Mine host Washington Alden, the popular landlord of the Plumer House, at Plumer, is one of those good natured jolly fellows that is seldom met with, and withal appreciates a joke even if it is charged to the Great American Tea Company. Day before yesterday he "caught a Tartar" but "laid him out" afterwards. During the forenoon of that day a seedy looking individual from Butler county "put in an appearance" at the bar of the hotel and called for a glass of wine which was furnished. Stranger filled a large sized glass, swallowed it at one gulp, deposited five cents on the counter, and took a seat by the fire remarking that it was a cold day. The five cent joke for fifty cents worth of wine was good, but Mr. A. determined to "see him on that and go one better," and in a short time invited Butler to take a "nip," in the meantime substituting whiskey for wine, filling a good sized tumbler, which stranger got outside of in one swallow, smacked his lips, remarked on the excellent quality of the wine and again sat down by the fire. After a short time Mr. A. proposed, as the weather was cold and dreary, to imbibe, this time filling a large soda water glass with whiskey which the stranger swallowed without noticing the change and sat down by the fire. In a short time the whiskey began to work, stranger remarked that the wine made him feel sick, and he gently slid from his chair, was taken in charge by the hostler, deposited on a pile of straw in the barn, and "laid like a warrior taking his rest," with the fumes of whiskey-wine and a pile of straw all round him. It is presumed that the Butler county man will not drink any more wine for some time. And that's the way he "caught a Tartar" and "laid him out."

New Music Store.—Messrs. Booth & Sargent will open on or about the first of December a music store, in the New Opera House block, Spring Street, Titusville, Pa. Besides keeping constantly on hand every description of musical instruments, music books, the latest sheet music, strings, tuning forks, and in fact everything pertaining to the music trade, they are agents for the sale of the world renowned Stelaway, Bradbury, Knaba and other pianos, also cabinet organs, melodeons, &c. Mr. Booth has had a large and varied experience in the business, having been connected with the well known musical house of J. C. Hull, of Meadville, for a period of several years. Mr. Sargent is an old resident of this place, and has but recently removed to Titusville. Those having deal with him will find him not only an upright honorable business man, but a gentleman in every sense of the word. We take pleasure in recommending the new firm to our musical friends and citizens generally.—They will find it to their advantage to give them a call when visiting Titusville, or communicate with them when in want of anything in the musical line. Remember the place, No. 5, Opera House block.

BURGLARY AT PET. CENTRE.—The Record of Tuesday evening says that the news room of Nicholson Bros. in that town, was entered by burglars on Monday night, and several gold pens and $10 in money was taken. The entrance was effected by prying open a window in the rear of the post office. On Tuesday night Jerome Akin's building was broken open at that place and a complete set of tools necessary to conduct a faro bank successfully, was taken out.—The latter theft was rather a peculiar one, but we presume the town will not suffer from the loss, as there are plenty left yet.—Titusville Courier.

If the supply of tools is not sufficient, they can easily be procured from the dealers who run the half dozen, and may be more, faro banks that exist in Titusville.—Strange that the Courier man has not found that out.

Chase House not to be Removed. PLUMER, Pa., Nov. 23, 1870

Editors Daily Record: Who knows so much more about our business than ourselves?

The Chase House will not be removed to Oil City, nor will it be taken down at all, or removed anywhere else; nor will it be closed on the 1st of January.

Since the Chase House was at Pleasantville, it has paid us well as an investment—better far, than at Pithole City, and better far than property in far more pretentious places at the time.

PRATHER BROS.

This forenoon while some laborers were engaged in laying a pipe line on the side hill of the McCray farm, they had occasion to dig up a large stump that was in the way. They had dug it up and were rolling it to one side, when it started down hill and brought up against the side of the tank at the Mt. Moriah well, breaking a hole in it by which about thirty barrels of oil ran out and was lost.

By reference to the time table at the head of the paper it will be seen that on and after Monday next the time of running trains on the O. C. & A. R. R. will be changed.

We have received from the publisher, Samuel R. Wells, the "Illustrated Annual of Phrenology and Physiognomy," for 1871. It is full of interesting matter relating to these subjects, and is worth more than double its price, 25cts. Address the publisher, S. R. Wells, 339 Broadway, N. Y.

