ANOTHER NEW WELL ON THE DALZELL FARM --- D.Izeli well No. 2, on the twentyfive acre lease of that farm owned by Watson, Putis and Keffer, was completed yesterday moralog, tubed spierday and testing commented about 6 o'clock last evening, oil coming to the surface almost as suon as pumping began. The well is now sielding twenty-five barrels per day. This well is focated about 450 feet from the Banper well in an easterly direction, and had 35 fort of third or oil bearing saud rock -The Banuer well bad 54 feet of third sand

Oll City Baces There was a large crowd in attendance a the Oil City Part yesterday. Three races were advertized but the interest mostly contered in the $3,000 race between Ashland Pot, from Hornellsville, and Mary Ashland Pot, from Hornellsville, and Mary lintment, met yesterday atternoon. The Taylor, an Oil City horse. Ashland Pet Grand Duke of Michinburg Schwarin was wou the race in three straight heats. Time 2:41; 2:43 and 2:45. In the second race there was three entries, Black Mack, Silver Cloud and Fuller Brown, for the Association purse of $200 to horses that have never beaten 2:40. Black Mack won the 1st, 2d and 4th heats and the race. His best time was 2:43. Fuller Brown took the 3d heat and second money, $125. The third race for a purse of $150 devided between the three first out, was contested by Foggy Dew, Honest George, Dickens and Lady Gay. Foggy Dew took the first money, the two first heats in 2:49; in the third heat no time was given as Lady Gay run in ahead and over the score. The heat was given to Foggy Dew. Honest George took second money and Dickens third. To wind up the days sport there was a running race which afforded the crowd a erest deal of fun. A NEW WELL was struck on Saturday last, on the Hoge farm, about five miles northeast of Oil City, on the east side of the Allegheoy, on Horse Creek, about four miles from the siver. It is doing sixteen tarrels a day and gaining, has a pebble rock of 47 feet, and opens an entirely new territory. It is owned by Collins Bros., of Titusville, who own a tract there of 940 upres. The new well upon the Fagundas farm.

struck several days since, and owned by Messra, Grandin & Neyhart, is doing 100 barrels daily.

Several wells will be finished shortly upon the McCalmont and Snedeker tracts, which will decide the value of lands ie this vicinity .--- Herald

The ruce last evening remains undecided on account of a dispute between the contestants, each one claiming to have won the victory.

A refreshing shower during the night cooled the atmosphere somewhat to-day.

Gschwandner Troupe of Tyroican Alpin Singers, now performing at Theobolt's Opera llouse Saloon, are rapidly growing in public favor. Among the beautiful songs which they sing that entitled "Mary O'-More" is executed in a style that is seldom excelled. They remain a few nights longer ver, has been arrested at Weimar as a and all should avail themselves of the op. *Py. portualty offered to hear them sing.

To Whom it May Concern. Having closed out my store to Mr. M. V. B. Fisher, all parties having bills against me are requested to present them for payment, and all parties knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to call at my old stand and settle. Thanking my old friends for their kindness and liberal patronage while I have been in business here, I will add that Mr. Fisher, my successor will give you all satisfaction. Call and 800.

J. S. PRATHER. The Ewsde who was murdered at Fagun h s on Sunday last, was named C. Ekstatt, and the deed is supposed to have been done by a brother, Otto Ekstatt, who however is at iarge, no arrests baving been made.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Berlin, July 20. The Reichstag, or North German Parchosen President, Vehement cheering followed Count VongBismarck's announcement of the declaration of war by France. The King then opened the session with a speech, which was greeted with the wildest enthusiasm.

LONDON. July 20. A gentleman just returned from a trip up the Rhine tells his experience to the Times this morning. He says the German army isquiet, grave apxious and resolute. On the other hand, the French are yelling, drinking, swaggering and literally spoiling for a fight. For every one German soldier he saw a hundred French.

Vienna, July 20. Turkey has called out her reserves and stopped the telegraphs in all directions. Paris, July 20.

The officers of the Bank of France announce an advance in the rate of interest to 31g per cent.

Dublin, July 20. A great popular demonstration in favor of France was made in this city last evening. More than 10,000 people, with 20 bands of music, were out on parade. The French and Irish flags were carried entwined -The police charged the procession and captured these flags, but the mob rallied and re-took them. Intense exciteme t prevalled.

London, July 20. Telegraphic communication between France and Germany has been destroyed by the authorities.

Colonge, July 20. The French passed the frontier near Scarbracken last evening, and seized the custom-house.

Berlin, July 20. It is said bere that the failure of the intrigue of the Empress Eugenie to marry her neice, the Duchess of Albatt, to Prince Leopold is the real cause of the present trouble between France and Prussia.

All Germans in the service of the French have been ordered to return forthwith. The Prussian Government has ann ounced that merchantmen, even of the enemy, will not be interfered with on the high seas, unless for causes which would expose the neutrals to selzure. Gen. Wedel, Adjutant General of Hano-

Berlin, July 20. The most perfect harmony exists in the Governments of all the North German States. In the Saxon Chambers, yesterday, the Minister of Finance made a speech telling deputies France was anxious for war, and she should have it as starply and severely as possible.

London, July 20. Germany makes the dethroning of Bonoparte its ultimatum.

No news of any engagements, either by land or sea, have yet been received. The rumors of alliances are still rumored only Washington, July 20.

The Franch Minister shot himself in his sleeping chamber, and the circumstances attending it show that the act was premeditated. It was ascertained that he walked out yesterday and purchased a pair of pistols. M. Berthemy, late French. Minister, who is in New York has been telegraphed. The body will no doubt be taken to France.
