A lively time among the oil dealers on the Creek to-day, in consequence of a demand for a large quantity of oil. There is evidently a corner brewing that will make lively times among some of the upper road dealers.

The majority for Hoffman in the late New York State election was 32,993. This is official.
 For the last twenty-four hours, the new well on the Columbia farm, mention of which we made a day or two since, has yielded by actual measurement one hundred and eight barrels of oil. By far the best well in that section.

The Tidoute Journal, one of the best weekly papers on our exchange list, has recently been enlarged and otherwise improved, both typographically and editorially. We congratulate our old friend, Major C. W. McClintock, on his success in the newspaper business. May the Journal continue to thrive, and receive a liberal support at the hands of the good people of Tidoute.

Trains on the Jamestown & Franklin railroad now arrive and depart from the Union Depot, at Oil City.

The Ladies' well, J. S. McCray farm, is being tubed to-day. This well is owned by a company of ladies residing in Titusville, as follows: Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Alkous, and Miss L. Williams. The indications are good for a paying well.

There is to be a grand Masquerade Ball, at Sobel's Opera House, this evening.

It is that watchword for an opportunity of revenge, both in wait against himself, and death with mischief on his own head.

A GRAND PROJECT.—Cheyenne has several large plans on paper, but the most comprehensive is that lately developed in a local paper. It is none other than a North and South Continental Railroad, reaching through Wyoming up to the Yellow Stone Valley, crossing the Northern Pacific Railroad at a point east of Fort Benton and striking the Missouri river at or near Fort Union. South from Cheyenne the line would be via Denver, down the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains through Colorado City and Pueblo, thence to Santa Fe and down the Rio Grande to Texas, or via the Chihuahua route to Mexico. On the north this would bring to Cheyenne the trade of Montana and Idaho, and that flowing to the continent via Puget Sound. And it would be a radiating point for all the trade of the south country that sought the East West or North via the Union Pacific and Northern Pacific routes. We conjecture the distances by this proposed highway to be as follows:

Cheyenne to Fort Union, about 550 miles
 Cheyenne to Santa Fe via Denver 530 "
 Santa Fe to Chihuahua, Mexico 500 "

Total length of road 1,586 miles
 This project looks very interesting on paper, but the only link of it that now seems probable for the next five years is the 536 miles from Cheyenne to Santa Fe, 106 of which are already in operation.

OIL IN KENTUCKY.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Scott's Post office, Ky., under date of the 23d inst. says: The workmen employed in sinking the shaft at Independence Station, on the L. C. & L. R. R., after getting to a depth of two hundred and seventy-three feet and six inches on the evening of the 20th, struck a cavity, at a ledge of solid stone sixteen feet in thickness, which contained combustible matter of a gaseous formation, which issued with such force as to nearly throw the drill from the shaft, followed by jets of water nearly suffocating the man that attended the drill, and accompanied by noise like distant thunder. This state of things continued until the evening freight train came up and stopped, when one of the brakemen thoughtlessly touched fire to the jet of gas, which burned with terrible intensity, consuming everything combustible within reach of the derrick. Repes and timber were reduced to ashes. At last accounts it was still burning.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. Charles Homer Jack, son of J. H. Jack, of Rockland township, Venango county, met with quite a severe accident last Wednesday afternoon, at one of the Jack wells, on the Wrigglesworth tract, Pleasantville. While drawing the tubing, the clamp fell a distance of 49 feet, the bale striking young Jack on the forehead, inflicting a gash across the forehead and near the right eye, but without fracture or dislocation. It was a narrow escape from instant death.—Herald.

PUGILISTIC ENCOUNTER.—Johnny Newell and a fellow calling himself John Smith, were arrested by officer Glenn and Lieutenant Barker last evening while enjoying a mill in front of a saloon on Wood street. It seems that Newell attacked the individual mentioned at Titusville recently and terribly abused him, and the affair of last evening was a retaliation on the part of the aforesaid individual. Smith left thirty dollars for his appearance this morning, but Newell did not have the wherewithal and was accordingly locked up. Before leaving Smith offered to bet one hundred dollars to fifty dollars that he could whip Newell and the latter promised, at no future day to permit him to redeem the wager. We shall see.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

Well No. 2, McCray & Thompson lease, McCray farm, which recently had its engine house destroyed, is again pumping.