Owing to the large increase in his business Mr. James Rutherford has been compelled to build an addition to his hardware store, on Washington street, and proposes to put in an additional stock of hardware and house furnishing goods. Give him a call and examine his prices and stock.

A young man, named John Marshall, son of a farmer living near Parker's Landing, was robbed of $165 in money at a hotel in Franklin on Tuesday night last. Passengers on the Oil Creek Railroad assisted him to reach Ridgeway where his brother resides.

A son of Mr. Wm. Moffit, of Corry, while at play Monday morning threw a stick which came in contact with the eye of his little brother, destroying the sight instantly.

Ice firm enough to skate upon formed in Corry on Monday morning.

A billous correspondent of a western New York paper pronounces Tidoute the champion town of the union "for disgusting filthiness of streets, walks, by-ways and vacant lots."

A writer in the Boston Daily News says of Wendell Phillips: "He seems as though God had quarried a crystalline block from the Jasper walls of New Jerusalem." In other words, Wendell is a celestial brick.

Le Temps gives details concerning the quantity of provisions in the city. In two days more the beef and mutton will be exhausted.

There is very little salt meat. Dried fish sufficient for two days.

There is five months supply of chocolate.

Rice less abundant. Oil is becoming scarce.

Sugar, coffee and wine will last long enough. The material for bread on hand will carry the supply into January.

Horse flesh will last two months longer.

The situation on the whole is pronounced good.

The Echo Du Nord this evening believes that a pitched battle is going on to-day near Amiens.

The Etelle Belge has a letter dated Nerville 24th, reporting an engagement Wednesday near Mizeres, in which the Germans were defeated and suffered heavy loss.

An American steamship for Havra was conveyed by French frigates. Her cargo consists of 18,000,000 cartridges, 10,000 breech-loading muskets, a large number of carbines and pistols, and 52 cannon. These munitions are intended for the equipment of the Army of the Loire, whose movements it is said, have been delayed by their arrival.

Tours, Nov. 25.

Heavy cannonading has been heard at Orleans all day to-day and yesterday in the direction of Arthenay, where an important engagement has doubtless occurred. A report says the engagement was favorable to the French.

A JUMPING MATCH.—A jumping match, between two women and a man was contested in Stott Haven. At the appointed hour Miss Anna Moore and Miss Catharine Dubois came upon the ground and were loudly cheered. They were dressed in kilts and tight, and wore slippers with bells. Their hair was closely tied, and they wore tight fitting skull caps. Dave Mathews, who was to compete with them, was similarly attired. The match was for $150 a side, best two jumps out of three. At the signal, the trio took their positions. Miss Moore led off with a run of from forty to fifty feet. Miss Dubois followed, and then Mathews came flying to the scratch and made the last jump. The distance each jumped having been carefully measured, the second and third jumps were made. The score was as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Ft. In., Miss Dubois, Ft. In. Miss Moore 10 9 1/4, Mr Mathews 11 0 1/2, Miss Dubois 10 9, THIRD JUMP, Mr Mathews 10 9, Miss Moore 11 1 1/4, SECOND JUMP, Miss Dubois 10 9, Miss Moore 10 10 1/2, Mr Mathews 10 6 3/4, Miss Moore was declared the winner.

Forty-seven billiard rooms, bowling alleys, drinking saloons, and the like contribute to make Corry a moral city, for which privilege the city council decide that each institution of the character must put $10 into the public crib.

A few missionaries would undoubtedly find a rich field of labor in that moral (!) city.

The Forest Republican has the following complimentary notice of a well known citizen of this place:

N. B. Smiley, Esq., of Petroleum Centre, formerly connected with the Venango Citizen, favored us with a call on Saturday evening. He is practicing law at the Centre, and has adopted as his motto: "Let justice be done though the Heavens fall."

A Milwaukee lunatic rushed into a church on a recent Sunday, wildly attired in one boot and neck tie, and familiarly seized the pastor by the throat. Some of the flock resented the rudeness and rescued the reverend man.

The Superior Court has decided, in a case before it, at Cincinnati, that a wife may sue, precisely as a husband does, for damages from any party attempting to deprive her of the comfort and enjoyment of her husband's society. Tally one for the woman's rights cause.

In New York, the other night, a woman was found dead in bed, while her husband was stretched on a sofa in the same room, dead drunk.
