ELECTION IN CORNPLANTER TOWNSHIP. There is to be an election held in this township on the 20th of this month to decide on the expediency of dividing it up into two or more election districts.

The dividing of the district will undoubtedly be a great convenience in regard to election matters, as well as, on other points. It is a well known fact that this township contains nearly one-quarter of the entire population of Venango county.

The Black-white-and-red flag of the North German Bund will during the coming campaign, be waved for the first time over the field of battle, the field of victory or of defeat. The flag is but four years old, having been adopted by the North German parliament when the present Bund was established, after the war upon Austria.

The congregation of the Presbyterian Society are requested to attend the meeting for the election of a pastor, at the Church, at 8 o'clock this evening.

A Parisian sheet in describing the rapidity with which cities spring into being on the American prairies, relates that a traveler arriving late one night at Chicago failed to find hotel accommodation, and laid himself down in an open field.

TOO LATE.

BY MISS MULOCH.

Could ye come back to me, Douglas, Douglas, In the old likeness that I know. I would be so faithful, so loving Douglas, Douglas, Douglas, tender and true.

Never a scornful word should grieve you, I'd smile on ye sweet as the angels do— Sweet as your smile on me, shone ever, Douglas, Douglas, tender and true.

O to call back the days that are not! My eyes were blinded, your words were few; Do you know the truth now, up in Heaven, Douglas, Douglas, tender and true.

I never was worthy of you, Douglas, Not half worthy the like of you; Now all men beside me seem to me like shadows— I love you, Douglas, tender and true.

Stretch out your hand to me Douglas, Douglas, Drop forgiveness from Heaven like dew; As I lay my heart on your dead heart, Douglas, Douglas, tender and true.

ANOTHER BIG WELL!

PHILLIPS & BOYLES WELL, JAS. S. McCRAY FARM, PUMPING 225 BARRELS PER DAY!

THE BEST TERRITORY IN THE OIL REGION!

EXCITEMENT ON THE INCREASE!

The Phillips & Boyles well No. 1, Jas. S. McCray farm, was tubed yesterday and pumping commenced about 5 o'clock p. m. Oil was struck almost immediately and the well is now pumping 225 barrels per day.

There has been a large crowd of visitors at the well to-day and much excitement is manifested.

Cady & Thompson well No. 1, same farm, is being tubed to-day, and pumping will commence this afternoon. The well is located a short distance from the Phillips & Boyles well, and has a good show. The gas is almost as strong as that in the former well. Another big well is anticipated.

Hon. G. W. Schofield was re-nominated to Congress from the Erie District, at Ridgeway, yesterday.

The large iron tank, located near the churches, was purchased yesterday by Mr. Jas. S. McCray, from the Central Petroleum Co. He intends connecting it with the wells on his farm by a pipe line. The capacity of the tank is 15,000 barrels.

Josh Billings at Long Branch.

The biggest thing they have got here for the present is the pool of water in front of the hotels. The pool is said, by good judges to be 3,000 miles in length, and in some places, 5 miles in thickness.

Into this pool, every day, at 10 o'clock, the folks all retire—males and females, and wilders, promiskus.

They dress in a flannel attire, of mummy colors, and look as neat like, when they are in the pool as a flock of ducks and drakes. The water in this pool has stood so long it has got salty, and ought to be changed.

At a general in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the officiating clergyman gave utterance to the following plain truths: "The Bible says, 'In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God'; but to suit the present case I will paraphrase it a little, and say, 'In the beginning was the devil, and the devil was whisky, and whisky was the cause of this man's death.'"

A Parisian sheet in describing the rapidity with which cities spring into being on the American prairies, relates that a traveler arriving late one night at Chicago failed to find hotel accommodation, and laid himself down in an open field. In the morning he found himself in a cellar, with a five story dwelling house erected over him.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Berlin, August 2. No news of any movement or engagement of importance received, but advices show skirmishes are becoming more frequent, though so far they have been of an insignificant character. The Prussian commanders rigorously exclude foreign correspondents from their lines.

Rome, August 2. The French Chasseurs left Civita Vecchia yesterday. Italy is concentrating troops on the Roman frontier.

Berlin, August 2. The Deutsche Bank of this city offers to receive and disburse donations made in America for the benefit of the wounded soldiers.

