 1, working interest owned by Jepkins & Smith, was torpedoed last Wednesday, and for twenty. four hours to last evening produced by actual measurement 92 barrels, Several other wells are commenced on the farm by experienced operators. The farm blds fair to be one of the best in the region. The fortunate cwners could take $100,000 at any time were they inclined to sell.

The McBride farm is coming into favorble notoriety from the fact that it has never given a dry hole. Several good wells have been lately struck on it. The Lyman Smith utting up prescriptio-is. So ex- farm has now some good producing wells.
