The Railroad Managers Convention, which has been in session at Erie for several days, adjourned sine die yesterday afternoon. The managers agreed to establish a new freight tariff, to go into effect on the 26th inst., the rates being considerably lower than the average of winter rates hitherto. All trunk lines and the northwestern roads enter into the arrangement. Live stock rates from Quincy, Ill., to New York and bulk grain freights from the West to New York and New England will be slightly advanced. The proceedings in the convention were harmonious, and the result gives satisfaction to all concerned. The railroads who are parties to the new schedule are the New York Central, Hudson River, New York & Erie, Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Toledo & Wabash, Pennsylvania Central, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, Michigan Central, Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis, Atlantic & Great Western, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.

W. W. Gibson, a Captain in the 76th Pennsylvania volunteers, died in New Castle Sunday night of consumption. Capt. G. was a resident of this place for a long time, and by his many good qualities made hosts of friends who will sincerely mourn his demise. He was compelled to leave here several months since on account of ill health. He was a brave soldier, a good citizen, and a kind husband. Peace to his ashes.

A Christmas party is to be given at the Chase House, Pleasantville, this evening.

A man whose name is unknown, in attempting to cross the Oil Creek railroad track in front of a train, at Hydetown, yesterday, was struck by the locomotive and severely injured. He had been in the employ of the Union and Titusville Railroad.

Do not forget the concert at Sobel's Opera House, this evening.

A singular story, almost as fantastical, indeed, in its features as a tale of the Arabian Nights, comes from the Colorado desert wastes south of San Bernardino, California. The strange recital is the announcement of the extraordinary fact that in the solitude of the sandy desert, one hundred miles from the sea, has been found the mouldering remains of a great ship over two hundred feet long—far away from the traveled paths of men, and whereof the origin or history is shrouded in mystery. The developments in the case of this lost argosy are not sufficiently substantial, as yet, to permit of their being accepted as entirely trustworthy; but should it prove true that the remains of such a ship exist, as narrated in the desert, archaeology would be put to its mettle, to account for its presence there. Is it another Ark; is it the mysterious craft of some antediluvian navigator, or upon its mouldering decks did the Lost Tribes of Israel once tread, on their way to the New World, make, as many scholars have maintained, the ancestry of our American Indians?

The Venango Spectator has the following in regard to the new oil territory at Pine Grove:

The Morehead and Crispin farms, consisting of 45 acres are now owned by a company consisting of F. W. Andrews, W. S. McMullen, —Bly and H. J. Sayers. Mr. Sayers was the sole owner but disposed of an undivided half to the other parties for $8,000, retaining the other half. Since Mr. Sayers has been offered $12,500 for the half of his remaining interest—one fourth of the whole. These farms will be laid out in acre lots, and as soon as this is done the owners will lease and decide on the amount of royalty.

Eleven wells are already under way in this district, and twenty leases have been granted on the property of the Pouring Rock and East Sandy Oil Company.

The James McKissick farm was sold last week to Messrs. Foreman, Benton, Vandergilt and Jackson for $12,000.

"G. W. B." correspondent of the Erie Dispatch, has the following account of a flowing well near Emlenton:

An oil well on the Russell farm, about two miles above Emlenton, has for the last four years flowed four barrels per day. I think this is the most quiet and unassuming well in Western Pennsylvania. It is isolated from all wells, being about a half mile distant in the woods. No attention whatever is given to it, except the monthly barreling of the oil, by the owner.

Griffes Bros. are getting up a new novelty in the shape of a Christmas Tree. All those purchasing $2.00 worth of fancy goods, will be entitled to a ticket drawing a prize valued at from 25c. to $5.00.

Miss Belle Rover was the plaintiff in a suit for slander at Clarion last week, and after a witness for the defense had been sworn he sat down near her. She didn't like his evidence, and "went for him" right then and there, giving him an awful lamming. He fell back in good order to a justice's office and procured a warrant for her arrest, and she was bound over to answer at the next term of court for assault and battery.

