The amount of oil delivered to the "bears" up to last night was 22,301 barrels.

Since then and up to noon to-day 95 cars passed this point for the upper road.

Should these cars be filed to-day, the total delivery up to this evening will be about 30,000 barrels out of 88,000 bought on buyers option, and 65,000 on "calls," making in all 153,000 bbls. "call" on the first of the month, leaving three days to deliver 123,000 barrels before Saturday the last day of the "call."

Quite a lively "struggle" occurred this afternoon, in front of Schonblom's grocery, between the Kaue City barber and a man known as "Sugruttie."

The barber was pretty well "benzined up" and undertook to thrash Shortie, who turned on him, and administered a sound beating, after which the officer put him in the lock-up to get sober.

New RAILROAD ENTERPRISE.—The last notable railway project of importance is a grand trunk line extending from New York to Council Bluffs, to connect with the Union & Pacific Road opposite Omaha.

It is said the projectors of this enterprise control franchises and charters of lines extending westward from New York over the entire route.

It will be the shortest possible route from East to West, leaving Chicago, Toledo and Cleveland to the one hand and Pittsburgh on the other, and probably passing through the oil regions, thus becoming the central artery of the nation's traffic, as well as the main channel of the gigantic trade between Asia and Europe.

We shall await further developments with interest.

The wrestling match at Titusville, last evening, between McLaughlin and Benjamin, for $500 and the champion belt, resulted in favor of the former.

PARKER OIL FIELD.—MILFORD FARM.—

The "Walnut" was the first producing well on this farm, and has averaged about fifteen barrels per day since it started. It is only 967 feet deep and producing from the second sand. The oil is much better than that obtained at the Laoding, being about forty-four deg. gravity. It is owned by W. P. Finley, George Kribbs & Co., and has never been torpedoed.

The Della May was the second producing well on this farm, and is producing fifteen barrels per day. 1076 feet deep, and has not been torpedoed. Owned by Capt. Teinblin and others. The well was idle for a few days, having broken the pitman of the engine. Operations were resumed on Saturday. The well has been producing since the first of September.

The Philadelphia well is under process of drilling. At present the tools are fast in the hole and they are waiting for the pole tools which will be here on Thursday next. The well is only 150 feet deep, and is owned by Milford & Co.

A new rig has been put up near the "Pig Ear" boarding house, and is owned by Finley, Kribbs & Co. The contract has not been given out yet.

The "Pig Ear" is the euphonious name of the only boarding house on the farm.—The proprietor, John Wick, prides himself on "square meals."

The Eta well, on Robinson farm, is over 412 feet deep; the contractors, Tillinghast & Hyde, were very unfortunate in having to get the pole tools before the well was 100 feet deep. It is owned by Thomas McConnell & Co.

The Salem well, Robinson Farm, owned by Finley, Kribbs & Co.; was finished about the middle of September, and as yet is non-productive. It is 940 feet deep and has been torpedoed.—East Brady Independent.

The following sentences were passed on the prisoners convicted at the recent term of court in Franklin:

John Riley. Convicted of assault and battery. Sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs and go to jail for thirty days.

Milton Sackett. Plead guilty of breaking and entering a tailor shop and larceny. Sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs, restore the property stolen or pay the value thereof, and undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for two years and three months.

J. M. Sackett. Plead guilty of same offence as the last prisoner, and received same sentence except to term of imprisonment, which was fixed at three years and nine months, as this is the second time that this defendant has been sentenced to the Penitentiary by this court.

James Curtin alias James Shortie. Convicted of voluntary manslaughter. Sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs and be imprisoned in Western Penitentiary for one year and six months.

Charles Kennedy and James Early alias Ping Early. Convicted of aiding prisoner to escape. Each defendant sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs and each to be imprisoned in Western Penitentiary for a period of one year and three months.

L. Buzzie. Convicted of selling liquor to minors. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and ten days in jail.

Charles Hive. Convicted of selling liquor to minors; also, selling to men of known intemperate habits. Sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs in each case, and to undergo imprisonment in county jail for twenty days, being ten days for each offence.

On Friday last Deputy U. S. Marshal Totes arrested one Seymour Dean, at Salamanca, for selling liquor to the Indians on the Reservation without license. Col. Ely Parker has determined to put a stop to this sort of infringement of the law.

