SHERIFF SALE—The Pithole Railroad was sold yesterday by the Sheriff of this county for the sum of $61,000. It was struck down on the bid of Harvey Henderson, Esq., of Meadville, who it was supposed bought it for the A. & G. W. R. R. Co's lessees. This sale covers the road and all its fixtures. The Sheriff held about ninety executions against the concern. The money will be paid into court by the Sheriff and will be distributed by an auditor, we presume, appointed by the court for that purpose. Geo. V. Forman, Esq., who has been for a long time Receiver for this road was relieved from that position day before yesterday.

There was a rumor on the street yesterday that a tank filled with oil had bursted on the McCray farm. The rumor probably originated by the loss of about six barrels of oil from one of the pipe lines by leakage, as no tank has bursted in that vicinity.

The Reed farm, adjoining the Balfey farm, Cherrytree Run, was sold yesterday by Mr. Wm. Reed to Mr. Chas. Ledham, for $5,000. The farm comprises 50 acres, and is at present yielding 40 barrels of oil per day.

Mr. T. A. Morrison, of the Oil City Times, announces his withdrawal from that journal in this morning's issue, in consequence of ill health.

Wm. Gealy, a butcher of Oil City, aged about 60 years, was thrown and had his leg broken on Thursday of last week while in a cattle pen at Reno attempting to secure some of the brutes.

Fishing at White Oak is good now and the hotels have venison, bass, pickerel, tripe, and other delicacies of the season on their bills of fare.

What's in a name? "Gilt Edge" whisky is being extensively advertised by an English Pittsburg firm.

AN AUTUMN HYMN.

BY DR. T. W. PARSONS.

Should Autumn's golden days depart
And never leave behind
A lesson to the grateful heart—
A harvest for the mind?

For Autumn and his golden days,
For all his goodly things,
We'll sing a cheerful song of praise,
For all that Autumn brings.

Dear God! who gav'at the kindly rain
On Summer's drought to fall,
Thy sun and rain made strong the grain,
But Autumn ripened all.

For Autumn's glad and golden days,
For all his blessed things,
We'll sing a cheerful song of praise,
For all that autumn brings.

Though Autumn's suns more coldly shine
Earth's glory is not lost;
Night bears the Phœbus' radiant sign,
Morn shows the silver frost.

And though his fields be bare and brown,
Old Autumn's praise we'll sing,
October's gold shall be his crown,
And Autumn shall be king.

The Titusville Herald moralizes after this fashion:

Among the bright lights in the galaxy of petroleum stars that have flashed into a meteor-like existence since the discovery of Drake's illuminator on Watson flat, there is one who has lately appeared above the oleaginous horizon, that is destined to receive the attention of modern star-gazers by reason of his eccentric and comet-like movements. From an honest, hard-working, steady-going boy, by reason of sudden wealth, he has launched his canoe upon the flood of dissipation and carousal, and unless, like the original Johnny Steak, he mends his ways, and settles down to "teaming," he will not only find himself shipwrecked, but, in oil parlance, "cleaned out and snatched as bald-headed as a cannon ball." The races of the past season have been graced by the presence of this "oil prince," and proprietors of chuck-a-luck and other sweat-boards have smiled as the youth from Hickory invested his money on their tables. And now comes the sequel from the Forest Republican:

"John Fagundes, one of the owners of the famous Fagundas Farm, was arrested on Monday last and brought to this place on the charge of stealing a trunk from Scott Hummason, proprietor of the Venture House, Trunkerville. A hearing was had before Esquire Mercillott, and the prisoner was held to bail in $1,000 for his appearance at the next Quarter Sessions.

