The largest audience ever gathered together in Sobel's Opera House, greeted Sherry on his opening night in this place. The number is estimated at over six hundred.

The tract of land known as the Charles Conner farm, adjoining the R. L. Shaw farm, near Stand Off City, on which (the R. L. Shaw farm) a 125-barrel well was recently struck, was bought a day or two since by R. W. Evans and Emory Bros., of Titusville. There is 76 acres in the tract, and the well alluded to above is in close proximity to the line which divides both tracts.

Mr. J. H. Smith, of the firm of Bonham & Smith, is engaged to-day in removing his law office from its old location, to the commodious rooms over G. W. King, Sr.'s, meat market. The change is a desirable one.

NEW WELL.—The well owned by Mrs. Sill, of Troy, N. Y., on the J. S. McCray farm, commenced testing on Friday last, yielding but little oil up to yesterday on account of some defect in the tubing it is supposed. The well is now yielding fifteen barrels per day. Should this defect be remedied a large increase of production is anticipated.

Mr. David Laughlin was thrown from his horse on Saturday, at Pleasantville, fracturing his skull. He was taken up insensible and carried to the house of Mr. Mitchell, at Enterprise, where he still lies in a precarious condition.—Herald.

To-morrow evening there is to be a social party at the new hall opposite the Rochester House. The managers have spared no pains to make the occasion pleasant for those who attend, and no doubt a good time will be had.

By auction, on Tuesday, one hundred shares of McClintockville Petroleum Company sold at 66 cents, in Philadelphia.

THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

Around her waist I put my arm—
It felt as soft as eke,
"Oh, dear," says she, "what liberty
You printer men do take."

"Why, yes, my Sat, my charming gal,
(I squeezed her some I guess.)
Can you say aught against
The freedom of the Press?"

I kissed her some—I did, by gum;
She colored like a beet;
Upon my living soul she looked
Almost too good to eat.

I gave her another buss, and then,
Says she, "I do confess
I rather kinder sorter like
The freedom of the Press."

Mr. Cowasjee Jehangueer, one of the Parsee merchant princes of Bombay, has forwarded $1,000 to be halved between the French and Germans, and applied to the relief of those wounded in the war. "Though the occurrence took place," he writes, "in a foreign land, and at so great a distance, I could not obtain peace to my mind ever since the fearful slaughter and maiming of human beings; now, from this day, I shall satisfy myself that I served, people in great distress with a little money I can spare to forward for the good of my fellow creatures." Since the year of 1846 Mr. Cowasjee Jehangueer has spent upward of $127,000 in the works of public charity, and utility, without respect to caste, creed or race in the subjects of his bounty, besides giving away large sums in private charity. Where among Christian capitalists is the parallel of this "heathen's" catholic benevolence? What civilized philanthropist ever contributed to relieve the suffering among heathen tribes at war? The nearest approach we can show to it is the gift of Bibles to relieve their distress—generally accompanied by liquors and opium to neutralize the kindness.

By reference to our special notice column it will be seen that McFarland, Smith & Co., the well known clothing dealers of Titusville, offer for sale a large assortment of new novelties in gents furnishing goods for winter wear, also collars, cuffs, cravats, neck ties, scarfs, &c. They have recently made large additions to their stock of ready-made clothing, hats, caps, &c., which they offer for sale for the next thirty days at greatly reduced rates. Those of our citizens having deal with this firm will discover the fact that they sell clothing as cheap as it can be bought in New York City.

To-day the U. & T. R. R. Co. will commence laying their rails from Centreville to this city, and if the weather proves favorable they hope to make the entire connection in about a week or ten days. Ground will also be broken this week for the passenger depot, which will stand sixty feet in the rear of Corinthian Hall. The freight depot will be built upon the lot recently graded between Arch and Water Street.—Herald, 13.

There was not so large an audience in attendance at Sherry's New York Theatre, last evening as the night previous, on account of the bad weather. The drama of Mary Warner was exceedingly well played. Miss Virginia Howard as Mary Warner faithfully portrayed the wife's devotion and sacrifice in so feeling and natural a manner as to call forth tears from nearly all present. Mr. Chester as Geo. Warner was excellent. The balance of the characters were well played. In the afterpiece, Mrs. T. A. Cress as Jenny Lind, kept the audience in a roar of laughter and was repeatedly encored.

To-night will be produced the military drama, in three acts, entitled "The Lanciers," and the laughable afterpiece of Solon Shingle.

