The Buffalo well, on the Angell, Prentice & Whitney tract, Foster Station, was torpedoed on Friday last, and on Saturday started up at the rate of 150 barrels per day. It had yielded only about 10 barrels per day previous to being torpedoed. This is the fourth well down on this tract all of which are producing, as follows: No. 1, 70 barrels; No. 2, 90 barrels; No. 3, 10 barrels; No. 4, torpedoed, 150 barrels. As we predicted some weeks since this is proving first-class oil territory. Several new wells will be finished soon.

OBITUARY.—By a telegram from Erie we learn of the death of Mr. John S. Brown, which occurred in that city at 12 o'clock last night. Mr. B. was well known in this place, having been engaged in operating for oil for the past six years, and bore an unblemished reputation as a thorough going honorable business man. About a year ago he was stricken with paralysis which it is thought affected his brain somewhat, and from which he never entirely recovered. About ten days ago, while attending to his affairs here, he received a second stroke from which he never rallied. At the time of his death he was 55 years old. His death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this vicinity.

We understand it is the intention of the newly elected Board of School Directors to immediately commence the erection of a large and commodious school house at Kane City. This is an improvement that has long been needed, as the present school house has not sufficient room to accommodate half the scholars in attendance.

Kane City has a large and flourishing debating society, which meets every Wednesday evening.

The streets are in a muddy condition, being almost impassable.

Obituary Drivel

Philadelphia has long enjoyed a pre-eminence in the publication of obituary poetry, in which rhyme, reason and measure are strangely commingled, but New Orleans is "after her," and when she shall be able to indulge in the luxury a little oftener, Philadelphia will undoubtedly take a back seat. The quality of the following tribute to a departed child, published in the Republican which is credited to the Superintendent of Education of the State of Louisiana, is rarely excelled:

Is Willie gone—gone to the land above—
Gone where all is good—where all is love?
Yes, yes; on Angel wings, away
To the land of love, the land of day.

No night, no cloud, no "scarlet fever" there,
Nor sin, nor pain, nor death itself is where
Our Willie's gone—a land so rich, so good,
That saints are fed on Angels' food.

Is Willie gone—gone so far away
That we no more shall hear him say;
"Papa ten cents for cake, and I'll love you—
I'll love Mamma, Georgie, and Grand'ma too."

Yes, gone where others, sweet and dear,
Said—"Come, Willie please come up here
We'll wait for Papa, Mamma, and Georgie too,
And, while waiting, sing—we'll sing with you.

NEW CLOTHING.—Messrs. Laumers & Alden have recently laid in an entirely new stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods, which they are offering at lower rates than ever. The clothing kept by them is of the latest and most improved styles, both foreign and domestic, and is manufactured expressly for their trade, in New York city. These gentlemen are well known as fair and square dealers representing nothing but what they can substantiate by facts. They have the only "white man's clothing store" in the Centre, and should be patronized by all who desire good clothing at reasonable prices.

The body of an infant was found secreted in a building on the Dubbs farm, about one mile above this city, on Frenchcreek. It had been placed between the weatherboarding and inside lining of the house, and covered over with earth. From the condition of the body it is supposed to have been secreted there about a week ago. We have no particulars. See says the Venango Citizen.

Look out for Owen Gaffney's new advertisement, which will appear to-morrow.

On Saturday last two of Corry's fair but frail "swamp angels" came up the creek on the 10:40 accommodation freight train, being in a decidedly inebriated condition. When the train stopped at the depot, they succeeded in attracting the attention of a large crowd by their vile and abusive language. The exhibition was kept up but a short time when some individual in the crowd threw a paper bag filled with flour at them, which closed the performance at once. They left for Corry at once.

Messrs. Osborn & Paten, have purchased the entire interest of Nicholson & Blackmon in the Kane City hardware store, and will hereafter conduct the business.

The Venango Citizen says: The excavation for the foundation of the County Poor House is about completed. The energetic contractors, Messrs. Simmons & Dewees, have also erected a large boarding house, for the accommodation of the workmen employed, and shops for repairing tools, etc.—The work is to be pushed vigorously to completion.

Why will men be naughty, and neglect the sweets of domestic life for the bitter waters of the tavern? There was Tommy B——, who one night returned to his domicile in a state of pedal uncertainty that was certainly ridiculous. Pushing heavily against the door, it opened, and Tommy fell sprawling across the threshold. His prolonged but ineffectual efforts to regain an erect position aroused his wife, in bed in the next room, who said: "Tommy, is that you? What's the matter?" To which the inebriated Thomas made answer: "Yes, it's me; nothin's the matter, cep't this 'ere bee's got too much honey on its wings to g-g-git into the h-i-v-e."

London, Nov. 13.
The Russian Minister here read to Lord Granville a letter from Prince Gortschakoff, stating that Russia now demands a modification or the abolition of the provisions signed at the convention at Paris on the 30th of March, 1856, of articles 11 and 13 in the treaty of Paris of the 27th of April 1806.

These provisions forbid the Russian fleet entering the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus from the Black Sea, and limited the Russian fleet in the Black Sea to ten small steamers.

They also prohibit Russia and Turkey from maintaining on the Black Sea coast, any military or marine arsenal.

This declaration on the part of Russia being simultaneously received in London, by Cabinets at Constantinople, Berlin, and Vienna, is believed here to indicate Russia's readiness to insist on recognition of her claims by force.

The Observer says "thirteen gas wells are now in successful operation at this city. Several of them furnish all the fuel and light required at large manufactories, and the city gas works have one from which they supply a large portion of the light needed by the community at large. The depth of the wells is from 550 to 700 feet. Every well that is put down has been a success, and, from present appearances, it will not be long until all the large manufactories and principal residences, will each have a well of its own."

About one week since Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson arrived at Marshalltown, Iowa, for the purpose of visiting some friend. On the evening of the 8th Hanson commenced abusing his wife in a most disgraceful manner. He at last seized her and struck several blows, whereupon she drew a revolver and discharged six barrels at him, three of which took effect, laying him at her feet. Hanson was a gambler and formerly kept a gambling saloon at Duluth, Minn., where he made an assault on the editor of the Duluth Minnesotan. He was a desperado of the most cruel kind.

The trial of Miss Marie Baltman, at Wheeling, W. Va., for the murder of J. W. McNash, was concluded Friday. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. It will be recollected that about a year ago Miss Baltman, who had been seduced by McNash visited his boarding house and demanded the fulfillment of his promise to marry her, and upon his refusing to do so, she deliberately drew a pistol and shot him dead. The case excited a great deal of interest and the court room for days back was densely crowded.
