IMPORTANT RAILROAD CHANGE.—We are reliably informed that the Oil Creek & Allegheny River Railway Company having come into possession of the controlling interest in the stock of the Oil Creek Junction Railway, have assumed the management of that road and intend running it through to this place at once.

Game of all kinds received daily at the Petroleum Exchange Hotel. Also, fresh Shell Oysters. Drop in and try them.

An old well on the Rynd farm site, which has been down for several years, was started up again on Saturday last, and commenced pumping at the rate of 25 barrels per day.

We are informed that August Briel, who it will be remembered was sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for eleven years for the shooting and killing of David Tate, is at present lying very sick with consumption and not expected to live.

A new road has been laid out up Cherry-tree Run, from Rynd farm to Kane City. This will prove a great convenience to teamsters and others traveling that way.

Do not forget the Olivia Band Burlesque company, at Sobel's Hall, this evening.

The Olivia Band troupe gave another pleasing entertainment at Farrar Hall last night, and, although the weather was most unfavorable, to a large audience. The play of Kenilworth was repeated and its many comicalities kept the audience in a roar of laughter.

By reference to the advertisement it will be seen that this company appear at Sobel's Hall this evening. This company is a first class one in every respect, and will undoubtedly draw full houses during their stay here.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Wm. A. Morrison, a citizen of Harrisville Butler County, while assisting in drawing the sucker rods at Oil Well No. 10, Cooley Farm, on Wednesday of last week, had one of his legs caught in the rope, and was drawn up to the bull-wheel shaft, and whirled around it three times, breaking his leg and one of his arms by the operation, and his head at each revolution striking the derrick floor. He died of his injuries a few hours afterwards.

We have inadvertently omitted to call attention to the advertisement of Stratton & Kip, oil brokers and dealers in oil lands and leases, Franklin, Pa. They have a large number of choice leases in the heart of the lubricating oil district which they are prepared to let or sell on the most reasonable terms.

The return match game of base ball between the Senecas of Oil City and the Columbias of Story Farm, was played on the latter's grounds on Saturday afternoon, and resulted in a victory for the Senecas. Six innings were played, the score standing 22 to 18, when darkness prevented further playing and the umpire decided the game as above.

A large audience was in attendance at the theatre on Saturday evening, to witness the performance of the great drama of "Little Barefoot." Miss Price fairly outdid herself in the character of "Amri, or Little Barefoot."

The new well of Owston & Sowers, on Shaffer Run, near Oil City, is producing 50 barrels per day.

The track of the Oil Creek Junction Railroad is laid as far this side of Oil City as the Clapp farm, and grading is completed as far as Rouseville.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph of the 15th inst. mentions that throughout the whole cotton belt of Georgia the weather is absolutely lovely, and adds that every one in the country is busy in gathering cotton.

An unfortunate Missouri girl lately returned from her wanderings to her father's house, imploring permission to stay, but the cruel father drove her out into the night and slammed the door in her face with a malediction upon "strumpets."

A "burglar in skirts" succeeded in putting to flight a Marshal and his aids, a few nights since, in Cincinnati, by brandishing a knife in rather close proximity to their faces.

Jersey City has a million dollars to expend upon a park of only ninety-seven acres.

A Schenectady, N. Y., justice fined a white girl $20 for walking with a black man in the streets.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Tours, Oct. 23. It is understood that on Friday last England submitted at Berlin propositions for an armistice.

Great hopes are entertained of the result. Versailles, Oct. 21—via Berlin, Oct. 22.—At noon to-day a sortie was made by the French from Fort Mont Valerien, supported by forty field guns.

They were victoriously repulsed by detachments of the 9th and 10th Divisions of Infantry and a regiment of Landwehr, supported toward the close of the engagement by the Fourth Corps.

The Prussians captured 100 prisoners and two guns. The German loss was small.

The King witnessed the battle from Marly Viaduct. The people of Versailles were greatly alarmed.

The following official dispatch has just been received from Neuf Chateau: On Friday, the 14th, Marshal Bazaine made a sortie with 80,000 men crushing the enemy, which consisted of twenty-six battalions of infantry and eighty-two regiments of cavalry.

He also captured one hundred and ninety three wagons laden with stores and munitions of war.

Sickness among the besiegers is constantly increasing. The Prussians have been forced twice to renew their army around Metz.

New York, Oct. 22. The Telegram has London advices from Tours that Bazaine had made a successful sortie from Metz, and was in rapid march with his whole army to Paris.

The Democrat, per contra, has advices from Metz that the republic had been proclaimed, and that Bazaine, while endeavoring to check Republican manifestations, had been shot.

London, Oct. 22. A Herald's special says: Rumors that an agreement has been concluded at Prussian headquarters with Gen. Boyer, messenger of Bazaine, under which the Marshal is to march to Paris, and declare for Napoleon Fourth.

To check the evil of Sunday carousing, a Cincinnati manufacturer pays off his men on Monday morning instead of Saturday night, and finds the plan works well, after all the parties get a little used to it.

A Wurtemberg Jager, who came back with the first five mitrailleuses taken during the war, brought his sweetheart for a present, the silken and embroidered garters of the Duchess of Clermont-Tonnerre, the belle amie of McMahon.

The Postmaster General has issued an order directing postmasters to deliver pension letters to the pensioners in person, and not to claim or other agents, as has heretofore been done.

The largest raft that ever floated on the Mississippi was landed at Muscatine on Friday. It consisted of 18 strings, 17 orbits long and 16 courses deep, containing 2,236,756 feet, worth $15.50 per 1,000 feet, amounting to $39,319,71; with top loading of 1,000,000 lath, worth $2.25 per 1000 feet and 40,000 pickets, worth $12.50 per 1000 and covered the space of four acres. Total amount, $42,069,71.

Miss Ellen A. St. Clair, of Malden, Massachusetts, a young lady of sweet sixteen, has just arrived at San Francisco, after a journey in her own coach of near three thousand miles in the Rocky Mountain and the Indian country.

Miss St. Clair left her home in April, and proceeded by rail to Salt Lake City. Her party consisted of herself, father and driver.

After reaching Yellowstone river, they drove themselves, and the young lady boasts of achieving what no other lady ever has done, and that is the driving of four in hand in an Indian country and across the Rocky Mountains.

For over two weeks she was constantly among the Indians and never met a white man or any habitation except the Indian lodges.

A Lafayette (Ind) exchange says that the lanes and alleys of that city are in such a sad state of filth that the Street Commissioner has to wear a clothes pin on his nose when going his rounds.

The tide of fashionable Northern travel to Southern winter resorts is expected to be far greater than ever during the coming winter.