By this week's Venango Spectator we learn of the retirement from that journal of Mr. A. P. Whitaker, for many years the senior editor and proprietor, the change being made necessary by his health becoming impaired by too close confinement. During his long connection with the Spectator, Mr. W. has succeeded in building up a journal that has been a credit to himself, and done much toward building up the city of Franklin, and is probably more extensively read than any other weekly journal in this section of the State. We shall miss him from the editorial fraternity, as to him we are entitled for many favors shown during a period extending over nearly five years with which we have been identified with the press of the oil region. We trust he may speedily be restored to health, and prospered in whatever undertaking he may engage. The paper will be published hereafter by Mr. John H. Whitaker, and will lose none of its interest, he being every way capable of conducting it.

We learn that the Oil City Daily Times suspended publication as a daily newspaper this morning. It is said a weekly paper will be issued hereafter from that office.

The late specimens of Aurora Borealis, with which the natives of this country have been delighted, have set the paper stainers, who dish up the local columns for some of our country dailies, to gushing about robes of azure light, ethereal mildness, mellow Autumn days, and so forth.

"It is a sad moment in life," said Cynic "when you find that love, glory, happiness are altogether not worth a cigar." "It is a sadder moment still," replied his friend, "when you find that the cigar itself is bad."

A lady who visited an Oshkosh (Wis.) hotel, and blew out the gas on going to bed, when awakened by a servant, exclaimed: "Something's the matter with the air here in Oshkosh."

London, Oct. 28.

The capitulation of Metz was not signed until Thursday night.

The city will be occupied by the Germans to-morrow.

The whole number of prisoners is now represented at one hundred and seventy-three thousand, including three Marshals and six thousand officers.

Tours, Oct. 28.

The following official dispatch is just made public:

Bourg, Oct. 28.—A telegram from Basle announces that the Prussians have suffered defeat between Mont Didier and Baslecon.

They fled in disorder, taking with them fifty-three wagons filled with wounded, and leaving twelve hundred killed on the field.

Three hundred of the fugitives crossed the frontiers into Swiss territory.

They were disarmed and directed to proceed to Posentray.

London, Oct. 28.

Heavy rifle firing was heard to day near Paris, the sound coming from the defences between La Villette and Mont Martre.

The Germans who occupied Versouin considerable force, have left Gray Sur Laone.

This movement down the valley of the Laone is believed to be the first step in the advance on Lyons.

The court of inquiry on the blowing up of the citadel of Laone acquits the French commandant of all responsibility.

The following from the East Brady Independent, will give our readers some idea of what is in store for our town when this great Humberg Show visits us next week:

On Saturday last an "Indian Show" visited East Brady, and with it came the usual amount of drunkenness and rowdyism. The show itself was a humbug par excellence, and we are not only sorry that such impositions are tolerated, but that our officers grant license to such exhibitions. Such swearing, such attempts to get up rows, has seldom been witnessed here, and we trust for the sake of morality and common decency we may "never look upon its like again.

Captain Keeler, a prosperous resident of Detroit, Mich., has been coasting about the streets of that city, recently, on board a steam-corvette on wheels. The vessel is 35 feet long, 7 feet depth of hold, and 12 feet breadth of beam. After making the circuit of the principal thoroughfares the old skipper headed his craft towards the river, and launched her in presence of the whole town.

Maxims for Merchants.—

A short advertisement four times is better than a very long one. "Brag is a good dog, but holdfast is better."

Don't fear to have a small advertisement by the side of a large competing one. The big one can't eat it up.

A prominent advertisement, once or twice, will be effective, if followed up by a steady card giving your business and address.

If business admits of it, several small advertisements with your name repeated every time, will avail more than the same collected, with your name in only once.

There is no instance on record of a well sustained system of judicious advertising failing of success.

Don't take down your sign in dull times. People read newspapers all times of the year.

When people see a man advertise, they know he is a business man, and his advertising proclaims that he is not above business, but anxious to do it.

From the Times we learn that John Bryan was arrested in Venango City, on Saturday last, on a charge of attempted rape. The victims of this brute's passions were two children, and he deserves the severest punishment the law provides.—Bryan was held under bail to appear at Court.
