By a private dispatch from Cunningham, Pa., we learn that the big well on Armstrong Run, was cleaned out yesterday, and is now flowing at the rate of two hundred and ofty barrels per day.

An off train on the Atlantic & Great Western Kaliway, took fire yesterday morn- and willty. ing, near Cleveland, and was totally de stroyed. The flames communicated to the bridges over the river and Oals canal, and destroyed them. The Kernache Manufacturing Company's machine shop wes damaged to the expent of $20,000.

A large number of our citizens left town this morning to attend the races at Titus-

THE TURY AT KANE CITY .- The Bempsy Bro's, Dan. Crocker, and others at Kane City, have recently been engaged in grading a race course. The race course is a chort distance above town on the flats, and has been juid out regardless of expense, and great sport is anticipated by those interested in horse flesh. The course is about onefourth, of a mile long. We look for some lively races there during the season.

Major Mackey la now tubing a well on the Manelwoo farm, Cherrytree Run, with good prospects of getting oil. The well part down is a test well, to settle the question as to whether this farm was a continuation of the Brown farm oil beit About 22 feet of executest sand rock was found in the fourte sand. The well is yielding 6 barrels per day. A torpedo is seen to be put in to Pirmus, says: "Think of Secrates selland an increase of production is looked for. We leard that another well is to be put down on the same larm at once.

Boys he CARPPUT .- The Lagislature possed a bill which has been signed by the to one of his published tragedles; of the Governor, fining hops who jumped on cars courtly Kenophon taking topographical St for each offence. We see that some of our boys person in violating the law and risking their lives. An example or two the smoking car and playing a game of avonid probably have a good off ot.

Gen. O'Nell Speaks.

The Fenian O'Neil, in an interview with tor, emphatically denies the correctness of away a drop of it. John B---, hearing the published accounts of his capture at of his habits, rode over to his farm one Pigeon Hill. He ascribes the failure of the morning when the following conversation expedition to the fact that he had not as many troops under him as had been promised, and singularly enough he still retains the most exalted opinion of the valor of the Peniaus, whom he believes are destined to achieve the liberty of Ireland some time in the near future, by the successful invasion of Canadian soil. On the morning of the engagement at Pigeon Hill he had but three buseled and sixty-five men in his command when, according to previously formed plans, be should have been capering gaily at the head of sixteen hundred Irish Republican soldiers, as be modestly puts it. He did not desire to complicate our government diplomatically, and he has no ill-feeling against, any persen save Marshal Foster, but for whom he would with his force have entered Canada.

A frightful scone occurred at the Bowery Theatre, New York, on Saturday night .-The young woman who performs in the eage with the Pumaltons was seized by the throat by one of the lions and terribly lacerated before she could be rescued. Her piercing stricks throw the audience into a panic. Many people fainted. She was taken home and received prompt surgical attention.

The Excutive Com. of the Young Men's Christian Association of Petroleum Centre. will hold a business meeting in the Presbyterian church, on Friday evening, June 3d, at 8 o'clock.

The James flowing well, at Burning prings, West Virginia, promises to remain

OR IN THE WEST .- Carbon oil has been liscovered in the town of Iola. in Waupaca made to sink wells.

A new oil spring was discovered in Isabella county, Michigan, on the 29 ult., by Mr. Norman, of Mill Brook, on his farm.

The Waitace Sisters are performing at Corry to crowded houses. They appear to this place soon.

Col. Painter is announced as a candidate for Congress in the Greensburg Democratic papers.

Col. Painter is well known hereaboute, having been engaged in the oil business for several years. He is one of the owners of the Brown farm, Cherrytree Run, Undoubtedly he would make an bonest and capable representative.

Another new detrick is going up on the McCray farm. Mr. Edward Taft is the owner, and proposes sinking a well at once. The well is located on an old lease, on the side bill above Dr. Egherts residence.

The names of a number of officers on both sides of the rebellion have been used in connection with the Fenian raid, but generally without any truth. Moseby, Fitzbugh Lee and others who have been represented as being on band directing affairs, are quier ly pursuing their regular avocations at home, baving seen quite enough of that kind of life. The management of the business is a libel on their military experience

Mayor Kinney, of Allemagoezelum City, was the recipient of a grand complimentary serenade, at the hands of the "Cowbellogians and Tinpanonians" of Kane City, a night or two since. The Mayor responded neat little speech, after vited the party into his palatial residence, and they partook of the good cheer set before them and became exceedingly merry, and the rejoicing was kept up to the "wee sma' hours avant the twat."

The tools which have been fast in the Elliott well, Brown farm, for some weeks past, were taken out a day or two since and the well will soon be ready for testing. A good well is auticipated.

