A Montreal special to the N. Y. Tribune under date of May 30th, says: Information is reselved from the west that preparations for a descent upon Niagara are more extensive than had been imagined, and fears are entertained that the Fenians in that locality will be across before the Government is ready. Toronto has looked upon the whole affair with so much indifference up to yesterday that no thought of danger to the western lines have been entertained, and nearly all the available volunteers have benealed out, with the exception of a leattalion further to rear, and these are ordered to be in readiness. The Toronto, artitiery and infantry are ready for active s rvice. All points along the border are being garrisoned as speedily as possible.

Dispatches from Malone state that Gen. Meade has ordered the arrest of all .Fenian officers, and General Gleason, Col. Lindsey, of New York, Dr. Donnelly of Pittsburgh, and Capt. Mann of Malone, have been marched to the guard bouse. The Feman camp has been seized by United Sta'es troops. The Fenians have nearly all left for home and quiet is nearly restored.

We inadver eatly omitted to mention the fac in our issue of yesterday that the foot racedid not come off on Saturday on account of the non-appearance of one of the conte tants, quite a number went down to the race course and waited for some time expesting it would come off. Their disappointmet was not without some pleasant fentures.' Mr. Peter Rinny, our efficient melit watchman, and his lady, entertained the Prty hard om y on real old-fashioned country fare, such as fresh butter milk, brend and milk, &c. The occasion will long be remembered by those present, who will bear testimony to the fact that Kinney never does anything "by haives."

A lamp explos on occurred at Erle on haturday night, by which two ladies were burned, one unirowly escaped death

The Franklin Citizen has the following eport of oil matters in that vicinity:

Tork Bros., cleaned out and torpedoed the Stock well, on the Point, and commeneed pumping last week. It is now producing four barrels per day.

Dr. Egbert has commenced creeting rigs on the Dewoody tract, on the bill above the Point.

Col. James Bleakley and Dr. Egbert purchased the Hughes Act, of thirty acres, adjoining land of Martin & Epley, on the Point, and will soon commence operations.

COCHRAN FARM .- This farm is about the oldest producing tract in this section of the oll regions, and is located about ten miles below this city. For many years a number of wells produced very largely, but at present the largest wells are not producing over four barrels. The following shows the amount of oil produced per day on this tract: Stotter well 21, bbls J. Sheasley, No. 1 2 bbls 3 bbls No. 2 R. A. Brasbear, No. 1 2 bbis 2 66'8 " " No. 2 B. & C. H. Swann, 4 wells 11 bbls Rennett & Shaffer 2点 bbls 21, bhis Shaffer & Dale 215 bbis Chas. Shaffer J. McCutcheen 4 bbls

Making the total production of the farm 4016 barrels. Three new wells are being drilled. The oil produced is of a good inbriesting quality and sells for five dollars per barrel at the well.

Petroleum Centre is a perfect paradisc for the impecunions. Mr. Edward Satherand, proprietor of the Petroleum Exchange at that piace, furnishes tree meals to all such. The establishment is conducted on atricity temperance principles—nobody be-ing absolutely obliged to drink.—Forest Republican.

Ed. was always known for his charitable disposition. We have known him to feed nd less than twenty-five impecunious fadividuals in one day, including the "father of all dead beats."

A Baltimore youth reared a ladder to the winds w of his Dolclanea the other night. and ascended it on a seranading mission. Her father's big dog rushed at the ladder and overthrew it, landing the youth in the paternal bed-room below, from which he emerged shortly, just in advance of a bootjack.

In Providence, the other day, a joker engage and paid five hand-organists to play one hour before the door of a nervous buich. er. They did it, despite the offer of the butcher to pay them $1 each to go sway, and against all his entreaties and threats. Each organ played a different fune, and the combination was somewhat terride.

In Providence, the other day, a man refused to pay his three weeks brides's fine for drunkesness. He said she was "a pretty fair sort of woman," but he was afraid of establishing a bad precedent, so she went to Pittsburgh has no less than ten daily jour. nals, including three printed in German. It doesn't cost much to print a paper there. Take a square yard of the atmosphere of the city, and stir in a quart of crude petroleum and you have hall a gallon of just as good ink as Pittsburg printer wants. - Louisville Conrier Journal.

Edward F. Galiagher, youngest son of the editor of the Virginia Free Pres, printed at Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Virginia, took the first prize at the Brooklyn tournament recently, it being a valuable mare, "Ludy Bianche." The father, with excusable pride, issued a "Free Press Extra" to announce the fact.

There is a society in operation for the prevention of cruelty to beasts. Should not a society be organized to prevent men from becoming beasts? In Williamsburgh, New York, a doctor and a brewer, on a wager, had a beer drinking bout; the one guzzled fifty glasses of beer, the other fifty-five,there were two funerals in the course of a week. A correspondent of the Temperance Times says a saloon keeper, near Loveland, Ohio, has a standing notice that he will present a gold headed cane to that cestomer who, during the coming year will drink and pay for the most whisky at his rum hote.

The Rev. Churley B. Smythe, of "gin and milk" notoriety, has engaged Masonic Hall at New York for morning and evening services. He is also alleged to have been sued by Mr. McDonald for $18 for milk furnished and pot paid for.

Luther S. Totton of Bartholemew, Indiana, with a wife and five children, has been surprised by the appearance of a former wife all the way from Eastport, Maine, and has fled in dismay, leaving the two wives to McFarlandize between themselves.

Mrs. Lynch and ber,children dug a deep grave for Lopez with cigar box lids and buried him and his son together.

At Erie, on Wednesday morning, a caust bost was so carrened by unloading on one side that she geotly and gracefully swung over, shipped a cargo of the "vasty deep," and went down. The cook was in bed at the time of the catastrophe and had to shift for herself lively. That was all she had on. A borse was also on board the boat, and was with difficulty rescued from drown-

A leading clergyman of New York, in a recent sermon, said he impeached the socity of to-day; that it is altogether too loose; that the Americans are fast losing the idea of home, and that any man, if he is wealthy, can do any immoral act he pleases, and still be welcomed into the drawing rooms of our best families, while our mothers and daughters do not hesitate to take him by the hand.

The Cincinnati Times raises the question as towho is the most reprehensible, the man who bathes in the canal in the daytime, or the policem in who bides his clothes, stones 2m out of the water, and then chases him asked through the streets.

A Good PRESCRIPTION -The Detroit

"A Cleveland paper complains that young a large revenue from the strong minded in ladies, on the streets late at night without protectors, are liable to insult, and ask for a remedy. We have a demedy, in use by the young ladies here, who never get insulted. It is to get into a pile of factory cloth at a proper hour, say prayers, draw the bed clothes over their beads, and leave the police to look out for those females who delight to mean fer around at midnight.

A Hartford man went home, one evening and complained to his wife that he had been shamefully abused at the store. One of the neighbors, he said, had called him a liar. Her eyes flashed with indignation.

"Why didn't you tell him to prove it," he exclaimed.

"That's the very thing-that's the trouble," replied the busband; "that's just what I did do. I told him to prove it, and he did prove it."

Says a good advice giver: "Find fault only when you must, and then in private, if possible, and some time after the off-nee. The blame are less inclined to resist when they are chided without witnesses, and the accused may be impressed with the forbearance of the acceser, who although ty's noticing the fault, waited for a proper time to mention It.
