From the Titusville Herald we learn that a shock of an earthquake was felt in that city yesterday forenoon, which caused a lively "shaking up" of crockery and things besides badly frightening the people. The shock was also felt in Meadville, Montreal, Cincinnati and other cities. We cannot learn that the shock was felt here.

Nearly twenty-five thousand people, according to a wild estimate tried to hear Rev. Mr. Fulton preach last Sunday in Boston, because he was reported to have guzzled lager beer in New York. Upon what will ministerial popularity reach next? Of what is what kingdom?

CALED.

Your issue of last evening contains a "card" over the signature of D. M. Saunders claiming to be in receipt of a supply of Briar Hill coal. I propose to prove the assertion a falsehood, for a wager of one hundred dollars ($100) a side. Come and see me brother Saunders.

E. W. CONINGTON.

Mr. Charles Melville, advance agent for the Olvia and California Comedy Company, is in town making the necessary preparations for the advent of that company, who are to give two entertainments at Sobel's Opera House, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Oct. 24th and 25th. They will undoubtedly draw crowded houses.

A man named Geo. Spencer was killed on Tuesday last by being run over by a train on the B. C. & P. R. R. near Sherman.

"Provid" space and Way Stations" was the inscription on a sign placed over the chapel door at Trinity College, Hartford, lately. It was stolen from the railroad depot.

The new elevator at Duluth cost $150,000.

JOHN J. CARTER & CO.

About five years since there were established in Titusville hundreds of stores and shops, representing all kinds of business and conducted by every class of people. At that period the town was all excitement everything was oil, and every little institution could make money for a short time, while but very few stood the clamor and tried to grow up with the city. Regarding it as a growing place for trade some of these opened shops, but failed for want of a knowledge as to how to conduct their business. Others, more familiar with their trades and calling, "swung out their shingle." A very few—not one in ten—who at that time came here and opened stocks of goods have run successful and are now a part of the place. One of that few is JOHN J. CARTER, who in 1865, in connection with J. W. Alexander, opened on Franklin street, a little, one horse clothing and gents furnishing goods store. Having numerous competitors it was hard work for them to keep their heads above water, but by close attention to business, studying the secret of advertising, and selling goods on a fair basis, they founded what is now one of the largest houses in their line, in this region.

A year or two ago their place of business was changed to Spring street, and opened under the name of John J. Carter, Mr. Alexander having retired at the close of the first year of their partnership. In January last Mr. Carter associated with himself Mr. A. W. Rollins, of Hatch, Johnson & Co., New York, wholesale dealers in gents' furnishing goods, and Mr. J. W. Alexander, formerly of the old firm, under the firm name of John J. Carter & Co. All the members of this new firm being men acquainted with every branch of the business, they soon established an enviable reputation, and it became necessary to enlarge their borders. Accordingly they erected over their store a second and third story elevation of the same width and depth of salesroom, giving them an abundance of room for the display of goods and increased facilities for a speedy transaction of business.

During the past few weeks they have visited the eastern cities for the purpose of selecting a Fall and Winter stock of goods and have just returned with the most extensive assortment ever brought into this city. Nothing could be more complete than their stock of Furnishing Goods which meets the eye as you enter their store. On either side one finds nothing but the very best of goods, and arranged in a style "gorgeous for to see." On the second floor is the Cloth and Clothing Department and is filled to overflowing with Ready-Made Clothing and Cloths of the latest styles.—On the third floor is the workshop, where 25 workmen and a number of sewing machines, with very attractive breathing attachments, are in constant employ. The Custom Department is under the superintendence of Mr. CHARLES TRIPP, whose popularity throughout this section as an A. No. 1 cutter is equivalent to a "sure fit." Another attraction is, the salesmen are all gentlemen, and among them are "ANDY" SHOERT, late of McFARLAND, SMITH & Co.'s, and J. J. CONNELL.

To-day and to-morrow, they propose to devote to the public good, and have set these days apart for a Grand opening.—Those who desire to look at an elegant stock of goods cannot do better than to give them a call. But before you go, take special pains to look at the Fall Bulletin, just issued by Messrs. Carter & Co., then go and leave your orders.—Courier.

