The fire committee are calling on our citizens to-day, for subscriptions to aid in purchasing coal to keep the engine from freezing up these cold nights, and for necessary repairs to the hydrants. We hope our citizens will respond liberally to the call as upon it in a great measure depends the safety of our town from fire.

The pipe lines across the Creek, recently washed away, have not been repaired as yet. The work of repairing will commence soon.

The Petroleum Monthly for January is filled with valuable information, both historical and statistical, in regard to the oil business. This valuable monthly should be read by all interested in the oil business.—Mr. J. H. Bowman, Oil City, Pa., is editor and publisher. Terms—$3.00 per annum, in advance.

A Titusville chemist is engaged in making experiments with reference to the possibility of artificially producing crystallized carbon, or genuine diamonds from petroleum. Should he succeed, no doubt everybody could afford to wear diamonds, they would be so cheap, you know, and without so handsome.

"That Little Church Around the Corner."

All honor to that little Church,
The Church around the corner,
That needs no gems or jewels rare
Or presents to adorn her.

With charity she shows to all,
The mint as well as scorpion,
That Christian spirit stiffeneth
In the Church around the corner.

With Christian love she dries the tears
That fall from every mourner.
By giving faith and hope to all
In the Church around the corner.

Faith, Hope and Charity are hers;
To her be every honor;
The Church built on our Saviour's word—
The Church around the corner.

—Baltimore American.

SOBEL'S HALL.—On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week we are to be favored with two performances by the N. Y. Olympic Troupe under the directorship of our friend Dr. Jas. L. Thayer, of circus notoriety. The troupe consists of some of the finest performers in the variety and minstrel profession, and as they come well recommended by the press of other cities we are safe in recommending them to the favorable consideration of our citizens.—The doctor, too, has many warm friends in our town, and as he is well known in the show line here, we think we are safe in predicting a rousing house for their opening, and leave our readers to judge for themselves of the merits of the troupe.—Look for the diminutive form of the genial Dr. on Friday next, and give him the reception he so richly deserves—a rousing house.

The Pittsburgh Commercial of the 17th, says:

Our specials yesterday noticed the loss of several boats at Parker's Landing, in which poor people had inclosed themselves for the winter. The sudden rise and breaking up of the ice in the rivers also caused some similar damage hereabouts. A barge belonging to Thomas McGranahan was forced by the ice up on the bank of the Allegheny, and damaged to the extent of two hundred dollars. Two barges belonging to Wm. Munhall were similarly served, the damage to them being about six hundred dollars. The Jackson Fishing boat was wrecked, the damage being about three hundred dollars.

CARD.

The rumor has become prevalent—although from no tangible source—that the undersigned have disposed of sale of their coal business at this place.
"Which we wish to remark,
And our language is plain"
is not the case.

We don't want to interfere with any little fun the "boys" may be getting up only "about us," and let us be heard in the arrangement.

The fare over the entire route from New York to Middletown is $1.75.—Stages connect at Middletown for Honesdale, Binghamton, and Owego. There is quite a change since that day.

A Lexington baker has his bill-heads printed upon paper of three different colors—red, green and white. The object of this is to avoid giving instructions to the man who delivers the bread, flour, &c., to the customers. To prevent mistakes, when the bill was made out upon a red paper it denoted "danger," and he was not to leave the goods without the cash; if on green paper it denoted "caution," as the customer was doubtful, and the man was to get the money if he could; if on white, it was safe to leave any quantity.

At a large party in New York last week all the lights in the house went out simultaneously. All the guests were in the dining-room at the time, and the confusion may be imagined. The scene was like the palace of the Sleeping Beauty; that is if any one could have seen it. Every one was still, not daring to move for fear of bringing down on the immaculate toilet an avalanche of cream, jelly and oyster.

Mr. Sheperdson, of Tarr Farm, agent for Trumbull's Family Record, is now engaged in delivering to subscribers copies of this beautiful engraving. It is certainly one of the finest works of art extant, containing blank spaces for marriages, births and deaths, and when framed is decidedly a handsome parlor ornament, besides valuable as a family record. Those of our citizens having families should by all means secure a copy of Trumbull's Family Record. Communications should be addressed to Mr. Sheperdson, Tarr Farm, Pa.

If you call on a young lady, and she crochets diligently all the evening, and only says "Yes" and "Oo," you can go away about nine or a quarter past, without breaking any of the rules of etiquette.—and if the old gentleman calls down the stairs, "Jerusher Ann! it's nine o'clock," it may be taken as a sort of verbal boot jack and not merely information as to the state of the clock.

"You have lost your baby, I hear," said one gentleman to another. "Yes, poor little thing! It was only five months old.—We did all we could for it. We had four doctors, blistered its head and feet, put mustard poultices all over it, gave it nine osamel powders, leached its temples, had it bled, and gave it all kind of medicines, and yet, after a week's illness it died."