ENORMOUS.—Yesterday Messrs. H. L. Richmond & Son, issued the largest execution probably ever issued in Crawford county. It was upon four judgements obtained by J. M. McCullough, against the Erie Canal Co., amounting in all to the enormous sum of $1,190,576.18, upon which execution has been issued.—Meadville Republican.

On New Year's day the scholastic of the M. E. Sunday School are to give a concert in the church. Exercises will be held in the church on Christmas day. The little ones will be made happy by the gift of a lot of handsome presents.

A female minstrel troupe is being organized at Franklin. The female portion will find they have been miserably duped before they get through with the minstrel business.

An old oil well at Meadville is being cleaned out and is to be drilled deeper in hopes of getting oil.

Attention is called to the notice of meeting of stockholders of the Tidouche Railroad Company, which will be held at the office of the company in Titusville, on Monday, January 9th, 1871.

It is well for landlords to remember that by a decision of Judge Pearson, of Dauphin county, if they wish to have their tenants leave on the 1st of April, they must date their notices before the 1st of January.

There will be fifty-three Sabbaths in the year 1871, the first and last days of the year being Sunday. Ministers salaries will remain the same.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Havre, Dec. 21. There has been some fighting near Brienne, and the Prussians retreated to Bourg Theroude.

London, Dec. 22. Troops are pouring into Cherbourg for the defense of the port at Havre.

London, Dec. 21. A Herald correspondent at Etels says Palladiver has been assigned to the duty of organizing new forces.

The two armies of the Loire are still content to act separate. The war has become one great skirmish.

The invaders are constantly exposed to telling blows, and their old soldiers are gradually destroyed, and as the Germans decrease the French increase.

This, however, leaves out of view the relief of Paris, which can only be accomplished by victory in a heavy battle, which must be soon if at all.

Bordeaux, Dec. 22. The Government is receipt of advices from Paris by balloon to Dec. 17. The news is favorable.

Reports circulated of riots within the city are false. There have been no engagements with the investing army since Dec 3rd. Preparations are making by Trochu for another grand sortie.

It is reported that when the Prussians occupied Tours they found no serious opposition. Gen. Chanusey is at Lennas, where he has received reinforcements, and has also been reprovisioned. A number of partial engagements had occurred with the enemy, in all of which Chanusey was successful.

Advices from the French Army of the North, under Faidherbe, are encouraging. Advices from Havre show that the Prussians under Manteuffel were retreating.

At last accounts they were marching towards Amiens. Several engagements had occurred with the rear guard of the retreating enemy, in all of which the French were successful.

The Journal, of this city, states that the Prussians were prosecuting a barbarous warfare, using explosive bullets, etc.

According to the following statement which we find in the Warren Ledger, the production of the West Hickory oil field is rapidly falling off:

The West Hickory oil fields are fast giving out. The Fagudas farm, which but a few weeks ago yielded 1000 bbls per day, is now producing but about 300. The Wilkins farm, adjoining Fagudas, having more wells in operation, and consequently having the greatest amount of suction, has sucked the oil from its neighboring farms, and therefore has kept up its former supply more fully, but with all the advantage, its supply is diminishing. The total deficiency on the whole territory is estimated at 200 bbls per week.

The Oil Regions are to be "done up" in the magazines during the coming winter. A number of artists and correspondents have been visiting Franklin recently, making sketches and taking notes for that purpose.

Bulwer is writing a play for Lotty and will get $5,000 for it.

A traveling doctor in Mitchell county, Iowa performed the operation of tapping for ovarian dropsy, leaving the patient to die, within forty-eight hours, from shock and hemorrhage. He removed a tumor in the neck of another person, and departed, allowing the patient to bleed to death.

Gambling is practiced all over New York city. The colored people "play policy," and the gentry play at faro, while the middle class try "keno" and other exciting games. Lottery tickets are articles of staple trade. There are $100,000 worth sold every week, and the demand for them may be judged by the fact that one of the recent bank defaulters confessed that he had expended $100 per day in this manner for a number of years, without ever having drawn a considerable prize.