The loud report, heard about noon, was occasioned by the explosion of empty nitroglycerine cans belonging to the Roberts Torredo Co.

Strawberries have made their appearance in the market. Only forty cents a quart, James Wells, coal dealer, took a plank, twenty cents a pint, and live cents for a

An irreverent Athens correspondent, speaking of the new railroad from that city loquizing over a steam engine, Diogenes with his tub dead-heading it to Piraus, of hargling about a seven cent ticket; of Euri' pides working up a railroad catastrophe innotes for his Anabasis from the window o a sleeping car; or of Alcibiades folling in high low lack for the eights."

THE STINGLEST MAN. - Hans Von Spigen was notorious for the excellent' quality of newspaper reporter, at the jail in Burling- his cider, but was never known to give tock place:

Good morning, Hans, Good morning, Shou, Hans, you have a fine orchard.

Ob, yes, goot orebart. Fine press, that of yours. Yes, vine press, vine orchart.

Hans, I hear that your cider is the best in the country. Shon (to his son) | go down and draw a muck of elder.

Shon brought up the desired mug, and Hans drained it to the bottom, then he turned around to the astonished B., and said: If you don't believe dat's goot citer, shoost shmell de muck. Poor B. mounted his horse and rode away, fully convinced that Hars Von Spigen was the meanest Dutchman on rec-

CRUDE AND REFINED.

An Ohio man complain that his wife has run off with "a kind of redish melatter and wants them arrested.

A Baltimore lady attempted to pour som kerosene oli fcom one jug to another on Wednesday evening, and now has no jugs, and is busily occupied in attending to ber burnt face and hands.

A lady, whose bushand, an officer in the army, was ordered to Fort Larned since the Indian troubles, refused to accompany him, as she said. "she had but very little hair on her head but what she had she preferred to keep."

Pittsburgh has a real nice, pious old lady under arrest for scealing a large, illustrated Bible. She said bers was too find print. and she chaldn't get any consolution out of it. She wanted to find if there was anycounty. Wis, and preparations are being thing in it about gin and milk, as it was printed later than hers, with all the late improvements.

The mere apprehensions of evi! has put many into a situation of danger.

One of the funniest things of the day is the joke about a certain canal in this country, the location of which is not given .-We are told that this highway never afforded but one dividend, and that was one summer when the directors moved the tow path, and divided the hay-Cleveland Plaindealer.

A one legged vagrant, at Eimira, recently kept a posse of police at hay by unshipping his wooden leg and using it as ashil: leish.

General John A. Granger, who died last week in Canandalgua, N. Y., was almost penniless at the hour of his death. He was an intropid cavalry leader.

"Born dead! Too poor to bury! too proud to beg!" was written on a piece of paper in a box containing the dead body of an infant, picked up in the street in New York on Sunday.

The editor of the Gouncil Bluff Times counted seventy-seven femate gam-chewers on the street within tifteen minutes.

A St. Paul Pioneer printer "pled" bis form on Saturday night by falling out of a third story window.

The money, amounting to $102, given to Fisk and Jay Gould for felling the Congressional committee where the woodbine twineth," was donated by them to the Soldlers' and Sa'lors' Orphaes' Home, and has procured the orphans some articles of dress unobtainable before.

Mike McCoole and Tom Allen signed articles of agreement at St. Louis, last Satur. day afternoon for a fight for a purse of twenty-five bundred dollars a side, the battle to take place within fifty miles of that city.

An intoxicated German fell into the river from the Newport ferry boat at Cincinnati. on Tuesday evening, and when carried by current about sixty yards down the river, jumped into the water, reached the sinking man and brought him to shore. The rescued one did not throw his arm a around his preservers neck and weep tears of gratitude and joy, but, half sobered by the bath be shook the water out of his ears, remarked, "old poy, you's a preck." put his hand in his pocket, pulled out a three-dent piege off-red it to Mr. Wells, smiled a satisfied smile when it was rejected, and walked resignedly away.

The Corryitos are agitating the question of calabrating the courts 2 Fourth of July -A meeting for that purpose has been called by the Mayor of the city.

One or two wells on the Central Petrol cum Co's farm are nearly completed.

Dying words are sometimes strange. A colored man who died in jail at New Castle, Delaware, the other day, said to his nurse, "You won't have to wash any more shirts for me;" and an old man whose feet were cut off on the Philadelphia and New York Railroad, Wednesday night, said it "would cost him less for boots."

A young man bas been discovered in North Haven, Conn., who confessed that for eight years he has been in the habit of climbing up to the windows of young tadies' chambers upon a short ladder at the hour of retiring and peeping in. He has fled from town to escape the wrath of the young