THEATRE.—Owing to the exceedingly unpleasant state of the weather, last evening, there was not so large an audience in attendance at Sobel's Opera House to witness Miss Fanny B. Price's impersonation of "Fauchon, the Cricket," as there would have been had it been more favorable. The really excellent performance of Miss P. and her company was a matter of surprise to all in attendance, no one for a moment expecting to witness so life-like and meritorious acting, each individual member seeming to vie with the other in their efforts to please. Of Miss Price's acting we cannot speak in too high terms of praise, it being marked by a certain grace of action and a complete understanding of the character she was playing that we have seldom if ever seen equalled. She has a finely modulated voice, and the sudden change from grave to gay, from mirthfulness to sorrow, leads one to imagine almost that the character was a reality. Suffice it to say she won the admiration of the entire audience, and was loudly applauded throughout. Mr. D. Hancock as Father Barbeau exhibited rare histrionic talent, proving himself a first-class actor in every respect. The company is a strong one and deserving of liberal patronage.

To-night will be presented the great drama entitled "Frou-Frou," in which Miss Price will appear of her original character of "Gilberte," supported by the entire company. Give them a full house.

Latest and Most Important War News.

New York, Oct. 20.

A dispatch from Berlin, dated 9 o'clock last evening, says:

The terms of capitulation of the fortress and garrison of Metz have been agreed to at the Prussian headquarters at Versailles between the French General Boyer and King William. The following are the conditions under which the capitulation was arranged:

Marshal Bazaine will sign a treaty of peace between France and Prussia as the plenipotentiary of Napoleon; Bazaine's army to be disarmed, but to remain at Metz; Napoleon's son, the Prince Imperial, to ascend the throne of France, and Marshal Bazaine is to be nominated as Regent.

NEW WELLS IN FRANKLIN AND VICINITY.—Since our last notice the following new wells have been struck at the Point:

Baker, Findley & Co., on Egbert & Bleakley tract, commenced pumping on Monday, yielding eight barrels—will torpedo next week.

G. W. Pringle & Co., on same tract, now testing, with good show.

OLD WELLS TORPEDDED.

Mackey, Plumer, Connely & Co., torpedded on Monday, commenced pumping on Tuesday night, and is producing forty barrels.

A. M. Hoover, Rogers & Co., on same tract, torpedded on Monday, and producing forty barrels.

Rial, Connely & Co., torpedded last week. Former production twenty-five barrels, now forty barrels and increasing.

Grimm Bros. & Co., torpedded week before last, yielding forty barrels.

P. H. Watson & Co., No. 2, torpedded last week, and producing about ten barrels.

GEO. P. SMITH FARM.

Parker & Spencer, No. 2, commenced pumping last week, and producing six barrels.

There are ten new wells now in progress that will be ready for testing next week.—Spectator.

NEW WELL ON THE COUNTY POOR FARM.—Tabor & Siggins, the lessees of twenty-five acres of the County Poor Farm on Sugar Creek, for oil purposes, struck oil on Wednesday. The well is considered good for ten barrels. The part of the farm leased by the Commissioners is the roughest portion and mostly unfit for agricultural purposes. The royalty retained by the county is one eighth. As matters now seem it would not surprise us if the oil obtained would pay for the farm and buildings without costing the county a cent. This is, of course, conjecture, but stranger things have happened.—Spectator.

A religious young man at New Hartford, Iowa, recently attempted to moderate the views of an orthodox clergyman of that city by appearing outside his bedroom habited in the supposed costume of his satanic majesty. The clergyman, being a practical man, seized a good thick stick and laid it on to the back of the enthusiast until he was forced to call aloud for mercy.

Susan James, a negro doctress of St. Louis, gave a patient a prescription composed of 101 ingredients. He died because she accidentally left out a few things called for by her receipt.

Thomas Paine had many quotable epigrammatic sentences; "Rose like a rocket, fell like a stick." "Times that try men's souls;" "one step from the sublime to the ridiculous," etc.

Pope's unfortunate orders from "headquarters in the saddle" gave Lee opportunity for the one solitary joke of his lifetime: "What can you expect of a general who put his headquarters where his headquarters ought to be?"

In Utica, N. Y. they are selling Concord grapes by the ton. Recently fifty tons were sold at two cents per pound.

A letter dropped into the New Bedford postoffice, Friday, addressed to "Heavenly Father," is detained for non-payment of postage.

Now and then they cut off the ears of a horse thief in Oregon, and then telegraph East that the crops were never better than they are this season.
