Some 800 tons of iron are in Dunkirk for the D. & W R. R., and truck laying is commenced. It will be laid at the rate or about balf a mile s day, and in a week's time Dunkirk and Fredonia will enjoy railroad connection. The remainder of the iron will arrive as fast as needed .-The locomotive and platform cars for the work of laying are also received.

REPUBLICAN MEETING. - The Republican electors of this district are requested to meet at the office of S. Reynolds, at 750 p. m., this evening. A general attendance is requested.

New derricks continue to be put up on the McCray fate.

During the past week there has been considerable excitement manifested in this secion, on account of strikes made, opening new and extensive territory. Over thirty leases have been taken during the week, principally on the hill above the Point, and farms, in Sugarcreek township.

The well of Newell Bros., on the McCalmont farm is being tested and will undoubtedly be a fine well. This strike is on territory that has never been developed, and creates great excitement. Egbert & Co. has purchased, we are informed, 18 acres of this tract, paying therefor the sum of $3,000 Other rigs are being erected and leases being taken.

The whole of the Lamberton farm, adjoining the McCalmont tract has been laid out in leases, and four derricks are being erect-

Dr. Egbert's well on the bill, above the Point is producing at the rate of 20 barrels per day. This strike also opens a large tract of new territory.

On the hill, west of this city reveral leases have been taken, and Egbert & Mitchell are creeting a derrick on the Myers tract. Stephen Smith's well on the Myers tract commenced drilling on Monday, having reached the rock at a depth of forty-eight lect.

The strike on the Kinnear farm, four miles from this city, created quite a rush of operators to that section, and territory is being rapidly leased.

The large 10,000 barrel iron tank of Col. Bleakley on the Point is completed.

Hon. P. H. Watson is also preparing to erect a 3,000 barrel iron tank on the Point.

A GAY GAMBOLIER. -Sidney Thompson. three card monte man who followed Campbell's circus, was arrested in this city by Constable Braden on a warrant issued by Justice Dailey. Sidney had played his little game on an old man who lives three or four miles out on the Messer road, and re-lieved him of one hundred dol lars. Sidney was disposed to be beligerent, but Watty took him in tow and brought him safely to the Squires dock. There be refifeded one hundred dollars to the green old gentleman and was allowed to depart for fresh fields and pastures now. He should have been sent to prison .-- Venango Spectator.

Jean Paul Richter says: "To insure modesty, I would advise the educating of the sexes together; for two boys will preserve twelve girls, or two girls twelve boys, innocent, amid winks, jokes, and improprieties, merely by that instinctive sense which is the forerunner of matured modesty. But I will guarantee nothing in a school where the girls are alone together, and still less whore the boys are."

Paris, Sept. 16. The Prussians are at Crebert, Colmont, Charenban and Stoun, almost within cannon shot of the walls of Paris.

A number of prisoners wene taken yesteron the Lamberton and Robert McCalmont day by Prussian cavalry and starpshooters and several convoys of inunition of war and provisions were also captured.

The Prussians now occupy some small woods around Paris which was too green to burn.

New York, Sept 16. The Herald's London | correspondent telegraphs that it does not appear that the Prussians are in any great force directly before Paris. Their main body seems to be stretched in a kind of semi-circle from about Vills Cotteret on the northeast Melun and Fontainbleau on the southeast of the capital, and from Thiery, in the rear of Meaux, to Piorins on the railway to Troyes.

The resolute refusal of Solesons to surrender certainly embarresses their operations for the time.

There is a curious rumor of the escape of Marshal Canrobert from Metz, and of his baving advanced on Sedan and Mezieres, meascing Rheims and Laron and the Prussian flank.

It is not expected the Prussians will attempt for some days to begin the serious bombardment of the works of Paris.

The gas has been cut off, but it is used so little in Paris houses that this makes comparatively much less trouble than was expected.

Numbers of women and children are still permitted to leave Paris.

The railroad to Lyons has been cut by the French authorities between Bercy and Charenton, and the splendid bridges destroyed.

Many of the Paris jou:nale are moving their offices to Tours, but the chief, papers are still to be published in the capital.

Mrs. Cady Brownell, admitted a few days since to the Grand Army of the Republic, at Bridgeport, Conn., is believed to be the only female comrade in the country. Mrs. Brownell served gallantly in a Rhode Island regiment, and at the battle of Newdropped the colors, she bravely gathered them up and carried them into battle. She was afterward wounded and honorably discharged from the service.

A family of French emigrants are residsiding in privacy in Second avenue, near Thirty-seventh street, in this city. The wife, who is a beautiful and accomplished young lady of only twenty-six years of age, received a letter last week from ber sister in France, informing her that seven of her nephews had been killed in the late struggle with the Prussians.
