Yesterday, a seedy and thirsty looking individual, who was evidently "hard up since his well run dry," and determined to have a drink somehow, entered the Petroleum Exchange Saloon, where several parties were indulging at the bar. Succeeding in attracting their attention by a series of well executed manoeuvres, he assumed a tragical attitude, and delivered himself thus: "Gentlemen, two hundred years ago this oil region, and the ground on which Petroleum Centre stands, was inhabited by the Red men; now, gentlemen, it is inhabited by white men, with nary a Red!" It is almost needless to add that this outburst of native eloquence "brought the house down," and the seedy individual went on his way rejoicing, after having his skin well packed with the "ould benzine."

Those who have not been assessed should attend to the matter at once, in order that they may be enabled to vote at the coming election. The books are now open at the store of Thos. McHugh, the Assessor, who is prepared to register all who may call. Those who desire to vote should see to it that they are assessed.

There was a rumor on the street this forenoon of a big fire at West Hickory, by which a large portion of Trunkeyville was destroyed. The rumor is probably incorrect, but we are informed that several car loads of oil were burned at White Oak Station, this morning, from which the story probably had its origin.

GAME.—At the Petroleum Exchange Hotel can be found game of all kinds, such as squirrel, partridge, pheasant, etc., just received from Chautauque Lake. Also, fresh from the sea shore, soft shell crabs, eels, shell oysters and clams, tub oysters, etc.—A game dinner is the nicest thing of the season, and they do get them up in good style at the Exchange.

THE ATTEMPTED SHOOTING CASE.—The rampaging female who created such an excitement in Justice Griffith's office on Saturday last, by attempting to shoot her former husband, was arrested by Constable Hollister at Corry, on Monday, on the charge of assault and battery with a weapon with intent to kill. She was about starting for Titusville at that time, her baggage having been checked to that place. As soon as arrested she made a vigorous attempt to get at Mr. Reid, and it was with great difficulty that she was kept from making an onslaught. A hearing in the case was had before Justice B. M. R. Wilson, the case occupying several hours. After a long discussion, the charge "with intent to kill" was withdrawn by the prosecutor, and upon her pleading for mercy, the entire charge was withdrawn, on consideration of her going home and troubling him no more. She left for her home in New York.—Erie Dispatch.

Important Newspaper Change.—The HEARTH AND HOME, a finely illustrated family journal of a high character, hitherto issued by Messrs. Pettongill, Bates & Co., has been purchased by Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of 275 Broadway, New York, the well known publishers of the American Agriculturist. Messrs. S. M. Pettongill & Co., whose great Advertising Agency, established in 1849, is one of the largest and most reputable in the world, find that their extensive business requires their exclusive attention, and they therefore transfer HEARTH AND HOME to the new publishers, whose long experience and abundant facilities will enable them not only to maintain the past high character of the paper, but to add materially to its value. The new Publishers also announce a reduction of the terms to $3 per year. The change will not at all affect the American Agriculturist, which will continue on independently as heretofore. The illustrations and reading matter of the two journals will be entirely different. Either of the journals will be furnished from now to the end of 1871 (15 months), at the yearly subscription rate, viz: the Weekly HEARTH AND HOME, at $3 the Monthly AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, $1.50; or the two for $4.

Israel Lewis, a pioneer of Fredonia, died there on the 10th, aged 102 years. He was born in Rhode Island and came to this country in 1800. Mr. Lewis married at the age of forty; was forty-five when his oldest child was born and 72 at the birth of his youngest (11th), a healthy young man of 30.—Four sons and two daughters survive him, the oldest a daughter 54 years of age. His wife died last spring in her 80th year.—Jamestown Journal.

PETROLEUM ITEMS.—The new well struck a day or two since, upon James Kerr farm, Church Run, is doing fully thirty bbls of oil daily, and is owned by S. Fertig, P. T. Witherop, David Gray, and Jno. Wheaton. This well is located upon the west side of Oburoh Run, upon what is supposed to be a continuation of the belt containing the Cadwallader, Tribune, and other producing wells, and is outside of any territory heretofore producing.—Herald.

VENANGO COUNTY CONVENTION.—We clip the following from the Erie Dispatch of yesterday: The Venango County Convention of Good Templars will be held at Shamburg, on Tuesday, September 27th. District Deputy, Grand Worthy Chief Templar Sharp, of Oil City, will preside, assisted by Grand Worthy Vice Templar, Elvira Day, of Pleasantville. The Shamburgers are making due preparations to receive their brothers and sisters in a style becoming the generosity of that noted oil town.

The U. S. Marshal advertises the Oil City & Pithole R. R. for sale, at the Custom House in Pittsburgh on Sept. 27th, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The circus arrived in due time yesterday, to the immense delight of the youngsters, and the evident satisfaction of our country cousins, judging from the vast quantities of gingerbread and root beer which they devoured. The circus day is an era in their life time.

Washington-St., Petroleum Centre, Pa.

Friends and patrons, one and all, Your attention to my "biz" I would call;

Times are dull a money tight, But in these times I'm looking for light;

To those who are building rigs without number, I would inform—this is the place to buy Lumber;

My motto is this: "Quick Sales and Small Profit," For business is healthy and I think much of it;

In quality my Lumber is second to none, And as for Shingles, I keep No. 1;

Some may not look at it in the light I do, And for close I have a quality No. 2;

And to those who are particular—as some may be, I still have another quality called No.

I have good seasoned Lumber, Dressed up nice, Which I will sell at a low cash price;

Such as Flooring, Ceiling and Siding, both Rough and Dressed, Lath, Battens and Surfaced Lumber, all of the best;

I also have Rig Lumber of all kinds, At prices to compare with oil and hard times;

All kinds of Timber kept constantly on hand, And a box of Cigars of a very good brand;

My facilities for setting are surely without number I always keep good teams to deliver good Lumber;

So if you want Lumber, Hough, Dressed, Soft or Hard, You will find just what you want at L. M. S's Lumber Yard. feb18-ff