Henry Wachter has just received, at his grocery store on Washington street, a fresh invoice of California pears; also, nice sweet oranges, and other kinds of fruit. Try them.

A miserable wretch named Isidor Meyer, was arrested this forenoon at Titusville, for an attempted rape on a little girl ten years of age. He was held to bail in the sum of $300 to answer. This is the same scoundrel, who served a term in the penitentiary for an attempted rape on a little girl four years of age, in this place a few years since. Hanging is too good for such a villain; he should be quartered, skinned and hung up to dry as a warning to those who are given to such acts of rascality.

Just received at M. S. Simmons' drug store a large assortment of Mahogany Cloths for stands, tables, &c., which are decidedly the finest article of the kind we have yet seen. They are manufactured by A. J. Sanford, Utica, N. Y. Call at Simmons' and examine them.

People who are hard up are generally in a tight place, and those who are tight are often in a hard place.

Latest and Most Important War News.

London, Nov. 30.—Noon.
The following dated Versailles early this forenoon, is just received by way of Berlin:

On Monday and Tuesday the forts around Paris, particularly those of the South, maintained a furious cannonade to cover a sortie in force.

On Tuesday the 29th the Parisians came out towards Soly, supported by gunboats in the Seine.

At this point they attacked fiercely and simultaneously, other sorties were made in other directions, and in all cases the French were repulsed and driven back behind their fortifications.

The entire Prussian loss in these actions were only seven officers and a few hundred men, while the French lost 1,640 prisoners alone.

The French have been beaten near Amiens, their army entirely routed, and fled toward Arras. Four French gunboats were captured.

On the 28th the main body of the French army attempted to force a passage toward Fontainebleau, by a heavy and general attack.

They encountered the Tenth Prussian Corps at Beaune, twenty-six miles north of Orleans.

The Prussians quickly reinforced with the Fifth Infantry and First Cavalry Divisions and the French onslaught was repulsed with heavy loss is killed, wounded and prisoners, and especially the latter.

Falling in their attempt the army of the Loire has withdrawn.

"BEAUTIFUL ISLE."
Oh! soft was her touch of the Ivory keys,
And sweet was her musical voice's low tone,
As she charmingly warbled her favorite song,
"Oh, had we some bright little isle of our own!"

Her boat was engaged in the grocery line,
And an idea occurred to him, brilliant and new,
So he said, "Dearest maiden, now tell me I pray,
Do you think that some kerosene he will do?"

The St. Louis, pioneer vessel of the Liverpool and Mississippi steamship line, has arrived at New Orleans after a speedy and prosperous voyage. The second steamer, the Crescent City, left Liverpool on the 9th ultimo, and will soon reach port.—These vessels are new and of about 2,000 tons burthen. Four other steamers are now building expressly for the line, and are constructed so as to cross the bar below New Orleans at all times, without detention. This is an event of no ordinary importance to the interests of the Mississippi Valley, for this new line properly managed, may inaugurate a great system of direct trade with Europe, that will give the people of the West an ever available check upon the encroachment of railway monopolies.

"Oh, mother!" cried a frantic maiden, as she stood before a blazing bake-oven, and gazed into it wringing her lily white hands in agony. "Oh mother! just think how dreadful it would be if I should marry William Henry, and have a little baby, and the darling should climb up on a chair and crawl into the bake oven, and be roasted alive! What would I do? Oh, mother! What would I do?"

WINTER.—Winter is here, and well has Josh-Billings said:
"Now gather round the kitchen fire,
And pile the chunks up higher;
Get out the fiddle and partners choose,
And shake her down in your cowhide shoes."

In building a coffer-dam for the bridge at Kookuk, the contractors were surprised that all their pumping amounted to nothing. On investigation, they found that a spring of cold water came bubbling up from the bottom of the river, faster than they were able to pump it out. All their ingenuity has not yet been able to overcome this unexpected obstacle.
