ACCIDENT.—Henry Jones, a clerk in the employ of Schonblom & Wing, met with a severe accident at their upper store, yesterday. He had raised the trap door leading to the cellar and started to go down the stairs, missed his foothold and fell to the bottom, severely fracturing his right wrist The accident will lay him up for several days.

Lemuel Weston, a XVth amendment brought suit before Justice Reynolds, against W. F. Hoover, another XVth amendment, for assault and battery, claiming that Hoover had not only battered him but had 'salted' him too. Jury trial. Weston plead his own case in a truly Websterian manner, but failed to produce any effect on the minds of the jurymen who brought in a verdict of no cause for action, and Lemuel had the pleasure of paying $12, costs of suit.

CHANGED HANDS.—Our old friend, Col. S. M. Alford of Pithole, has recently taken possession of the Danforth House, in that place, and proposes to make it the hotel of that portion of the oil regions. The Col. is an old and experienced landlord, and will no doubt make this popular house more attractive than ever both to his regular guests and to travellers. Those of our citizens visiting Pithole will find it to their advantage to put up at the Danforth House.

Look out for the Elwood Female Minstrel troupe, at Sobel's Hall, this evening. A new and varied programme will be presented.

Road Commissioners Muddle.

PLUMER, Sept. 14, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—I beg leave to reply to an article in your paper of Sept. 12th, over the signature of Geo. W. Wilson, notifying the tax-papers of Cornplanter Township not to pay me the necessary taxes for the purpose of repairing the roads, and also inferring that I have been fraudulently acting in the capacity of Road Commissioner, and hence collecting the larger sums and omitting all sums below ten dollars. The face of the article plainly shows its authorship, viz: Many of my friends owing to the late packing of the township convention which nominated Mr. Hixon have been urging me to run as an independent candidate for the office of Road Supervisor in opposition to the so-called candidate Mr. H, hence the terrible raid. I regret much that a pretended good Republican would demean himself by using poor Democratic tools to injure me because I have said I would be an opposing candidate.

Mr. Wilson says I have failed to give the required bond of $5,000 and hence cannot act legally. I deny that any such amount of bond is demanded by law, and without asking the worthy Auditor what his bond should be for failing to give the citizens a settlement for $20,000 paid them in the last two years, I answer that I have given the required bonds and am acting as a lawful Commissioner; and so far as my disbursements of the public funds are concerned I am prepared to account for every dollar, and can prove by the citizens at large, without distinction of party, that I have done more work with the small amount of taxes I have collected than Messrs. Wilson, Farnham and Fetterer done with $20,000! Therefore, I would respectfully ask the citizens to call on the Auditor for a settlement, and see what has become of the immense amounts of money paid them for the purpose of repairing the roads, which their delinquent Auditor has pronounced impossible.

Where it not for imposing on your space I would be glad to inform the citizens what it costs them for broken wagons, taxes and bad roads.

JAMES SAGE.

P. S.—Please announce me as an independent candidate for Road Commissioner, subject to the decision of the honest voters of Corsplanter township.

J. S.

NOTE.—With regard to Mr. Sage's letter so far as it has reference to Mr. Wilson's letter of a late date we have nothing to say. They have the use of our columns to put themselves right before the tax-payers of the Township. But Mr. Sage is in error in denouncing the Convention which defeated him, and in which he was in the minority from the start. Mr. Randolph, who largely lead Mr. Sage in votes, does not claim any unfairness in the convention. Mr. Hixon was unanimously nominated amidst the best of good feeling by the friends of both himself and Mr. Randolph. As it was Mr. Sage had not the least chance in the caucus, and he does wrong in claiming it was a packed convention.—[ED.

The woman named Drake, recently arrested for arson at Pioneer, failing to procure the required bail, was taken to Franklin, this morning, to await trial at the next session of Court.

Tom. Shay, the individual who made his escape from the lock-up a night or two since, was re-arrested in a house up town last night, and taken to Franklin this morning. When arrested he was hid away in a large trunk.

Trumphour, the Cold Spring, New York murderer, has written a letter to his father, which closes as follows: "Have you thought what it is that fills alms houses, pest houses, homes of dishonor, and the prisons, and furnishes victims for the gallows? Well, look, and you will see, and you will find that it comes from intoxication, and I have found it, too late, to my sorrow.—Shun bad company always, for it leads to intoxication. Remember that the road to ruin is swift and sure.

Already some fellow is predicting that the coming winter is going to be a severe one. We should think, after the miserable failure he made of it last year, that he would have committed suicide.