Copenhagen, August 2. There is entire harmony between Denmark and Sweden in the matter of the French and Prussian war.

London, August 2. Advices from Prussian sources mention the prevalence throughout Germany of an unwavering assurance of ultimate victory.

Vienna, August 2. Austria is mobilizing 20,000 men to watch the Bohemian frontier.

Brussels, August 2—12m. A correspondent of the Independence Belge, writing from Metz, asserts that the first great battle will be fought on Saturday or Sunday next, or Monday at the farthest. He underscores the sentence following, viz: "This is sure."

Paris, August 2—Evening. An official dispatch from Metz announces that to-day at 11 o'clock in the morning the French had a serious engagement with the Prussians. Our army took the offensive, crossed the frontier and invaded the territory of Prussia, and in spite of numbers and position of the enemy a few of our battalions were sufficient to carry the heights which overlook Saarbruck and our artillery were not slow to drive the enemy from the town. Our losses were slight.

The engagement commenced at eleven o'clock and ended at one. The Emperor assisted at the operations, and the Prince Imperial, who accompanied him everywhere, received on the first field of battle his baptism of fire. His presence of mind and sangfroid in danger were worthy of the name he bears. The Emperor returned to Metz at 4 a. m.

The women of France are sending immense quantities of bedding and hospital furniture to the army. Nine hundred surgical students have gone to the front.

CRUDE AND REFINED.

It is valerianic ether sprinkled inside the boxes that gives Yankee cigars the fine Havana flavor.

The Central Pacific people plead that the Pullman cars were so verminy and mean, with all their gilt and tinsel, that they were sent off their road, to be replaced with their own coaches.

Brooklyn is now using 30,000,000 gallons of water daily, while the works supply but 20,000,000. In the regatta at Yokohama, Japan, on Queen Victoria's birthday, the crew from the United States steamers Idaho and Delaware won over all the foreign boats in every race.

Brighton, England, is busy constructing a gigantic aquarium, a hundred feet wide by several hundred long, from which it expects a yearly dividend of over twenty-five per cent. on an outlay of £20,000.

In seven years the debt of Canada has increased about $41,000,000, while no financial statement of the dominion for a single year has shown a deficit. Singular.

Theatres figure in the French budget of the next year to the tune of 1,600,000 francs. The electors of Newark, N. J., voted in favor of having horse-cars run on Sunday, but the State law interferes.

The "mad stone" will not cure hydrophobia, as was conclusively proved in a recent case at St. Louis. A floating match is the latest Long Branch no-nonsense. The winner lay on his back three hours and forty minutes. Weather hot to-day.

A contemporary says: "We have before us a letter from a young hero near the Colorado line who writes to his father: 'I tell you it is tough to come in worn out with the hard work of breaking prairie, and have to go to making bread and broiling bacon. I can't stand this. I must go East and get a cook that doesn't wear trousers.'"

A wise physician once said: "I observe that every one wishes to go to Heaven, but I observe also most people are willing to take a great deal of very disagreeable medicine first."

A "humane" gentleman of Springfield, Massachusetts, broke up a prize fight on Wednesday last by whipping the combatants until their seconds threw up their sponges and retired from the scene of the conflict.

At Cortlandville, N. Y., on Friday, when a crowd of "brave" cowards tarred and feathered Melissa Blye, she begged some members of the party to spare her life, and appealed to them as friends who had known her intimately. Nobody attempted to harm the man whose wife was made insane by their joint criminality.

Moses Lyman of Huntington, Massachusetts, became indignant and profane at a recent thunder shower, as he had considerable hay exposed. His hired man remonstrated with him, predicting that, if he persisted, the lightning would strike his house, and hardly had the words been spoken when the prophecy was fulfilled. Fortunately, however, none of the inmates were injured.

A ruralist at Newport seeing a lady driving, and her groom with folded arms behind, thought "that nigger must pay that nice looking girl a pile to drive his carriage for him."

An English poet gets off this "warning to waiters by a frequent diner-out: Ye, at tables small or great, Who stand behind our chairs in state, Ne'er be slow to change a plate, Ne'er be heedful of our plate, Never breathe upon our spoon, 'Learn to labor and to wait.'"
