PIRON MATCH.—There was quite a large crowd in attendance at the piron shooting match, on the Stevenson farm, yesterday afternoon, and considerable interest was manifested in the result. The conditions were 21 yards rise; 80 yards boundary; ground trap; shot limited to 1 1/2 oz.; gun held beneath the elbow till the bird is on the wing. Judge of shooting, Geo. Howard; judge of loading, Ed. Brown; Trapper, Geo. Howard. The following were the entries and score:

Table with columns for ENTRIES and SCORE. Entries include Geo. Magrann, Stewart, Geo. Wright, W. B. Davis, H. Whittier, and J. C. Henry. Scores range from 0-5 to 1-8.

Miles Joy, Esq. of Mercer County, announces himself as a candidate for Congress, for this district, independent of the action of the District Convention, which he claims is not up for Mr. Gilliland. If Mr. Joy persists in his determination as announced in the Greenville Argus of last week, he will create a serious break in the Republican party, which however, is getting to be quite the style in certain sections of this State.

Well No. 12, Coldwater Oil Co.'s lease, Central Petroleum Co.'s farm, is being tubed to-day preparatory to testing. Another good well is looked for.

Among the list of names of oil operators published, who agree not to commence the drilling of any wells until after October 1st, 1870, is that of Jonathan Watson. We are informed by the Superintendent of Mr. Watson's property in this vicinity that he (Watson) never authorized his name to appear in that connection, and knew nothing of it until he saw it in print.

Oil Creek remains high.

Beware of the Powder.—There is a good job going the rounds of a young lady and gentleman at a fashionable party in this city a few evenings since. The young man was handsome and happy, the young lady arrayed in all the exquisite taste of lavender, rose, &c., with gold powdered hair flowing over her swan like neck. Finding the heat of the room too much for them, they sought the cool shade of an arbor, where they might listen to the fountain's fall. The music rose and fell, time flew on silver pinions, and after an absence of about three hours, our young friends entered the brilliantly illuminated parlors. The lady passed on in the dance, but the young man was slightly taken aback by his next neighbor informing him that round his neck was the unmistakable print of two arms, all in chalk and diamond dust, on one shoulder a large pile of yellow powder, and on his upper lip and cheek diamond dust and yellow powder, mixed up generally. The young lady's hair was observed to be several shades paler.

Moral.—Carry a dusting broom in your pocket.—Nashville Banner.

It is said that a young man has made an engagement to drop himself from the new Niagara Suspension Bridge to the river beneath, on the 13th of August next, for the sum of ten thousand dollars. A Frenchman recently had an accident in that vicinity which is interesting in this connection.—He was traveling with a tame bear, the latter being on exhibition as a means of support to himself and master. The Frenchman took a nap one day on the bank of the river, close to the Suspension Bridge, having first tied the bear to a stump. When the master awoke he found that the stump, being rotten, yielded to the efforts of the bear, who wished to go down the river and succeeded. The remains of the bear floated ashore some distance down the stream, and the sorrowful Frenchman has had his skin stuffed. Will the heirs of the youth of the 13th of August, if the ten thousand dollars is paid, do as much for his cuticle?

The Brown & McCram well on the Snedeker tract, West Hickory, is a dry hole.

Two new wells were struck at West Hickory a day or two since, both of which are reported as doing over one hundred barrels each. Reliable figures will be given tomorrow of their production.

A new well was completed upon the R. L. Shaw farm a day or two since, which, though not as productive as others upon this farm promises to be a valuable well.—This farm cannot be excelled as an oil producing farm—dry holes are unknown—and good ones plentiful.—Titusville Herald.

A later dispatch from Philadelphia in regard to the great fire says: No firemen were killed as previously reported but some eight or ten seriously injured. Two thousand seven hundred and forty hogheads of sugar were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $900,000.

The Meadville horse "Frack," is to be sold at public sale.

An explosion on the hill near the Wood farm, this forenoon, was occasioned by the blowing up of a number of empty nitroglycerine cans.

The Cambria won the yacht race. She passed Sandy Hook at 3:30 p. m., yesterday, making the passage in twenty-three days. The Dauntless was signalled at 4 o'clock off the Highlands.

LATE NEWS.—By a New York dispatch dated noon to-day we learn that the Cambria entered Sandy Hook just one hour ahead of the Dauntless.

The following companies and individuals, operating in this vicinity have decided not to commence the drilling of any wells until after the first of October next:

The Central Petroleum Co., Columbia Oil Co., Walt Thompson, Vera & Blake, Irwin & Bird, Bronson & Harrington, H. I. Beers, T. Frothingham, S. A. Woods, Edward Fox and D. O. Wickham.

"TUB RACE."—The fun loving people of Warren are to witness a "tub race" on the Allegheny river at that place on the 29th inst.

The Baptist Society of Oil City are to build a new house of worship.

