The Titusville Herald's monthly petroleum report, published this morning, shows a daily production for last mosth of 15,214 barrels, being 2,798 barrels less than the amount reported by them for November .-Now, we venture the opinion that the Heraid's report for December gives the actual daily production as near as it is possible to get at it, and as we learn, shows only a difference of 100 to 200 barrels from the Petroleum Producers' report for that month. We do not believe, however, that there has been so great a decrease since November as the Herald's report shows, viz: 2,798 barrele por day. Their reporter must bave been just a little bit mistaken in his N ber report,

The Titusville Courier shows the production for December to be within 500 barrels as great as that reported by the Producer's Association for November, and 1,227 barreis greater than the Herald's report fo the month under review. The Courier also shows an increase in stocks over November of 79.633 barrels, while the Herald reports 15,778 barrels less than at the close of November. On the Central Farm alone, the Courier makes a mistake of 11,768 barrels, by satimating the number of barrels of oil on hand in S. A. Woods' tank with that in the Central Petroleum Co.'s tank, and afterwards publishing them separately. This, together with the error corrected in this merning's Courier, looks bad for the "two porters" of that paper, and we apprehend that a close observer of their report might discover a few more errors.

a New York millionaire, has made money out of petroleum, and ready, therefore, to embark in the speculation proposed by a plansible chap from the West Indies, who sald that there was millions to be made by buying an unfathomable lake of oil that he knew of existing in one of the islands .and an agent sent to investigate. He found that the take of petroleum was nothing but a large pool of asphaltum. The speculation was a fallure, and Mr. Bissell was out $100,000. The sgent found many curious plants on the island, and sent specimens of them to Mr. Bissell, who examined them with great curiosty. Opening one of the larger packages, Mr. Bissell eaw shmething run our, and he took no particular notice of it at the moment. The next moment be felt a sharp bite on his right leg, and, givlog the limb a rub, wondered what it was, In about ten minutes his leg began swelling, and continued to swell until be was not able to walk. The insect which had been seen escaping from the package was then thought of. A brist search brought to light an enormous centipede, which bad hid. den itself to the velvet carpet. Mr. Bissell bas since been confined to his house, and has been very lil. Mr. Bis-ell is a graduate of Dartmonth College, to which institution he recently gave $15,000 for a symmasium .- [Ex.]

The gentleman spoken of above is one of the founders and a stockholder in the banking house of Goo. H. Bissell & Co., of this place.

The fact that both the French and German commissary departments draw largely on the firm of Mease & Armstrong of this place, for their supplies of flour, feed, corn bay and cate, need not cause any apprehen sion of starvation in our midst, as they are constantly in receipt of new supplies. Only yesterday they received two car louds of potatoes, one of shelled corn, two of hay, and one car load of apples, besides flour, grain, &c , almost in like quantities. They are offering provisions at lower rates than ever. Remember the place, Washington street, next door above the McClintock Honse, PRESENTATION .- Mr. Thos. Healy, employed by Mr. M. C. Martin, Superintendent of the Central Petroleum Co., was taken by surprise, last evening, and presented by Mr. S. S. Pickert, on behalf of the employees of the company, with an elegant gold watch chain and derrick charm, valued at $130, as a testimoutal of their regard for him. The surprise was so unexpected that Mr. H. could hardly find words to express his thanks to the donors. The chain was purchased at J. Wolf's jewelry store.

The enemy were at first suscessful, and drove the French back on Newville.

General Curren then brought up his sup ports, and after sharp fighting recaptured all the positions previously taken by the Germans and drove the enemy beyond Saute Roumaine, which place the French re-entered at nightfall.

The German loss was considerable, while that of the French was triffing.

The fighting when Daryontin was car-ried by storm is described as desperate on both sides, and the German loss heavy.

The account of a party given by a lady at Green Bay Wisconsin, at which there were present eighteen babies, while no less than sixteen baby carriages were standing in the yard, moves a Californian to regret the scare ity of women in the Southern part of that state, and to tell how he had, in the vicinity of Los Angelos, seen fourteen horses tied to the horse rack before the door of one marriageable maiden. His first impression was that there was a funeral in progress; but a small brother of the besieged young lady confidentially informed him, with much giggling and ducking of his head into his shoulders, that the crowd were all courting sister. Anxious to see the damsel who possensed such powers of attraction, he was about entering the house when he was warned off with the admonition that if he had not taken up any land thereabouts it would be well for him not to interfere with the rights of ectual settlers.

A Kaneas city paper gives this lively ploture of the "lunch fiend," the individual hours and inflicts much company upon other parties and leaves no funds behind the bar. He indulges in rapid conversation, meanwhile doing full justice to the innch, ejecting his sentences while busily engaged in injecting the food, all the time suspiciously yet gracionaly eyeing the bartender, who is anxiously awaiting his order to r drinks. After eating as much as policy will allow, the fiend wipes his mouth, draws out a toothpick, and if there is no person present whom he can bore with conversation previous to making the unnoticed exit, he sudorganize a singing class, have secured the studies until an opportuity presents itself. services of Prof. Chamberlain for a term of whereby, the bartender's attention being
