ACCIDENT TO SHERIFF HERPST. - Sheriff H. H. Herpst, of Franklin, met with quite a severe accident about half-past 12 to-day. He was coming down Frothingham's path on borseback, and when about balf way down the horse became frightened and threw him off. He struck a large stone in the road, and was quite severely injured in his back and side. He left for Franklin on the 1:20 train. It was almost a miracle that he escaped death, as where he fell the path is quite steep and rocky.

Our townsman, Capt. W. A. Hull, has ro- be?" cently returned from an extended tour over law passed by the last Congress that, after the lat of Outober next, no stamps will be required on a number of documents. The section reads as follows:

"That, on and after the 1st of October 1870, the stamp tax imposed in Schedule B, on promissory notes for a less sum than one hundred dollars and on receipts for any sum of money, or for the payment of any debt; and the stamp tax imposed In Schedule C, on canned and preserved fish, be and the same are hereby repealed.' Rosumasuonan.-The Hebrew new year, Roshhushonah, 5631, commenced last evening at sunset, and will be observed by that people all over the world. This will account for the closing to-day of all establishments belonging to Hebrew people.

An alarm of fire late last night was originated by an engine house on the Egbert farm catching fire. Through the exertions of the engineer and others the fire was extinguished before any material damage was done.

for $300 and the championship of Venango county, between the Petrolia B. B. C. of Rynd Farm, and the Columbia B. B. C. of Story Farm, takes place on the Senecas grounds at Oll City.

There was a flue display of northern lights inst evening.

The Venango Citizen says: Our present Board of County Commissioners are actively engaged in getting the affairs of the county under their control in good shape, and are winning the good opinion of all our citizens by their prompt and energetic action in all cases where the county is responsible.

A much needed Poar house is to be crected, the contract having already been given. A bridge over Sugarcreek and over Oil Creek are also to be built, which are much needed, and our . commissioners are determined to push the work. E. W. Echols, County Clork, has the books and documents of the office in good shape, and has by prompt and energetic action brought order and neatures out of chaos and confusion.

A patent medicine vender in a country village was dilating to a crowd upon the wonderful efficiency of his iron bitters .-"Why," said ho, "Stephen Jenkins had only taken the bitters one week when he was shoved into prison for murder, and what does Steve do but open a vein in bis arm, take iron enough out of his blood to make a crow bar, with which he pried the gates open and let himself out .--Fact."

The "American Association for the Advancement of Science," at Troy, after mature deliberation, has declared that "the homologies of the synomosal hone indicate the posterior half of the zygomatic arch."

A Kansas lady, on retiring to her room one night, found it ilterally filled with martins, which had flown in during her absence. Instead of barshiy turning them out into the cold the kind-hearted lady captured nearly all the little creatures and had them served up the next day in a potpic.

The difficulty of expressing one's self in a foreign language is illustrated by the remark of a German girl, who went to see a fine boy baby, and, endeavoring to express her admiration said: "Oh my! what a nice fat babee. How fat she is, don't

London, Sept. 24. The following significant disputch has just been received :

"Brussels, Sept. 24-Noon.-Basaine has offered to capitulate at Metz, on condition that he be allowed to take out his baggage and arms. He engages not to take up arms for three months.

The efficiency of the bombardment of Str sbourg and the weakness of the garrison, both have been much exaggerated and there are no signs of surrender nor is there any belief in the report of the surrender of Toul.

It is rumored that a sharp engagement occurred yesterday at Chatennun, fifty miles from Tours, between a force of German cavalry and the Garde Mobile in which the cavalry were beaten off.

New York, Sept. 25. The World's special dated London 24th, enys: Jules Favre returned to Paris Friday morning having previously by permission of the Prussians and notified the Goverament of Tours of the failure of the To-morrow the match game of base ball attempt to effect a termination of the war.

> Cable to the Associated Press, London, Sept. 25 .--- The Prussians report from the height overlooking Parls that they have observed fighting going on in the streets, with cannonade and mucketry. Advices received by way of Chartre attempt to discredit the report, but later advides dated Saturday evening, from Brussels, as sert that there have been constant combats since Friday in Paris between the Reds and the troops under Gen. Trochu. No further particulars have been given.

Berlin, Sept. 25. An official dispatch dated Ecours, Satarday, says: By the capitulation of Toul there fell into our hands 100 officers, 2,240 men, 120 horses, an Eagle, 107 guns, including 48 rifled cannon, 3,000 rifles, 3,000 sabres, and 500 cuirassess. Large supplies of munition, bombs, and other war material were also surrendered.

General Douay, about whose death so many conflicting reports are circulated, was buried at Saurgemond on the 10th of last month by the Prussians with most impressive ceremonies. A battalion of the Seventy-ninth Prussian regiment and all German officers in the town accompanied him to the grave. When the coffin ] was about to be lowered into the grave, the German General Von Wagner, took a flower from a wreath, and laying it on the coffin, said in a voice of profound emotion: "This flower is dedicated by a Prussian officer to a dead hero!" The French citizens who witnessed the ceremony were visibly touched.

A little two year old not far from here upon bearing her mother affecting to be very disconsolate at the older children going off to school for the day, attempted to agminiater consolution. She twined her little arms about the maternal neck and, as she said, "dave her a good steeze," and said "Pil stay wid you and tate tare of you. I wouldn't leave you. No, I wouldn't-not for Jo.' ' Whereat the mother was consoled and smiled, pretty loud.

An Illinois girl, to keep off mosquitoes, bathed her face with benzine, and then went to a lamp to dry it in. The minister who preached her funeral sermon advised his hearers never to light the insects on that line if they bit all summer.

A San Francisco reporter is in luck .--Passing a house, he saw a young lady lighting a fire with kerosene, when he rushed in