The present production of oil at Burning Springs, West Virginia, is about 300 barrels per day.

Titusville is to have a military company.

The case of Charles Ekstatt, who was killed at West Hickory a few days since has not been decided as yet. Another examination will be made, and it is said that the testimony of important witnesses will put the case in a different light.

Eleven rafts lie stranded upon the sand bars of the Allegheny river, awaiting a rise that shall float them to Pittsburgh and below.—Herald.

London, July 27.

On Monday, the 25th, the correspondent telegraphed from Metz that Bazaine leaves this morning with 35,000 men. Landrain-aunt goes also. The Emperor is expected to arrive next Thursday and a battle, it was anticipated, would shortly afterward take place. The army from Africa was rapidly arriving. The Zouaves that left Constantine on the 16th have also come.

From Strasbourg on the 22d there are advices of a steady concentration of troops toward Thionville. Nothing remains at Strasbourg apparently and the main attack is to be made along the valley of Moselle and the great battle will be in the Rheinisch provinces, but the Prussians seem to be falling back behind the Rhine.

Paris, July 26.

The Journal Official publishes a decree naming the Empress Regent during the absence of the Emperor from the Capitol.

The Departments of Moselle, Hontzbon and Basrhin have been declared in a state of siege.

The Journal Official publishes another decree calling out for active duty ninety thousand men of the Contingent of 39.

The New York World asserts what, if true, must be considered a remarkable fact. It says that "despite the extraordinarily hot weather, an unusual number of jobbing merchants are in town buying goods," and that "at no former season has the business of the wholesale houses commenced or been of so extensive a character at so early a period in the regular season." The sudden rise in gold and the certainty of a decided advance in German goods, is referred to as the reason for the anomalous state of things.

A Cheyenne, W. T., dispatch of yesterday says: Information from South Pass says the soldiers who were sent by the Government after the Big Horn expedition overtook them, but were unable to bring them back. The soldiers returned to South Pass and the Big Horners proceeded to the Big Horn country.

Some four weeks ago, as an omnibus dashed up to one of the Long Branch hotels, a lady's hat blew under the wheels and was crushed. Her display of good nature over the accident so struck an English lord that he sought an introduction, and they were shortly engaged to be married. It is now stated that not a 'bus drives up to a Long Branch hotel but that the ground is so covered with hats that the driver can't get down until a small boy shovels them into a hand cart.

Another terrible explosion occurred in a colliery at Llanandol, in Wales, Tuesday. Nineteen persons were killed and many injured.

A Pennsylvania minister was recently given a donation party, at which the gifts were six rolling pins, a pen wiper, and two quarts of dried apples, vintage of 1854.—His flock all have good appetites, and they discouraged his next winter's stock of provisions severely.

Six hundred new men went to work in Charleston Navy Yard Friday.

Connecticut manufacturers are stopping on account of scarcity of water.

Henry Wedge, stopping at a hotel in Pittsburgh, had whisky in his stomach and snakes all over his anatomy, and accordingly jumped from a window and broke his leg. He will keep sober until it grows together again.

An old lady, sixty years of age, named Miller, was burned to death at Greenville, near Dayton, on Tuesday evening. She was in the act of kindling a fire, and attempted to pour coal oil on the blaze, when the flames communicated with the can, which exploded with the above result.

The preliminary work on the Union and Titusville Railroad has commenced.

A new and dangerous fifty cent counterfeit of the new issue, with the Lincoln vignette, is in circulation.

The Fox well, C. P. Co.'s farm, will soon be completed.

It is doubtful whether any western city of the second class will show a larger increase of population since 1860 than Kansas City. Ten years ago it contained 4,418 inhabitants. The census for 1870, just completed exhibits a population of 17,745, being an increase of 400 per cent., most of which has been since the suppression of the rebellion.

Of sixty midshipmen originally on the Sabine, twenty were transferred to the European squadron.

The trade in oil well fixtures is lively at present.

Gerwandner Tyrolean Singers remain at the Opera House Saloon but three nights longer. Do not lose the opportunity of hearing them.

A man at Springfield, Illinois, bet two ladies a new dress each that they couldn't refrain from talking for two hours. One of them held out for an hour and ten minutes, and the other won the dress. They made it up when the time had expired.

In consequence of the repeated strikes of the Crispins, several of the leading shoe manufacturers of Lynn have closed their manufactories and will not yield to the prices asked by the workmen, but close up until they can get shoes made as cheap as in other cities.

A nice little boy in Pittsburgh went to the circus the other day, and amused himself throwing stones at the elephant while he was drinking. When he got through the boy tried to propitiate him by offering him a piece of gingerbread. Before accepting the cake the elephant emptied about sixty-four gallons of water, beer measure, over the boy, and then slung him in the third tier to dry off. This boy is very indifferent about circuses now. He says he believes he doesn't care as much as he used to.
