The engine house on the Patterson & Dickey lease, Chicago tract, East Shamburg, was destroyed by fire on Saturday 1st.

A dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial dated Harnsburg, Dec. 17, says:

A man whose name we have been unable to learn was instantly killed last evening, about half past seven o'clock, at the Crawford well, situated on the Robinson Farm.

A dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial dated Harnsburg, Dec. 17, says:

A meeting of the French and Irish citizens of Oil City, was held in Bascom's Hall on Monday evening, to take measures to aid the destitute widows and orphans of the Franco-Prussian war.

The supply of gas in Corry is so short that the Company notifies citizens to be careful in its use.

Found.—A ladies' port monie, containing a small sum of money. The owner can have the same by calling at this office, proving property and paying charges.

Winter is here and no mistake.

A good deal of ice is going down Oil City at present. Should the present cold weather continue the probabilities are that it will be frozen over soon.

Wendell Phillips and James Parton will lecture in Franklin in January.

NATURAL GAS FOR FUEL.—The successful introduction of natural gas for fuel and light in Erie, Pa., has induced others to put down test wells, and in some instances they have been successful.

The Herald's Brussels correspondent telegraphs this morning that the bombardment of Paris is declared to be impossible. It is not humanity which restrains the Prussians, but it is simply impossible to succeed, as they have neither the number or calibre of guns necessary.

By a dispatch from Harnsburg to the Pittsburgh Commercial, we learn that a big well was struck Monday on Stump Island, half a mile below Harnsburg, on land owned by the Stump Island Oil Company, which promises better than anything yet struck in this region.

That old and sterling journal, the Pittsburgh Commercial, made its appearance on Monday in an entirely new dress, and takes occasion to remark that never in its history has it received so liberal a support as at the present time.

Attention of the travelling public is called to the change in the time of running trains on the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

Now that cold and stormy weather is upon us, our citizens and property owners should take extra precautions in regard to fire.

The Titusville & Pithole Plank Road Company meet on the 10th of January to elect officers for the ensuing year.

BILLIARDS.—Richard Ennis and James Simonton played a match game of billiards at Greensburg on Friday night, with two professional players of that place.

Mr. H. C. Jarvis, a member of the town fire committee, has been engaged to-day in examining and putting in good order the fire plugs on Washington and Main streets.

Latest and Most Important War News.

New York, Dec. 20. The Herald's Brussels correspondent telegraphs this morning that the bombardment of Paris is declared to be impossible.

It is not humanity which restrains the Prussians, but it is simply impossible to succeed, as they have neither the number or calibre of guns necessary.

They have only 500 guns, mainly twenty-four pounders, and the French outworks, which command the batteries, can destroy them the moment they open fire.

A correspondent writes from Vendome that neither of the French armies commanded by Chaussey and Bourbaki, number less than 100,000 men, and they can draw reinforcements from other parts of France of nearly double that number.

The appearance of the French armies is favorable. Many of the men are small in stature, but the majority are large fellows.

The prospect of peace are looking much improved this morning, and it is thought in Berlin and Frankfurt the peace basis proposed by the neutrals, with some amendments, will soon be adopted.

Military movements in the field continue active and the French are endeavoring to concentrate.

One German army is falling back before Bismarck. Later advices from Paris says there has been no fighting around the city since the 1st of December.

The people had received news from the outside to the 11th inst. Advices have been received here announcing that the Germans were stationed at Nuis, Department of Colofier, on the 18th.

The French withdrew at nightfall. The Germans lost 300 in killed and wounded. Among the wounded was Prince William, of Baden, who was shot through the chest.

WANTS TO SELL OUT HIS SEX.—The editor of the New Haven Register recently attended a lecture by Mrs. A. C. Bowles, in which "the utter uselessness and cowardness of the masculine gender" received their just due.

A Miami county (O.) settler objects to a proposed railroad in that region in these words: "The people is gone wild on this 'ere railroad question."

The following is given as a "literal translation" of a bill of fare as recently presented at a gentleman's table in Paris:
