It is said that a new charge is to be preferred against Rev. Dr. Clark at Pittsburgh, who was reprimanded for breach of promise, on account of the alleged fact that the "promise" was made prior to the decease of the revered gentleman's wife. The prosecutor in the new case is said to be the accused's brother-in-law, who appeared as his counsel in the former trial.

A fire broke out on the Clairmont farm, about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, which destroyed the rig of one well, engine-house, and five hundred barrels of oil. The loss is estimated at $5,000, and falls upon Jonathan Watson, Geo. K. Anderson, Samuel A. Woods, D. O. Wickham and others. It is not known how the fire originated.

Our townsman, Mr. J. Diekey and family, intend leaving town in a day or two on a pleasure trip to St. Paul, Minn. He expects to be about two months. We wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return.

The third sand was struck in the Kepler well, Jas. McCray farm, on Saturday. This well is located but a short distance from the Banner well, on the Dabzell farm. A specimen of the sand rock, which is almost exactly like that taken from the big well, can be seen at Nicholson & Blackman's hardware store. Oil operators predict a big strike.

Speaking of oil matters in this vicinity the Youngville correspondent of the Erie Dispatch says:

"The Banner well, on the Dabzell farm, Petroleum Center, belonging to Jonathan Watson, Esq., of Titusville, still continues to yield 325 barrels of oil daily. Mr. J. S. McCray, owner of the McCray farm, adjoined (the line of which runs within two rods) is now leasing at figures that have not been equaled since 1865. He has leased ten acres, for $1,000 bonus per acre, and half the oil, from two acres of which he reserved a one fourth working interest, which is worked free of expense to him. Ten new rigs are up and more in course of construction. A few more such strikes as that of Mr. Watson, will make lively times."

At a meeting of Democrats at Petroleum Centre, Saturday evening, pursuant to notice, the following gentlemen were appointed to represent this election precinct in the Democratic County Convention to be held at Franklin, on Tuesday, at 1 P. M., July 12th, viz:
