Louey Yougher's Ice Cream Saloon is the centre of attraction these warm days and evenings. He manufactures a superior article of cream, highly flavored and ice cool.

To-morrow evening, mine boat Crocker of the Kane City Hotel, is to give a social hop at that place. The Tarr Farm string band will be in attendance and discourse sweet music.

The McGray & Donaghy well, J. S. McGray farm, yet holds out at 350 barrels, and many claim it is yielding a good four hundred barrels. The striking of this well does not, as many supposed it would, interfere with the production of the other wells in the vicinity which yet hold out the same as ever.

Refreshing showers again to-day.

New derricks continue to be put up on all sides.

We are informed that the big (?) well at Brady's Bend, which created such a furor of excitement some weeks since, is at present yielding only about 100 barrels per day. The principal part of the owners of this well are not practical oil men. Our informant states that recently the owners sent a large pipe plug and ran it down to the bottom of the hole to prevent the oil from running away. The plan is decidedly a novel one.

On Thursday Springfield rifles have just been shipped to "Old Kenton" to arm the

"On the Beach at Long Branch"

[Correspondence of the New York Star.]

The girls at Long Branch are like the girls of the world in general. They are slightly mixed. Some are lovely, but some are, on the contrary, quite the reverse. There's more hair down here than would cover the heads of all the women in New York, and powder and paint enough to make the houses of Jersey City glisten again.

Did you ever see a thin girl take a bath in the surf and come out with her bathing dress sticking tight to her like a poor woman's plaster?

Funny, wasn't it? Well, it's nothing compared to a fat girl in the same predicament. I do think of all the comical sights in the wide world, the funniest is a fat girl when she comes out of the surf. I've seen puppy dogs with blue ribbons on their tails and neatly embroidered flannel shirts on their dear little necks, and I've seen Horace Greeley at a party, but they are as nothing, and the dust in the balance alongside of a wet fat woman in her bathing clothes.

I don't think men look any better, but we don't expect grace and beauty in our sex, and we can stand the sight. If you are very much in love with a girl, and want to break the spell, take her to the Beach and see her in her surf togetery.

If that don't knock the spooney out of you, you'd better marry her and call it square.

A red lead manufacturer of France has discovered that the use of milk at their meals, which he has made obligatory on his workmen to the extent of one litre daily, preserves those employed in lead works free from any symptoms of lead disease.

A Cincinnati Judge went to swimming and the boys stole his clothes, which compelled him to walk home through a thickly populated street dressed only in an umbrella and a chew of tobacco.

Mrs. Welch of New York don't believe in the census, and told the marshal in plain words and figures as follows, to wit: "What have I to do with the government? Are yez the government? Answer questions, is it! Devil a wan uv me; and don't ye stand in that door long, or maybe the government will lose his scalp, an' it may be the tail of his coat. Out wid ye?"

The Johnstown Tribune says: There is in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, near this place, a night watchman named Samuel J. Hill, who has held the position for seventeen consecutive years. In this time he has walked 43,575 miles or the distance of about two and a half times around the earth, and yet not been five miles from home. He has not tasted a drop of intoxicating liquor in that time, never been heard to swear, has not had a night from sickness in all that time, and his eyesight is as good as ever.

The Meadville Republican says: Western Pennsylvania has rarely been so generally blest with bountiful crops. The wheat is already harvested, and the farmers have secured more than an average crop. The berry being plump and the ears well filled. The hay crop is very abundant in all sections, and in the southern counties the greater portion is already safely cured and heaped. In some localities the supply promises to be so abundant that the finest fields of clover are being plowed down or pastured off—a course believed by many good farmers to be the most profitable. In every direction the prospect is very encouraging, substantial improvements are going up on all sides, and remunerative employment is furnished to every applicant, so that the signs of poverty are scarcely ever seen.

The census of Meadville shows a population of 7,930.

The Meadville Fire Department parade on the 4th of August.

Miss Fagundas is not dead as reported.

In the list of Grand Jurors for the 4th Monday of August, we find the name of Wm. A. Hull, and in the list of Traverse Jurors for the same time, Samuel Reynolds and J. S. Patterson. Go gentlemen, without a word of complaint.

Oil City is trying hard to have a Cemetery. The matter is in the hands of a committee.

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad has commenced the construction in Elkhart, Indiana, of an immense building to be six hundred feet long and one hundred and twenty-two in width, in which they will manufacture the bulk of the running stock of that road.

On Long Island, the other day, a wag threw a handful of shot into a friend's face just as another man fired a gun. The struck man fell insensible, and nearly died from the shot.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Copenhagen, July 25.
The Government of Denmark has issued a proclamation of neutrality in the war between Prussia and France. Sailors and pilots, subjects of Denmark, are warned against rendering assistance to the belligerents.

Paris, July 25.
The French gunboats which are to operate on the Rhine and the rivers in Prussia are being transported from Marseilles, in sections, overland.

Dover, July 25.
Nine French frigates, under full steam, passed this point to the Eastward, late yesterday afternoon. A great crowd of spectators assembled on the bluffs to witness the exciting scene.

London, July 25.
Dispatches are said to have been received here, stating that a battle had been fought near Nancy, forty miles from Strasbourg, in which the Prussians were victorious, although fighting against heavy odds. The French force, numbering nine thousand men, were attacked by five thousand Prussians. After a stubborn stand the French were compelled to retire, leaving the Prussians masters of the field.

Paris, July 25.
The Journal Official says: Marshal Lachour late last night telegraphed the Emperor or that Gen. Bernis had repelled a reconnaissance of the enemy near the town of Niederbrunn, twenty-six miles northwest of Strasbourg. One officer, a Bavarian, was killed, and two made prisoners. Figures insist that the officer killed was an Englishman.

Two Iowa boys of tender years lately started on a campaign against the Sioux armed with a little brass pistol and a bow and arrow. They were captured four miles from home and returned to the maternal castigation.

The slang expression "hunky-dory" is Scotch, and is a synonym of the Latin "non compos." He is "uncodour in the uptak" is the full expression, and means half-witted.

"There ont was two cats in Elkenny And a'ch thought there was one cat too many; So they quarreled and bit, And they gouged, and they bit, Till excepting their tails end the tips of their nails, Instead of two cats, there wasn't any."

Long Bottom, Meigs county, Ohio, was disturbed by a nuisance in the shape of a whisky boat, and no one else being willing to abate it, the ladies took hold of the matter. They assembled en masse, and providing themselves each with an apron full of rocks, proceeded to the landing, unthied the boat shovels it off, and then commenced its bombardment, and, says an eye witness, perhaps no boat ever got such a pelting with rocks—the ladies following the boat for a half mile.

The one-legged soldier was in town today.

The August meeting of the Oil City Park Association comes off on Wednesday and Thursday, August 17th and 18th. Premiums $5,200.

Coroner Hay held an inquest on Friday last, upon the body of a man found lying in the Allegheny river, near Limestone. No clue was had as to his name or where he belonged. He had been in the water for some time.—Armstrong Republican.

A pigeon shoot came off on the Stevenson Farm this afternoon.

A girl of thirteen in Union County, N. C. became a mother recently, and the same day hacked her child to pieces and attempted to burn them. The next night she took a razor, and after a desperate struggle, severed the jugular vein of her seducer, who was also her own step-father. After this she cut her own throat, confessing before she died that her step-father was the father of her child and had persuaded her to destroy it. All the details of this dreadful story are horrible and shocking to very unusual degree, and evince a singular state of morals in that portion of the country.

A gentleman who has been forty years in the cultivation of cotton has lately been through Louisiana, and says he never saw the crop looking so finely. It has many dangers yet to run, but there is every reason now to suppose the number of bales of cotton produced at the South this year will considerably exceed the yield of last season.