We would call the attention of our readers and the public in general to the advertisement of the Columbia Cornet Band, who it will be seen offer their services to play for public meetings, Festivals, Serenades, processions, &c., at reasonable rates. This band is now accounted one of the best in Western Pennsylvania, and parties wishing to secure the services of a first class band and orchestra will do well to pay them a call. All communications should be addressed to D. C. Smith, Leader C. C. B. box 75, Columbia Farm, Pa. Give the boys a call.

The Oil City Times departed this life day before yesterday. As the immortal J. N. Free says, "it could not stand the pressure," and so has gone the way of all the world. Let its epitaph be "Drops of Ink from Rouseville."

A boy named Ed. Porter, of Morgantown, W. V., tried the modern "happy dispatch," kindling a fire with coal oil the other day. He wasn't killed, but he won't have to go to school this winter.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Berlin, Dec. 5. Queen Augusta received the following from the King: Versailles, Sunday midnight: After two days battle, in which the army of the Duke of Mecklenburg was mainly engaged, Monstere's corps captured St. Jean, a railroad station and the suburbs of Orleans. Thirty guns and 1,000 prisoners were taken. The Prussian loss was moderate. Wrangle's Division suffered most. The Prussians found nine cannon and much ammunition on the field before Amiens.

[Signed.] WILHELM. Tours, Dec. 5.

The Government has received by balloon from Paris, official reports to the 4th of the progress and results of the movement made by Gen. Ducrot against the Prussian lines of investment.

They state that Thursday was passed in burying the dead and succoring the wounded. On Friday morning the Prussians attacked with great impetuosity the French at Champigny and in front of Villers, and after seven hours fighting the enemy failed to carry the position of the French and retreated, leaving their dead and wounded on the field. Their losses were from 15,000 to 20,000. Gen. Ducrot greatly distinguished himself in the battle Friday. Among the killed were General Le Chantre, and General Renault badly wounded. General Sonnetz in his report says: The troops who attacked the French were Saxons and Wartenburgers, their numbers exceeded 100,000 and their losses must have been extraordinary, for next day they were so weakened that they suffered the French to cross the river unopposed. The success of the French troops created the wildest enthusiasm in Paris.

Below we give the following additional particulars in regard to the late disastrous fire at Lawrenceburg:

A fire broke out between two and three o'clock Saturday morning in Lawrenceburg. From the best information, it originated in the rear of the Linden billiard building, the lower part occupied as a dry goods store clothing store and cigar store. It burned rapidly, and in a short time a large portion of the town was in ashes, including the Revere House, Butler House, Florence Hotel, New York Hotel, Adams & Foster's store, Carleton's grocery, the Oil City clothing store, Devine & Co.'s cigar store, Marlich's variety store, Mauc's liquor store, Reed & Hazen's drug store, Mrs. McChery's millinery store, Aldinger's grocery, Grau's saloon, Grau's meat market, Herby's shoe store, Porter's billiard room, Etsel & Knitler's store, Mrs. Ayer's millinery store, Katz's shoe store, Phillips & Riener's store, the school house, and Ayer's jewelry store.

Among the dwellings burned are McBride's, Grau's, Hockinberry's, Fullerton's and Grabb's. Twenty or thirty families are left homeless. The Legal Tender oil well, one hundred barrels of oil, and the Independent oil well were also burned. The loss will probably reach one hundred thousand dollars, so far as ascertained. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary.

New WELL NEAR CHURCH RUN.—The new Monastery well on the Winant tract, Church Run, struck a few days ago, is now being tested, and constantly increasing.—The well is 781 feet deep, and the third sand rock is of the best pebble quality and 75 feet thick. This opens the new territory lying west of Church Run, and bears every indication of being highly prolific. There are four other wells going down on the same tract.—Herald.

Gen. S. F. Carey, of Cincinnati, has been lecturing in Franklin and Oil City. Subject—Temperance.

A Lodge of Colored Good Templars will be organized in Franklin soon.

House For Sale, H. E. Blazon, Oil Exchange Hotel.

A Howard Watch and Chain will be raffled off at Griffes Bros. Drug Store, Dec. 23, at 8 o'clock p. m. The watch and chain is valued at $255.00, but will be put up at $225.00. Call and examine it.

We notice a good many oil men from other sections of the region in town to-day. The "corner" in oil is probably the occasion.
