FPIRITUALISTIC.—There is a lady in Oil City who makes a livelihood by vividly portraying the future to those who desire to know where they are drifting in this traile of tears. It is a remarkable "giff" to know all this, and as would seem only belongs to a higher power, but she presents to know everything, and actually ionated the largest producing well, by her powers, that was ever struct on the Dairell Farm. She has lately "atruck out," and has now leased some herritory in Utica, or the line of the Atlantic & Great Western Ratiroad, located in that borough, which she claims to he valuable oil territory, and will immediately commence sinking a well on herritor hock. The eligens of Utica are excited about the matter, owing to her success on the Dairell Farm.—Titusville Courler.

The above romantic story appeared in the Courier several ,days since and it seems al. most a pity to spoil it, but such things have to br. The largest well on the Daizell farm the Banner well, was not located by the woman spoken of above, neither had any "oil smellers," "pointers," "spiritualists," to , anything to do with it. The well was located by Capt. F. J. Kuffer, Superinteg dent for Jonathan Watson and others, leslees of the 25 acres upon which it was put down. The Captain thinks the honor balongs to himself alone, and not to spiritua ! or supernatural agencies, to which he is no doubt correct. Of the balance of the story in regard to this wonderful (!) woman we know nutbing, but the above are the lacts in relation to the largest well on the Dalzeil farm.

Some Cincinnati ladies thought to increase their beauty, when wearing low neck dresses, by painting blue veins on the exposed skin, but were disgusted as the remark of a physician, who looked at them see closely, said they hadn't got those veins painted within four inches of whese they should be naturally.

vent of the New York Olympic, we clip the following from the Erie Dispatch during their visit to that city, and as their agent, Mr. Whitney, assures us it is not any flattery to the talents of the company, we copy of what they may look for this evening:

of what they may look for this evening:

The New York Olympic Aggregation gave another of their unique entertainments at Farrar Hail last night, to a delighted audience, nearly every piece being heartily encored. The company comprises some first-class talent, as singers, dancers and comediaus, and the entertainment they give is one that can be attended by any one without fear of the feeings of the most fastidious being abooked. The performance is chiefly of the class attached to negro ministrely, but in its iendering is utterly unlike any other. The innovation of having four ladies on the singe, in the circle of singers, is one that tells favorably in the effect of chorus singing. The solos of Miss Fanny Archer were very fine. The song and dance by Minnie Grey, was an acceptable blending of grace and melody. The gem of the evening was the "Champlon Drum Scio" by M'lle Louise. The performance wound up with Matt Wheeler's famous character of the Dutchman who went to see the Elephant, a comicality that kept the audience convulsed with laughter. The troupe gives its closing performance to-night. Don't fail to see them.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred on Washington street, at noon to-day. A team of horses attached to an oil wagon became frightened at the cars, and started up the street at a frightful rate. The driver, whose name we did not learn, clung to the lines doing bis utmost to stop the runaways, until they arrived nearly opposite Wachter's grocery store, where the horses took to the sidewalk and the driver was thrown out in failing striking the wbiffletrees, to which he managed to hold until the horses were stopped near the American Hotel. The driver escaped with the exception of a few

Two roughs engaged in a "chewing match," at a dance in a house on Washington street, last night. They were trying to see waich could obew the most flesh off tother in the shortest time. Pity they hadn't let daylight would have entitled the parties to divorce into one another, and rid the community of two pulsances.

"ISH DAT ALL?"-Twe dutch fermers at Kinderbook, whose farms were adjacent, were out in their respective fields, when one beard an unusually lond halloing in the direction of a gap in a high stone wall and ran with all his speed to the place, and the following brief conversation cosued: "Shon, vat ish to matter?" "Vel den," eays Shon, "I was trying to climb on te top of dish high stone wall and I fell off, and all the stone wall tumble down onto me, and has broken one of mine legs off and both of mine arms. smeshed my rib to, and vy, you bollow sofloud I tot you got de ed and sunk. Lone heavy. toolache."

Gen. Pleasanton, Commissioner of Internel Revenue, 'strongly advocates the immediate repeal of the income tax. He argues that the cost of collecting it is greater than the amount obtained.

There is a great deal of excitement in Nova Scotia a s to the alleged discovery of petroleum at Lake Ainstey, Cape Breton, Nova Scotta is well stocked with coal, and where there is coal there is generally petrolenm. She is ales doing quite a thrifty business at gold mining. In one county seven gold mining companies are in active operation.

The Rev. Sabine, of New York who directed Jo Jefferson "no the church around the corner," as a suitable place for the funeral obsequies of the dead play actor, most unwittingly proved a great friend to the family of the deceased Holland. That it, in order to give our readers some idea I-au-holler-than-thou reply to the request for Christian burial for a man who had well performed his part on the stage of life, bee aroused an enthusiasm that promises most welcome prountary results. Benefits for the family of Mr. Holland are to be given in every theatre of New York and Brooklyn. One club has taken three thousand tickets. Every dramatic company and every orchestra in both cities have volunteered, and managers outside of New York have tendered benefits.

The probability of a wignessie reform in the divorce laws of Indiana is encouraging. It is proposed to smend these so that no diunder the laws of the State where they originated. Five years residence is also to be required, instead of one as now; and the party must be a resident at the time of the trial. It is also to be made necessary that the defendant, when a resident of the State, shall be sued in the county where he resides. With these changes, Indiana will escape the disgrace she now suffers of being a convenience for these who wish to obtain fraudulent and unjestifiable di
