ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.—On Thursday night last, a woman of the town known as "Frankie," but whose real name was Kate Gavin, died in a house at the upper end of the town, and on Friday was buried, a subscription having to be raised to defray the necessary funeral expenses. There are some circumstances in connection with the death of this woman that are peculiarly sad, and tend to show how short and fleeting a life of this kind is—glittering and bright at first, but wormwood and bitterness and sure death in the end. A little over three years ago this girl was a waitress at the Chase House in Pithole, and bore a good character for virtue and respectability. Young, good looking and ladylike in appearance, a bright future seemed in store for her, but the tempter came and pictured out a life of ease and pleasure in such glowing terms that she had not the force of character to resist, and consequently fell.—Three years of a life of shame and a pauper's burial at the hands of strange men.

"One more unfortunate,
Weary of breath,
Rashly importunate,
Gone to her death!"
The moral is obvious. Let others take warning.

One of these pleasant social reunions that tend to strengthen the bond of friendship between old friends and acquaintances, occurred at the Central House, yesterday. On invitation of Dr. A. D. Miller and his excellent lady, a goodly number of his friends met and dined with him. The dinner was gotten up by mine host Cross of the Central House, and was amply tested by those present. The wish was universally expressed by all that many more such happy occasions might be enjoyed. The Dr. and lady will bear with them to their home in Ohio the best wishes of a host of friends for their future prosperity and success.

NEW WELL.—A new well was struck on base 25, Pearson Farm, on Friday last, which is now producing 25 barrels per day. The well is 870 feet deep and had 40 feet of excellent sand rock. The well is located on a portion of the farm hitherto undeveloped, and opens up a large tract of new territory. This is the first new well that has been struck in that vicinity for a number of months, and considerable interest has been created thereby. It will have a tendency to encourage new developments thereabouts. Mr. Edward Vaughn is superintendent of the Pearson Farm.

The cowbellogians and tispanonians indulged in the pleasant pastime of serenading a newly married couple, on Saturday evening last, to the intense disgust of the aforesaid couple.

Messrs. Woods, Fox and others of our citizens, who have been on a tour to the Lake Superior mining regions, for the past two or three weeks, arrived home on Saturday evening. They report having had a pleasant trip.

A CARD.—I desire to return my sincere thanks to Mr. R. P. Bradstreet, of the Rochester House, for a very useful gift recently presented to me by him.

A WILD CAT TAKES A CHILD OUT OF ITS CRADLE.—On Thursday of last week, a wild cat entered the house of Mr. Elliott Walters, who resides at Wilson's Mill, on Toby Creek, in Knox township, about seven miles north of this place, and took a young child from the cradle, and was about to commence devouring it when it was frightened away. The parents had gone out to gather in potatoes from a lot and left the babe wrapped up, sleeping in its cradle. A little girl was sent in after they had been absent a short time, to see about the child and when she opened the door, was horrified to see a large wild cat, with the infant, behind the stove. The little thing was crying piteously, and in a short time would doubtless have been killed and devoured by the savage beast. On the alarm being given, the wild cat escaped through the window, and has since been seen in that neighborhood.—Clarion Democrat.

A FRONTIERSMAN.—An Oregon paper contains the following of a genuine old backwoodsman:

A few days ago an emigrant train was making all sail northward up through our valley, and the wild looking driver seemed to labor under great excitement, cracking his "black snake" round the legs of his spavined horses, and yelling at every jump they made. "Halloo!" said we. "Hoora!" said he; "whars Rooshun America?" We explained the object of his inquiries lay about twelve hundred miles to the northward, and just as hard to reach as "Jordan" besides being almost uninhabited, except by Indians and grizzlies. He gave a yell that would have made an Apache ashamed of himself, and said: "I'm on it. That's the place I'm hunting for. I've heard that the big folks in Washington have boughten a track where thar's nothing but bars and fujuna, and them's the only neighbors want. I lived in old Missouri, stranger, he added, "and I'll be dog-goned, stranger, if the darn railroads haint cut the country all to pieces and druv the game all away.—I've heard 'em talking about making one in Oregon, and I'll just be darned if I want any Oregon to me. Hoora for Rooshun American!"

A very bad counterfeit on the late issue of fifty cent notes, with a vignette of Stanton, has made its appearance. It is a lithograph, and is a fair imitation of the genuine note. The paper is greasy, and the back printing of the note is much narrower than the front, giving a margin to the back larger than that of the face. The ink and paper are also poor imitations. Mud is far above par at present.
