NEW WELL AT PITHOLE -A new well was struck et Pithole about ten days ago, on a two-acre lot of the James Rooker farm owned by H. M. Haskell and S. Draper, which is yielding between thirty and forty barrels per day. It opens up considerable better hunt a good hole to get out, rather new territors, and proves that Pithole oil than to get into a long argument about the territory is not yet played out.

For $10 a good cooking stove with the modern improvements can be purchased at Ames' Hardware store, in Titusville. This store is one of the institutions of Titusville and in fact has a widely extended reputation all over the oil regions. They believe in a tree use of printer's ink, which, togother with the fact that all their goods are first-class, has gained for them a large tande. Those of our citizens visiting Tiinsville should pay Ames' hardware store a visit. Read his advertisement.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad is in a first rate running order, and its appointments will compare favorably with those of any other in the country. With a view of providing for the accommodation of their patrons in a more eminent; degree, two of Schereren 22,000 strong, entered Soissons Pallman's splendid palace cars have been Sunday. built expressly for the road. Each of the cars cost between seventeen and eighteen thousand dollars, and are named, respectively, the "Brocton" and Westfield." They are set upon six wheel trucks, and are most claborately and superbly finished, and afford every convenience that the most fastidious passenger could desire. They are to be transferred to the track of the Atlegbeny Valley over which they will run regularly on and after to-day. It is said the occasion will be celebrated by an excursion After a short time the intention is, we onuerstand, to run the cars through to Buftalo. - Herald.

The pernictous effect of trashy papers and dime novels has a new Illustration. A band of tender young thieves has been arrested at Nashua, N. H .- a flourishing and unusually well appointed corps; for the little scamps had one bundred dollars in the common purse, two guns, a number of revolvers, a whole keg of gunpowder, and a dark lanters. The youngest of these infant marauders was eight years old; the most venerable had attained the age of twelve. They were upon their travels, having come from Manchester.

A childrens paper at Springfield, Mass., said of a Chicago conte mperary: 'In the Western country, where books and papers are scarcer than with us, it must have a large circulation." Whorenpon the Western editor refers to the "Newspaper Directory," and informs the Eastern man that Massachusetts has 208 newspapers, and Illinois has 425, while the six New England States bave altogether 439 -but 14 more than the single State of Hilnois.

Hall's Journal says: "If a man can sleep soundly, has a good appetite, with no unpleasant reminders after meals, the todily habits being regular every day, he had better let bimself alone, whether he is as big as a hogshead, or as thin and dry as a fence rail."

A young man named Husbes was recently expelled from the Pa. Stare Normal School, at Edinboro, Eric Co., for misconduct. Prof. Cooper forbade bin to come on to the grounds. Soon after he purchased a ticket for a public exhibition there, and although warned not to come, he made his appearance accompanied by a lady. He was arrested by a constable. Hughes brought suit for damages and was awarded $30 and costs, by aroltrators. The defendants appealed the case, and it was recently tried in Court. The Jury assessed the damages at $275, the defendant to pay the costs. Judge Johnson stated that the expulsion of Hughes was no hindrance to his attending a public exhibition there so long as he behaved well.

Josh Billings says: "Many people spend their time trying to find the hole where sin got into the world. If two men break through the ice into a mill pond, they had hole they fell in."
