An exchange thus gusheth:

"Oh sweet September! thy first breezes bring the dry leaf's rustle and the squirrel's laughter, the cool fresh air, whence health and vigor spring, and promise of exceeding joy hereafter."

To which the Jamestown Journal adds the second verse, which is practiced: "Oh sweet September! thou dost also bring the golden pumpkin and the apples slaughter, filling the pantry and the cider-spring with promise of good grub and drink hereafter."

The Petrolia B. B. C. of Rynd Farm, has challenged the Oil Stockings of Franklin, to play a series of games for the championship of Venango county. The first game to be played at Franklin on the 20th of Sept., and the second at Story Farm on the 23d of Sept. Games to be called at 2 o'clock.

The firm of Staats & Miles, proprietors of the Petroleum House, Oil City, has been dissolved, Capt. J. R. Miles retiring. The hotel will be run as usual by Mr. Staats, whose reputation as a successful and popular landlord is too well known to need any recommendation from us. He knows how to "keep a hotel," and those of our citizens visiting Oil City will do well to pay Charley a call.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Samuel Griffith, of Mercer county, the Democratic nominee for Congress in this District, is in town to-day.

MARRIED.—At Kane City, Sept. 16th, by S. Reynolds, Esq., Mr. Joseph Grassor and Miss Mary E. Johnson, both of that place. Our old friend Perley Lawrence witnessed the happy affair. Whether he or our husband Justice performed the old-time custom of kissing the bride our informant saith not. One thing they did do, however, and that was to drink the health of the happy couple in a flowing bumper of excellent wine.

The Titusville Herald has the following petroleum items:

The third sand rock was struck on Friday in the well being drilled on the G. M. Winter's Farm, Big Sugar Creek, at a depth of 1650 feet. The second sand was fifty-six feet in thickness, pebble rock of the best quality. This farm is located ten miles west of this city, near Proper's mills.

A new well was struck on Saturday last upon the Raiston farm, located upon the old road between Plumer and Oil City, about one and a half miles from the former place. Messrs. Hukle and Davis own the tract, and the well is now yielding between forty and fifty barrels daily.

The McNair and Thomas wells at West Hickory, are doing respectively 200 and 300 barrels each.

New York enjoyed thirty-two murders in June, July and August, but the authorities intimate that this is a small number compared with what can be expected in December, January and February.

The Ohio and Mississippi railroad is now issuing one thousand mile tickets, good on that road and all its branches and connections, for six months. The tickets for the thousand miles are sold at $25, or 2 1/2 cents per mile.

There is an old beau at Saratoga, who has been there regularly every season for thirty years, and is known as "the Count."

The Elwood Female Minstrels performed again last evening, to another big house, and gave universal satisfaction. They appear at Titusville this evening.

The bark Gazelle, of New Haven, Captain Black, from Martinique, brought to New York three of the survivors of the crew of the bark Naconal, from Porto Rico for Barcelona, which was lost on the 29th of August. The remainder of her crew were lost subsequent to the wreck. The survivors rescued by the Gazelle were in a dreadful condition, having been four days without water or food upon the deck house. Of the nine who escaped upon this frail craft, only three live. The remainder died or jumped overboard in delirium.

The mystery on the Brown farm, mention of which we made some time since, has been nearly explained. The rumor of a new house being built on the strength of a sudden increase of one of the Elliott wells has assumed a reality. The house is built and presents a neat and homelike appearance, surrounded as it is with beautiful shade trees. Every necessary improvement that could possibly be suggested has been made, and all that remains now is to have the vine-clad cot occupied. For the balance of the mystery the reader is referred to the book of chronicles of the houses of Kinney and Elliott. When the mystery is to be fully explained report saith not.

The French officers trunks captured a more than three times the size allowed in the Prussian army, and furnished with wonderful comfort. Not only shirts by the dozen, dress uniforms and table linen, but trout rods and glove openers were found in these campaigning trunks.

A little girl was heard to wish the other day "that she was a boy so she could swear when she dropped her books in the mud."

Louis Napoleon, they say, is not afraid of being sent to St. Helena, nor to Ham, nor to the Black Hole of Calcutta. All he asks is that they won't send him to Chicago.

The only liberty cap—says a clever and witty author—is the night cap. In it men visit, one-third of their lives, the only land where they are free and equal.

Yankee Robinson's Circus and Menagerie is to perform here in a few days.

Nicholson & Blackmon are putting up a large new sign.

It is reported that a prominent New York ship owner has offered to bet $50,000 that he has a steamer which can beat by twenty-six hours any steamer which has yet crossed the Atlantic. Also, that the steamer is of American build, and will be commanded by an American, and that if the bet should be accepted, it would enable him to show the world something new about American steamers.

Rear Admiral Rowan, who succeeds Porter, has seen 24 years of sea service, and is reckoned one of the ablest men in the profession. He is a citizen of Pennsylvania.

THE LEOPARD.—"This 'ere hanimal, my little dears," observed the keeper of a menagerie to a school, "is a leopard. His complexion is yellow, agreeably diversified with black spots. It was a wulger heror of the hanients that the critter vos hincapable of changin' his spots, vich vos dispropayed in modern times by observin' that he werry frequently steps in one spot, and the next night changed to another."

The writer says: Prussia will not negotiate with the French Government at Paris.

Prussia proposes first to occupy Paris.

The Regency and Senate and Corps Legislatif will then be summoned who will be expected to name the conditions to treat on a Prussian basis.

When this treaty is signed Napoleon will be released, and France will be left to her own government.

About a dozen of the whaling fleet belonging in Provincetown, Massachusetts, have arrived home during the past fortnight, and owing to the present depression in the business, the net loss on the voyage will average nearly $3,000 to each vessel. Full three quarters of the vessels arrived at that place will be immediately withdrawn for some other use. The depression in the whaling business is attributed to the low price of oil and the high cost of the outfits.

Avoid quotations, unless you are well studied in their import and feel their pertinence. Our friend Jones, the other day, while looking at the skeleton of an ass which had been dug out of a sand pit, and admiring and wondering at the structure of that despised animal, made a very unfortunate use of one. "Ah," said he, with the deepest humility, and a simplicity worthy of La Fontaine, "we are fearfully and wonderfully made."

"POICKRY!"

Enumerating a few of the articles to be found at

L. M. STERNBURG'S

Lumber Yard

Washington-St., Petroleum Centre, Pa.

Friends and patrons, one and all. Your attention to my "biz" I would call.

Times are dull and money tight, But in those times I'm looking for light;

To those who are building rigs without number, I would inform—this is the place to buy Lumber;

My motto is this: "Quick Sales and Small Profit," For business is healthy and I think nauch of it;

In quality my Lumber is second to none, And as for Shingles, I keep No. 1;

Some may not look at it in the light I do, And for those I have a quality No. 2;

And to those who are particular—as some may be, I still have another quality called No

I have good seasoned Lumber, Dressed up nice, Which I will sell at a low cash price;

Such as Flooring, Ceiling and Siding, both Rough and Dressed,

Lath, Battens and Surfaced Lumber, all of the best;

I also have Rig Lumber of all kinds, At prices to compare with oil and hard times;

All kinds of Timber kept constantly on hand, And a box of Cigars of a very good brand;

My facilities for selling are surely without number, I always keep good teams to deliver good Lumber;

So if you want Lumber, Rough, Dressed, Soft or Hard, You will find just what you want at L. M. Sternburg's Yard.