An exchange publishes a column and a half on "The meaning of love." We thought it a long established fact that "love is an unnatural and inordinate desire on part of a young man to pay a young woman's boarding."

A true bill has been found in the case of Sam Spatz, indicted for arson in causing the late fire at Parker's Landing. Court fixed the bail at $3,000, and the case will not probably come up before the next term of Court. The case was worked up by Detective Harry Miller, of Oil City.

How true these simple lines are:
There was a little girl
Who had a little curl
Right down in the middle of her forehead
And when she was good
She was very good,
And when she was bad she was horrid.

The Buchanan Royalty Petroleum Company have declared their sixteenth dividend at 2 per cent.

Latest and Most Important War News.

London, Dec. 13.
The Duke of Mecklenburg reports a severe battle with the army of the Loire at Beaugency, where the French were reinforced.

Fifteen thousand prisoners and 40 guns were taken and the remainder of the French army on the road to Blois was captured or beaten.

Another account says: After the fight on the 10th, the Bavarians threatened Beaugency and the forest of Marchais.

The French were reinforced but the Prussians took Bravant, Bonnet, Mepas and Bangony.

On the 9th Bonvalent, Vellerose and Bernay were captured.

Lille, Dec. 10.
General D'Henricourt, who arrived by balloon from Paris, says the battles on the 20th and December 24, were victories for the French, and that the Prussian loss was 15,000 prisoners and six guns.

He says Paris suffers no privations, that the agreement of the population is good, and that the object of his journey is to insure coincidence in the movements of all the armies.

Versailles, Dec. 10.
The French assuming the offensive before Paris in large force were repulsed at nightfall after a day's artillery fight.

The Prussian loss was slight. A few French prisoners were taken.

General Matusoff was in Dieppe on Friday.

The French at Havre captured a detachment of Germans with artillery.

The Cairo Bulletin of the 12th says: "A wealthy and influential citizen of Metropo- Mr. C., discovered a few weeks ago, that a much-loved and highly-cultivated daughter was about to become a mother. Anxious to conceal the shame, inevitable if the girl remained at home, arrangements were made to send her abroad, and, in pursuance of that arrangement, the mother and girl reached Cairo on their way South. On the same day, Mr. C. learned that the young man who had effected his daughter's ruin was boasting of the achievement among his companions. Mr. C. immediately telegraphed for his wife and daughter to return home. In due time they returned. The young man was called in, and informed that he must marry the girl or take the consequences. The young man, we are informed, impudently and insultingly declared that he would not marry the woman whom he had wronged. At this Mr. C. did what scarcely any father could have refrained from doing—drew his pistol and shot the young man on the spot. The wound inflicted was a severe one, but at last accounts the young man was still living. Mr. C. surrendered himself to the authorities and was admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000.

A movement is now on foot to raise $100,000 for the purpose of making the Buffalo General Hospital permanently independent. Less than $1,000 will not be taken from a single subscriber. Mr. S. G. Austin heads the list with $10,000. This gentleman has also given $5,000 to the Buffalo Orphan Asylum, on condition that $50,000 shall be raised.

LEGISLATION ON PETROLEUM.—In the Senate on Friday, Mr. Cole introduced a bill relating to the exportation of petroleum. It authorizes the transfer of petroleum imported from British North American possessions in metal vessels or packages, and subsequent exportation, without payment of duty. Referred to the Commissioner of Commerce.

The Pella (Iowa) Blade says that "to be a good lover it is not absolutely necessary to give your attention to it in early life. But, notwithstanding we have seen middle aged and older men who have built up a reputation for loafing after they had passed the meridian of life; those who learn and practice it young make the most notable examples."

The liberal hearted proprietor of a lager beer saloon in Rutland, Vt., recently lost his pocket-book containing $500. It was found and returned by a young man, and the grateful Teuton thus gave vent to his delight: "Bob, you is one honest man. I tells you what I'll do; I'll shake you for the lager."

H. S. Simmons' Drug and Variety Store.

Mr. Simmons has just returned from New York with a very large stock of Holiday Goods—a richer and more extensive stock never has been exhibited to the citizens of Oil Creek. Ladies Toilet Stands, Writing Desks Dressing Cases, Dolls, Games, Children's Toys in as large variety as can be found in city stores. It is well worth a visit, if you don't wish to buy. This stock certainly never was surpassed for variety and richness. He also has a large variety of Leroy W. Fairchild's Celebrated Gold Pens, very appropriate for Holiday presents. Visit Simmons' for a half-hour's amusement, before you make your purchases. dec11st.
