NEW WELL.—Well No. 11, Phillips & Boyles lease, J. S. McCray farm, was completed and commenced testing yesterday afternoon, and is now yielding twenty barrels per day. This well was commenced some time last summer, and when nearly finished unfortunately the tools were lost in the hole and were not taken out until about two weeks ago. An increase of production is anticipated.

RAILROAD STATISTICS.—We learn from Rufus Hatch's Circular that there are in the United States 50,000 miles of railroad. The cost of these works exceeds $2,000,000,000. Their annual earnings exceed $400,000,000 and equal eleven dollars per head of our entire population. They transport, annually, 125,000,000 tons of freight, or over three tons to each person assuming our entire population to be 40,000,000. The value of their tonnage, at the low estimate of $100 to the ton, equals $300 per head, and an aggregate sum of $11,500,000,000—a sum six times greater than their cost. Every mile of road constructed adds five times its cost to the aggregate value of the property of the country. All this vast commerce and wealth are wholly creations of railroads, and within the short space of twenty years.

At the butcher shop of G. W. King, Sr. can be seen several fine specimens of dressed porkers. His market is filled with fresh and salt meats of all kinds. Drop in.

HELD HER OWN.—The Hornellsville Tribune relates the following: We are told that a well-to-do merchant of Warsaw invited a young lady of the same place to take a short buggy ride with him on Thursday of last week. The young lady consented and the pair started in the direction of the railroad depot. While on the road the young blood proposed getting married before returning. The fair one consented, and they accordingly took the cars for Hornellsville, where they arrived about two o'clock on Friday morning. They went to a hotel, and the intended groom called for a "room with a bed in it," and then informed the young lady that he had secured "private" apartments for themselves, and wished to retire. But she couldn't see it from where she was; she politely told the gallant that she guessed she would "be married a little first!" The poor man begged and pleaded to postpone the ceremony until daylight, but it was no use, she would be married then and there or return home on the next train, which left within thirty minutes. So rather than blast all his bright hopes and anticipations, he was forced to toddle up town and arouse a sleeping divine and, with the assistance of a number of boarders, for witnesses, they were put in a condition to take a private room. Then the fair bride concluded she would rather go home, and they accordingly "went" back to Warsaw, within an hour after they had arrived in town.

THE FISK-STOKES TROUBLES.—The N. Y. Sun says: Mr. E. S. Stokes, who is now out on bail, has determined to fight inch by inch. He has engaged as counsel ex-judge Beach of Troy, ex-Senator Shaffer and Thomas W. Pittman. Mr. Stokes has prepared affidavits to show that the whole affair is a malicious prosecution on the part of Col. Fisk on account of Mr. Stokes' misconstrued friendship for Mrs. Mansfield. Mr. Stokes asserts that propositions were made to him last night to settle the case, but he sturdily refused, and announces his intention of giving his prosecutors the full benefit of the law.

"This," said the Hon. Charles S. Spencer in the General Sessions yesterday, "is a good temperance platform: Drink nothing when you are young, moderately when you are in your prime, and as much as you like when you are old—like me."—N. Y. Sun.

Now that New York, Baltimore, Boston and other large cities, are agitating the question of re-taking the census, claiming that the first "count" was not correct, the citizens of Allegheny City have also taken the matter in hand and propose to have the census taken over again, from the fact that several weeks ago an heir was born to the house of Shirum, and yesterday a thirteen-pound boy was added to the house of Kinney, the mayor of that city, neither of which appear in the late census returns. We may add that their was great rejoicing in the city yesterday over the latter event, and rumor has it that his honor, the mayor, "did the handsome thing by the boys."

A MYSTERY IN THE CALENDAR.—In this year there will be fifty-three Sundays, but only fifty-two weeks. No where during the year does Sunday come oftener than once in seven days. The first week in the year begins with Sunday and so do all other weeks. This may appear mysterious at first, but by consulting the calendars for 1871 and 1872 it will be seen that the last week in 1871 begins with Sunday, and has a Sunday following it. As two Sundays come together the year 1872 begins with Monday, and it being Leap Year, Sundays will occur once in Seven days thereafter. The arrangement will place Sundays at the end of the week instead of the beginning.

From the Allentown Democrat we learn that Mlle Zoo met with a serious accident in that city, on Saturday last. She was riding in a carriage from her hotel to the depot, when the horses took fright and ran away, throwing her out and severely injuring her about the head. She was laid up for several days, but at last accounts was sufficiently recovered to again appear on the stage.

Divine services at the Presbyterian Church, this evening.

Our townsmen, Messrs. Phillips Bros., the well known oil operators, will commence operations next week on two wells to be located on the Rooker farm, Pithole, near the Haskell well. We learn that it is the intention of other parties to commence developing in that neighborhood soon. The Haskell well continues to yield seventy-five barrels per day. The prospects of Pithole are brightening.

The good will of the Cincinnati Times has been appraised at $140,000. The ill-will of the Chicago is appraised by Albert Cosby at $50,000. Too much.

Latest and Most Important War News.

Bordeaux, Jan. 12.
A general battle was fought on the 11th under the walls of Lemans.

The Germans attacked the French army of the Loire along the whole line. General Jourziberry, who commanded the right wing of the French, held his position on the left bank of the Hoisie, and General Colomb on the left and centre fought desperately for six hours.

The French maintained the most of their positions. The Prussians engaged are estimated at 180,000.

The French loss is unknown, but is serious.

Versailles, Jan. 12.
There was fighting near Lemans on Wednesday.

The Germans captured the suburb of Champaigne and Chateau Arche with several pieces of artillery.

The number of prisoners taken on the day before has swelled to 5,000.

London, Jan. 12, 2:30 a. m.
The army under Gen. D. E. Cauxey was completely defeated near Lemans by the second German army, commanded by Prince Frederick Charles and Grand Duke of Mecklenburg.

The Germans occupied Lemans, capturing large quantities of supplies and war materials.

The French are being pursued.

London, Jan. 13.
The London Times of this morning has the following:

Versailles, Jan. 12 (Eve).—The bombardment was heavy up to this afternoon, and several fires are seen within the French lines.

The Prussians are crowding in front of Clamaret and Mendon.

A picket of Bavarians was surprised near Clamaret by a sortie.

The French have erected new batteries.

Berlin, Jan. 12.
Reinforcements are now on their way to join the German armies in France, and those in readiness to go number 200,000, thus raising the German force to 1,000,000 men.
