Mr. Ed. Mackey, son of Major Mackey, of Franklin, was seriously if not fatally injured a day or two since by being thrown from his wagon.

Some scoundrel placed a rail on the track of the Oil Creek Railroad at or near Myer's Switch a week ago last Thursday night. General Manager Pitcairn offers a reward of $300 for information that will lead to the conviction of the guilty party.

During the month of Sept 630 car loads of oil were carried over the Buffalo, Corry & Pittsburgh R. R., at an average of 85 barrels to the car, making 53,550 barrels in all. The income of the road is now about $25,000 a month.

Well No. 3, Mt. Moriah lease, McCray farm, is completed, and it is expected will commence flowing this evening. A good well is anticipated, as the third sand rock is very fine, resembling that found in all the large wells on this farm.

Our citizens should bear in mind that Miss Fanny B. Price, the great tragedienne supported by a full dramatic company, will reappear at Sobel's Hall for a short engagement, on Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 4th and 5th. Stakspere's great tragedy of Macbeth will be produced, Miss P. appearing in the leading character. This lady is a decided favorite, and will draw crowded houses.

Nothing has been heard from the missing boats of the lost steamship Cambria, and it is probable they went down at the same time the steamer did.

We are turning out superior styles of job work at present, to which we call the attention of our patrons.

Rained nearly all night; rained this forenoon. More a coming.

The St. Mary's Gazette thus tells how they do, things down in that neck of woods:

There was a sound of revelry by night last Tuesday and Klausman's Beer Saloon had gathered in its noble load of sonkers. Pretzels graced the festive board and went round in tankards foaming o'er with froth as white as driven snow. Pleasure was supreme; and all went merry as a marriage bell. But some malignant spirit entered in and shattered all their revelry. A storm of words arose, and hung like funeral pall around the grand saloon. Chairs flew and tumblers danced around with perfect recklessness. The door flew open; and a youth, to Fortune and to Fame unknown, was hustled out at an angle of about forty-five degrees landing in a soft mud puddle. And then the circling glass once more went round and Pleasure reigned supreme.

PETROLEUM AS MARINE FUEL.—Four years ago this season, an experiment was tried, on the boilers of a United States gunboat, which at once tested the practicability of petroleum and demonstrated its complete success as a fuel for generating steam. It is now said that certain capitalists of New York, were so favorably impressed with the utility, and more than all, economy of petroleum as a fuel for the boilers of both marine and stationary engines, that they bought the patent rights of the successful apparatus for nearly all our Atlantic States. These parties succeeded in obtaining the privilege of applying their apparatus to one of the Cunard steamers, with the result of saving several thousand dollars for fuel during the round trip. It is therefore highly probable that petroleum will soon be generally introduced as marine fuel, and in that event the demands for consumption will be very largely increased.

Young Men's Christian Association.

The Third Annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the State of Pennsylvania, will convene at Scranton, Luzerne county, on Tuesday, Nov. 5th, 1870, closing its session on Thursday evening. Delegates are expected from all the Associations in the State, among whom will be many of our most prominent ministers and earnest Christian workers. A most cordial invitation is extended to ministers and Christian laymen in town and country districts where there are no Associations, to come to the Convention. A most hearty Christian welcome is assured to all who come, and arrangements will be made for their entertainment, as well as for reduced fare on railroads.

All who design attending, are requested to address Thomas K. Cree, Chairman of State Executive Committee, Pittsburgh, that they may avail themselves of these privileges.

One of the pleasantest private resorts that we know of in the city of Titusville, is Ed. Sanderson's reading room, next door to the American Hotel. The room is fitted up in elegant style, and all the leading newspapers of the day are kept on file for the benefit of those desiring to read a pleasant hour. Those of our citizens visiting Titusville, after transacting their business, will find it agreeable to pay Ed. a call.

