The losses sustained by the oil men in Oil City yesterday at the fire are as follows:

Pool Bros. loss, including everything, will not amount to over a $1000, as they had very little oil on hand at the time.

Parker & Thompson's loss, including the lumber yard owned by H. McClintock, amounts to $5,000, with no insurance.

J. J. Vandergilt, lost the tanks on six empire line cars which were filled with oil, the whole being valued at about $3,500.

Lockhart & Frew's loss can, at present, be only approximately estimated and is placed at $8,000. Their loss includes the tanks on three cars which were filled with oil.

A lady, whose name we did not learn, had her pocket picked of $11, all the money she had, on the accommodation freight going north, between McClintockville and Roseville, this forenoon.

A Dutchman at Deater married a second wife in about a week after the loss of wife No. 1. The Sabbath following the bride asked her lord to take her riding, and was duly "out up" with the following response: "You think I ride out with another woman in so soon after the death of mine first?"

The following is a list of prisoners confined in the county jail at present:

- Henry Wood, assault and battery and vagrancy.
Jerome Knapp, illegal liquor selling.
James Curtin, awaiting trial for murder in Oil City last September.
Henry Rafferty, eating out $20 and costs for assault and battery.
Jas. McCracken awaiting trial for general conduct.
Albers Butler, Fifteenth Amendment, awaiting trial for larceny.
Thomas Marshall, serving 6 months' sentence for larceny.
Richard Burke, serving 3 months' sentence for obtaining goods under false pretences.
Charles Kennedy and James Early, awaiting trial for assisting a prisoner to escape and resisting an officer.
Thos. Shay, illegal liquor dealing, sentenced to 60 days in limbo and $100 fine.
Hugh McBride, sent 24 days by Oil City Justice for lewdness and fined $24.
Mariah Connor, awaiting trial for keeping disorderly house.
Eugene Eastin, awaiting trial for larceny.
Daniel Harris, arrested for larceny, sentenced to pay costs, failed, and is now munching and digesting the amount.
Albert Boyd, serving 90 days for assault and battery.
Frank McGintery, awaiting trial for larceny.
Pot Dinehan same as Frank.
Aac Dinehan, Oil City vagrant, serving 30 days.
J. S. Wilson, serving 35 days for larceny.
James Finney and Joseph Davis awaiting trial for larceny.
Andrew Jones, unbleached American awaiting trial for rape.
P. McPhillips, the Shamburg shootist, awaiting trial for assault and battery.
John Mitchell, sentenced for costs in fornication case.

A good old lady of Jamestown, who improved every opportunity to teach by precept and example, recently remarked at a prayer meeting: "My friends as I came along I saw a cow switching of her tail. In this wicked world of strife she was peaceful and contented a switching of her tail, and I said to myself—go thou and do likewise."

And the Minister said, "Sister, the lesson is good but the application is not. It does not have its full force in this locality. The place where the natives have caudal appendages is in the wilds of Pennsylvania, 27 miles west of here. Go there sister, and get your little incident narrated in the Blade." And she went and did likewise.—Jamestown Journal.

The war between France and Prussia has not interfered in the least with the Drug trade of Griffes Bros., who still continue to sell the purest of drugs, medicines, perfumeries, toilet articles, &c., at exceedingly low rates. They have also a large stock of Wall paper and Window Shades of new and unique designs which they are offering as cheap as it can be purchased elsewhere.

"Our Sister Republic. A new and timely book, beautifully illustrated with numerous engravings and portraits, presenting a vivid picture of Mexico and Mexican society in all its phases, as existing today; with most interesting and important information as to the political situation, the educational and religious reforms, &c. By Col. Albert S. Evans—Hartford, Conn., published by the Columbia Book Company.

The author of this book was one of the party of four persons who accompanied Hon. William H. Seward on his grand tour of that Republic. Familiar with the history of the country, in full sympathy with the cause of Republican Liberty in America, and with every facility for studying society in all its phases, from the highest to the lowest, he has endeavored to give an impartial description of what he saw and heard in that land of wonder and romance, avoiding neither the lights nor the shadows of the picture. This work is one of the most instructive and entertaining works of travel ever published. We would advise our readers to secure a copy of this valuable book.

Mr. H. C. Brooks of this place, has secured the agency in Cornplanter township for this work and is now engaged in canvassing for it.

The following are among the patents issued to citizens of Western Pennsylvania for the week ending November 8, 1870 and each bearing that date:

- No. 198,959—Sucker-rod coupling; James H. Beatty, Franklin, assignor to John Adams and Thaddeus W. Brigham, Venango county.
No. 109,948—Device for operating plows; James O. Petter, Renesville.
No. 109,112—Animal trap John Coslow—Titusville.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Tours, Nov. 11. The journals report that the Prussians have lost over ten thousand killed and wounded and eighteen hundred prisoners in battles around Orleans, and are retreating toward Chartres and Etamps.

A large number of guns, thrown away by the enemy, have picked up and distributed among the National Guards at Orleans.

The entire army of the Loire is moving forward.

The military department of the East has been abolished, and Gen. Nibel, who had chief command there, assigned to other duty.

A despatch from Chagny says that the large French force there is well supplied with artillery and sufficient to resist the advance of the enemy.

Troops from Lyons are marching to meet the Prussians.

Italian volunteers continue to join Garibaldi's command in large numbers.

Twentieth Wedding Anniversary—Last Saturday evening being the twentieth anniversary of Rev. S. J. M. Eaton, D. D., and wife, the many friends of the Pastor and his helpmate assembled at the Parsonage to spend a social evening.

Dr. Eaton has been Pastor of the Presbyterian church here for over twenty-three years. Taking charge of the congregation when it was few in numbers and poor in worldly goods, he has ministered to it through all these long years, until it has become one of the largest and wealthiest churches in the Presbytery.

While some ladies lace their waists tight some gentlemen get tight all over.

By the accidental leaving open of a stopcock, one of the tanks at the McCray & Adams well, McCray farm, overflowed last night and one hundred and fifty barrels of oil ran out on the ground and was lost.

Two ladies were talking about the sparrows and their usefulness in ridding the city of the canker worm, which used to be such a nuisance. One said that the noisy chirping of the sparrows early in the morning, when she wanted to sleep, was as great a nuisance as the worms; the other disagreed.

A letter passed through the post office here the other day addressed to "Pine Ear," Venango County, Pa. The writer wanted the thing to go to Pioneer, we guess.—Spectator.

There was a cat in Kansas City that gave gratuitous serenades to sentimental people and then took its pay from the larders of its disgusted auditors. A man the other night killed it, its owner killed the man, and now the law is about to slay the owner.

A white kid affair.—Mr. Kid and Miss Kid were married in Virginia a few days ago, on horse-back. The next thing will be some little kids.

There is a man at Gold Hill, says the San Francisco Figaro, who has drunk so much benzine that he is wholly indifferent to the assaults of bed-bugs. The most voracious insects can't plague him, and it has been ascertained that, "having taken a nip at him, the bugs become insane, engaged in civil war, and become exterminated."
