ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS ON O. C. & A. R. R.

On and after Monday, May 30th, 1870, trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for North, No. 5, No. 3, No. 1, and arrival/departure times for various stations like Titusville, Corry, and Oil City.

Table with columns for South, No. 2, No. 4, No. 6, and arrival/departure times for various stations like Corry, Titusville, and Oil City.

Table with columns for No. 5 and 6 run on Sunday.

Table with columns for Freight Trains North and arrival/departure times.

Table with columns for Freight Trains South and arrival/departure times.

Table with columns for Silver Palace Sleeping Cars and routes to Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Titusville.

Gold at 1 p. m., 113.

To-morrow evening Miss Fanny B. Price supported by full dramatic company, appears at Sobel's Hall.

Quite a number of new buildings are going up on Washington street.

What has become of the Oil City Times? We have received but one or two copies for the past two weeks.

Yesterday we had a surprise party at the hands of Mr. L. Voucher, who presented us with so elegant new hat, which now graces our venerable tophat with a 'muchness' of elegance.

Several inebriated individuals made last night hideous by their unearthly yelling and hooting, proving the old adage true that when 'whisky is in good sense is out.'

We have recently added to our stock several late styles of type, to which we invite the attention of our patrons.

A man named McGregor was run over and killed on the Jamestown & Franklin Railroad, at Reno, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Miles Brown has commenced the running of a stage between this place, McCray Farm, Plumer, Shaw Farm, and Oil City, connecting with trains on the O. C. & A. R. R.

A letter is held for postage in the Pittsburgh office, addressed to Bernard Dougherty, Petroleum Centre, Pa.

Babylon (near Tidoute) has not fallen yet. A game of base ball and a dog fight came off simultaneously, last week, and the latter drew the biggest crowd.

From the West Hickey correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial, we copy the following in regard to oil matters:

Outsiders would naturally suppose that this frowning aspect now assumed by the weather King would have a tendency to cool the ardor of oil operators, and consequently business would be very slack at present.

Fagundas is sporting city airs. A paper is about starting to be called the Fagundas City Press. Its columns will be devoted to oil matters exclusively.

Trunkville is flourishing like a green bay tree. Messrs. Foreman & Vandergriff have just finished a 15,000 barrel iron tank.

TO COAL CONSUMERS.

It has come to the knowledge of the undersigned that certain parties at Petroleum Centre are offering Ormsby and Briar hill coal for sale to their customers.

STERNBURG'S LUMBER YARD. Among the recent improvements in town worthy of mention is the new Lumber Yard of L. M. Sternburg, on Second street near the O. C. & A. R. R. track.

The silver wedding of J. & M. Horton, occurred at their home in Sugar Grove, Warren County, on Tuesday evening the 4th inst.

Most persons ascribe their adversity to heaven, but their prosperity to their own prudence.

Conductor Sam Hildreth, of the New York Central Railroad, celebrated his silver wedding, at Buffalo, on Monday evening.

Mr. E. Cowan, of the Warren Mail, was married on Wednesday last, to Miss Julia Frances Camp, of Forrestville, N. Y.

Four hundred men are now employed in repairing the track of the Middle Division of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad.

A census taken in a rural district of Missouri reports two pairs of twins born in the last three years to a happy couple named Woodbine.

An Irish lady at Troy, teacher in one of the public schools, tortured a class of young girls by suddenly inquiring if they could tell the name of the first woman.

A gentleman of Norwich, Conn., found in his yard a King George's penny, dated 1752. He sold it for one dollar and a quarter, the judicious investment of which amount rendered him eligible for the inebriate asylum.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Tours, Oct. 18.

The Prussians and French are still concentrating large forces near Orleans, preparatory to a great battle.

The Prussians occupy the city itself, as well as the camp at Bellair, near Meury.

Advices from Lille are that large Prussian forces are on the Northern department and vigorously measures for defence are to be taken at once.

London, Oct. 18.

A World special dated London, Oct. 18 says:

On Sunday a fresh attack was made on the German positions to the south of Paris which were not carried the preceding day.

The Bavarians, who still held Bagaeux, Chevelly and L'Hay were taken by surprise early in the morning by the Garde Mobile of the Cole D'Or.

The Bavarians fought stubbornly, and the action lasted till 1 o'clock in the afternoon, but were completely routed.

The French are actively throwing up earthworks and constructing rifle pits in advance of Forts Ivey and Charenton.

Spirited encounters occurred Sunday on the line of the Rouen road.

A Prussian column moving up to the right bank of the Seine, approached Le Petit Audely.

The train was occupied by the 94th Regt., which, on the approach of the enemy crossed the river, blew up the bridge, and fell back to Gaillier.

The Prussians moved up the river to Concelles, where they passed the Seine.

They were furiously attacked by the French Trenches, and finally compelled to retreat in disorder to Audeverne.

HAD HIS EYE ON HIM. A bright little fellow was traveling in a crowded stage coach, and had been taken on the lap of a fellow passenger.

The ways of retribution are mysterious but certain and reliable, and at Corry the other night a "valise buster," while pithing a "Saratoga" into a car, had all his front teeth knocked out, by the trunk falling back on him.

A lady says engagements are very unsatisfactory sort of affairs, for if you are not very polite and attentive the gentleman thinks you do not care for him, and you are afraid to be polite for fear the engagement might sometimes be broken off.

The Louisville Courier-Journal publishes the following as Grant's dispatch to Muroczek: "I am delighted that you have thrashed the scoundrel Jim Fisk. He has lied about me and my dear brother-in-law No. 18. He insulted me at Long Branch. Go for him again. Give him unsharpened thunder. My administration will stand by you. No longer let us have peace."

A New Orleans telegram of yesterday says: The steamboat Natchez left here at 6.11 o'clock this morning, running to beat the Lee's time to Natchez. She reached Baton Rouge in seven hours and forty-eight minutes, being thirty-seven minutes ahead of the Lee's time; passed beyond Sara in ten hours.

A Paducah (Ky.) paper makes the libelously punctuated statement that party of immigrants have arrived "with thirty loose horses and women, children and dogs without number."

Cider being so plenty this fall and muratic acid so cheap, it is hoped the price of champagne will not rise as high as was feared.

At a Connecticut hotel, lately, a visitor who called for a glass of water was requested to take cider instead, as that only cost 75 cents a barrel, while water cost $1.50.

The supreme Court of Iowa has decided with one dissenting voice, that the act allowing cities, counties, and so on to vote aid to railroad enterprises is constitutional.

The census gives Charleston, South Carolina, a total population of 48,431. There are 10,987 white males, 11,801 white females, 10,898 black males and 14,865 black females. Total white population, 22,788; total black population, 25,663.

The weather has a gloomy and forbidding appearance.