The demoralizing influence of temperance is seen in the following declaration of a Kane City girl who said, in a maiden speech: "Cider is a necessity of life, and I must have it. If it is decided that we are not to drink cider, I shall eat apples, and get some young man to squeeze me—for I must have the juice of the apple."

A number of new private residences have recently been put up on the hill, back of the Lake Shore block.

EXPORTS FOR THE WEEK.—For the week ending October 15th, 1870, the following exports have been made from New York: Crude barrels 5,900; refined barrels, 26,428 refined cases, 15,411; benzine barrels 4,024 From Philadelphia, same week, crude barrels 300; refined barrels, 33,414; refined cases, 1,606; benzine barrels, 2,200.

EXPORTS.—The exports from New York to Europe from January 1st to October 8th, 1870, was 65,225,977 gallons of oil. Some time last year, 48,055,718 gallons. Exports from Philadelphia to Europe from January 1st to October 8th, 1870, 41,594,534 gallons. Same time last year, 24,479,279 gallons.

Mr. William Boyd, of the mouth of the Clarion, who was so fearfully burned a few weeks ago, is dead. It was thought at one time that he would recover, but his injuries were of such a nature as to preclude all hope. He suffered much before he died. Another victim to the misuse of petroleum.

A race comes off Saturday next at the grounds of the Driving Park, at Corry, between Wheelock and Hagie for a purse of $400. This promises one of the most exciting races of the season.

Latest and Most Important War News.

London, Oct. 26. Dispatches from Tours announce that a young girl of that city is creating the most intense excitement by her imitation example of Joan of Arc. Hundreds of enthusiastic persons have joined her standard. Her appeals for recruits are said to be similarly patriotic and eloquent. Berlin, Oct. 25, via London, Oct. 26. German negotiations with Bismarck for the capitulation of his army continue, notwithstanding the disapproval of the French Government.

London, Oct. 26. The Pall Mall Gazette announces that a meeting between Thiers and Bismarck has been arranged, the Government at Tours having accepted the principles of the armistice. Trochu made another attempt to force an outlet near Jelsey on Monday, but was repulsed. The Germans on their westward march gutted the city of Besancon, in the Department of Doubs; they took along with them thirty-seven carriages filled with wounded French soldiers.

London, Oct. 26. The Prussians again announce fire will be opened on Paris the 29th inst. One thousand stoves are ordered for the huts of the Prussians besieging Metz. Gen. Cambrielle claims a victory for the French at Chantillon le Duc. Belgium is again sending troops to the frontier. The French regard England's last effort at mediation with extreme distrust. It is reported on the continent that Queen Victoria has written to the King of Prussia urging him to moderate his demands.

The popular colored ink for writing love letters now is violet, because it fades so soon.

The Figaro says that if "whatever is, is right," it follows logically that whatever isn't is right also, which makes things nice all round.

A STREET COMEDY.
My Belle her waterfall let drop,
As we walked in the evening air,
And a policeman said, as he picked it up,
"Ob, what a fall was there!"

A widower of New Haven, who happened to marry a second time without consulting the wishes of a grown daughter, on attempting to introduce his bride into the family mansion a few nights since, was set upon with sticks and stones and compelled to fly for his life.

The counterfeiters have been baffled by the peculiar red and blue fiber of the new postal currency. The attempt was made by lithographic imitations of the fiber in paired red and blue, passing each sheet through separate impressions, but the color did not show through, and as the colored fiber runs all through the paper, the detection was easy.

A foreign visitor to this country says that notwithstanding whiskey is a favorite drink in America, where one man calls for "Bourbon," six men call for "the same." He concludes that "the same" is a favorite drink.

It is said Ben Butler is coming to New York to live. In view of this, we can say with the poet:

Of all sad words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these: we might have
"Ben." Ex.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The M. E. Church at Fagundas City will be dedicated on Sunday, November 6th. Dr. Looppis President of the Allegheny College, will officiate, assisted by other ministerial brethren. All are cordially invited to attend.
