It is not our province to enter into political discussions through the columns of the Record, but in this instance we cannot refrain from speaking a good word in favor of an honest man. We allude to Mr. Henry Dubbs, of Franklin, who is a candidate for office of County Commissioner on the Republican ticket, who we know to be everything that the honest voters of both parties require in a candidate for so responsible an office. He will undoubtedly be elected, yet we would like to see him run ahead of his ticket as a compliment to the real worth of the man. The County Commissioner's office is one of the most responsible county offices to be voted for at the election tomorrow, and Mr. Dubbs is a man every way worthy to fill the expectations of an honest constituency.

Remember the Elwood Minstrels this evening.

Well No. 2, Phillips & Boyles lease, McGraw farm, suddenly stopped producing on Saturday. This well had produced as high as 250 barrels per day, and had been gradually falling off for some time.

There is no doubt but that the "Union will be saved," at the election, to-morrow. Our advice is for every one to vote as they please, and may the best man win.

See advertisement of Potter & Co.'s new Coal Yard.

A new and dangerous counterfeit ten dollar note on the Central National Bank of Rome has made its appearance. It is well executed and calculated to deceive.

Perrine will get tight occasionally, much to the astonishment of himself and friends. "For years," says he, "it was unaccountable to me, for I never did drink but a mouthful or two; and the cause never did strike me until I measured my mouth and found that it held a pint."

Mrs. Myrta A. Bradwell, editor of the Legal News, was lately refused admission to the Bar by the Supreme Court of Illinois because she was a woman, and the old English common law did not recognize woman as admissible to the Bar. Mrs. Bradwell has carried her case up to the Supreme Court of the United States, under the Civil Rights Bill and the XIVth Amendment. A preliminary hearing has been had, and a writ of error granted, calling for a transcript of the case to be sent up for final adjudication. If the position assumed by Mrs. Bradwell's counsel in this case is sustained, it establishes the right to women to vote without further legislation, as they are already legally recognized as citizens. The XIVth Amendment and the Civil Rights Bill together declare that no "citizen" shall be deprived of the right of voting. In this view of the case, it is one of more than usual importance, and the decision will be looked for with interest.

THE FEMALE MINSTRELS.—This fine troupe gave their farewell entertainment on Saturday evening to a full house, and though comparatively new to this city, the Female Minstrels made a very favorable impression during their stay. Among the more noticeable features of their entertainment, were the trapeze performances of Fred. and Eva Costello. The clog dance of the Warren Sisters, and the jig dance of Hattie Rogers. The two "enders," James Clark and Ned Fox, are fully up to the standard in everything that pertains to eccentric and funny African comicallities. But the favorite of the evening was Dollie Warren in her songs and dances. Sparkling and versatile she is not unlike Lotta in her best impersonations. Mr. J. Tannenbaum, the musical director, has won quite a reputation as the author of several favorite ballads of the day.—Herald.

This celebrated troupe appear at Sobel's Hall this evening.

ENTER RIGHT HAND DOOR—

G.—Clint, old boy, how are you?

G.—Good!

G.—Got the Cozy in nice shape? Who fixed the tables?

C.—Jerome Akin; and he can't be beat in these parts, mind that!

G.—How about the varnishing and painting?

C.—Why that was done by Billy Turner, the sailor boy, minstrel and painter. Billy is some, he is.

G.—Who was the artist during the repairs?

C.—I was, and with fat Sam done the rubbing and scrubbing, and all the fancy work that was required.

G.—The boys will appreciate your endeavors to please.

C.—I hope so; leave their quarter, and then—

Exit left hand door.

A beer bound individual was overheard humming in a muddled voice:

I would not die in Autumn,

When pleasant hours are fleeting,

When conventions are being held,

And candidates are treating.

Appointment of Major Generals.

The Governor has recently appointed four additional Major Generals, to command the National Guards of Pennsylvania, as follows:

Brigadier General James L. Selfridge, Major General of the 7th division, comprising the counties of Lehigh and Northampton.

General Thomas L. Kane, Major Gen. 12th division, comprising Clarion, Elk, McKean and Forest counties.

Colonel H. S. Huidekoper, Major Gen. 20th division, comprising Crawford, Erie, Venango and Warren counties.

General Harry White, Major General 21st division, comprising the counties of Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield and Cambria.

The Lake Shore Grape Growers Association will hold its next annual fair at North East, on Thursday and Friday, October 13th and 14th.

A Texas Octogenarian says, from first to last, he has received by discharges of guns and pistols into his body 175 shots; has had both legs, his collar bone and seven ribs broken, and his skull cracked; is the father of twenty children; raised this year with his own hand 1,100 head of fine cabbages, 4,000 large beets, besides other "crops," and can now run a pretty good quarter race.

Three new wells are being put down at Raymilton, Venango county. The producing well at that point is doing better than ever, and operators are sanguine of opening a new and extensive oil field in that vicinity.

Captain John Hugo, baggage master on the last fifteen years, travelled the enormous distance of five hundred and sixty-three thousand miles, or more than twenty-three times round the globe.

There is a man living in Calhoun county, Mississippi who is supposed to be the strongest man in the State, if not in the entire South. He is thirty-five years of age, and weighs two hundred and twenty-five pounds. He has been known to carry three bars of railroad iron, when it takes from three to five ordinary men to carry one. He can take a cask containing forty gallons of whiskey or water (the former is preferred we presume) and raise it from the ground and drink out of the bung-hole with as much ease as others could out of a common pitcher; and he has frequently taken a barrel of flour under each arm, and balancing a sack of salt on his head, carry them for several hundred yards with apparently but little effort. He offers to bet that he can lift thirteen hundred pounds.

The late developments of the Dennis Run and N. Y. Oil Company's Tract prove the existence of another vein of oil below the one so successfully worked for years. Late C. Lumber Yard

Washington-St., Petroleum Centre, Pa.

Friends and patrons, one and all.

Your attention to my "big" I would call;

Times are dull an money tight,

To those who are building rigs without number,

My motto is this: "Quick Sales and Small Profit,"

For business is healthy and I think much of it;

In quality my Lumber is second to none,

And as for Shingles, I keep No. 1;

Some may not look at it in the light I do,

And for those I have a quality No. 2;

And to those who are particular—as some may be,

I still have another quality called No

I have good seasoned Lumber, Dressed up nice,

Which I will sell at a low cash price;

Such as Flooring, Ceiling and Siding, both Rough and Dressed,

Lath, Battens and Surfaced Lumber, all of the best;

I also have Rig Lumber of all kinds,

At prices to compare with oil and hard times;

All kinds of Timber kept constantly on hand,

And a box of Cigars of a very good brand;

My facilities for selling are surely without number

I always keep good teams to deliver good Lumber;

So if you want Lumber, Rough, Dressed, Soft or Hard,

You will find just what you want at L. M. S's Lumber Yard. sep18-11
