About one o'clock yesterday afternoon an explosion occurred at Roberts' Torpedo Factory, about two miles south, of Titusville, in this county, by which the building and spurienances was blown to pieces, and Charles D. Psimer, an employee of the company, was instantly killed, his body being terribly mangled. It is supposed Palmer was engaged in filing a torpedo with fulminating powder, one of the most dangerous explosives used in the manufacture of torpedoce, and by some means which

A QUEER PROCESSION .- A New Orlegos prespondent of the New York Times, writing of date January 7th, says: Last nightjibere was a grand parade of the "Twelve Night Revelets," in all their on masque splendor. They marched through Canal, Camp, Paddrus and St. Charles streets, to the great delight of the multitude of men, women and children who fitted t be steets and sidewalks along which the procession passed. It seemed as if the whole realm of the ludierous, as well as ridiculous was fully represented. The whole purpose of the display was designated upon an immonse banner which preceeded the procession, and that was, "Mother Gonze's 'Tea Party." Every legend of this celebrated character became a present reality. There were the lion and the unicorn, looking as if they stepped out of the British same for this occasion. Old King Cole and his fiddiers three mounted upon an immense car. the fiddlers playing a merry tune. The "Old Woman who Lived in a Shoe," with a multitude of children, shoe and all, were trundled along to the intense delight of all observers. Beauty and the Beast-were also present, Cock Robin, Jenny Wren, Parson Rook, owle, South Imps, bulls, bears, the cow that jumped over the moon, the dish, spoon and dog that langhad to see sport, little Jack Horner with his Christmas pie, and the whole brood of mother Gooses following, were out in full feather. It was a fine display and very creditable to the Lord of Miernie , who commanded the cortege. I may add that Santa Claus was also present with his children's presents. which he distributed slong the line to the hosts of children which surrounded and followed his car.

KENTON'S NEW DOUBLE-ACTING OIL PUMP FOR PUMPING OIL OR WATER IN DEEP WELLS. -Kenyon's New Double Acting Oil Pump is acknowledged to be the best pump now in use. One of its leading features is that it not only produces a continuous flow of oil or other fuid, but that it creates and sustains a constant and powerful suction, by means of which the seams or veins of the welt are in a great measure cleared of parafine and other obstructions, and the of in the veins is drawn towards the well. It has been ascertained by actual test that the use of this pump causes a gradually increasing flow of oil. It is wet! known by oil operators that this improve ment is of great value, and one that has been long sought for. The ablest mechanles of our country have for years been busy at work trying to find out some new and untried plan to prolong the life-time of an oil well, and nothing yet to our knowledge b .. been brought before the public that in any way equals the power of the Kenyon Pump, experience having taught that it is the long continued suction that has the power to keep up and increase the producties of oil wells. Oil operators are referred to Mr. Geo. Boulton, Superintendent of the Colambia farm, for information in regard to the practical workings of the Kenyon Pump .-One of these Pumps can be seen at the oil

[Published by request.] MYLOVE NELL. Oh, come all you boys, both far and near And listen swille to me. And a dismal story you will bear About my love and me. courted long-my love was sthron g As the heart of a big oak tree. But sorry I'm to say My love is gone sway To the shores av Amer-i-kay. CHORUS: For my love Nell Was a charmin' gir). From the Cove av Cork kem she But I weeped and I wailed Whin the big ship sailed For the Shores av America. Whis I got to the church, I was left in the lurch, I was left to the largh, But let that day go by; Woin I got to the door, Selly asz "I'm poor," Then "My love," as z I, "good bye," For I know right well You're an Irish giri. So you don't come over me Oh, sez Nelly, d'ye mind, I'll lave you far bebind, Aud sail for America. Chorus: For my love Nell, &c. Now, come all ye boys both far and Dear, And a warnin' take by me; A bird in the hund, as you may understand. Is worth twenty thousand million on a turre. Though persuade you they may for to name theday. "Then say "Wait till the the time suits me Then as slippery as an cel. they'll turn on their heel. And sail for America. Chorus; For my love Nell, &c. DANGER FROM USING OLD PETROLEUM BARRELS. - A case of poirosing bas been reported in Gurmany from the drinking of clifer that had been preserved in an old pe. troleum barrel, although the] casiz was thoroughly cleaned before using. After the funeral of the first violim the grave diggers returned to the house and partook of the same drink; one of them soon afterwards died, and the etbers nad a narrow escape. It is well for the public to know that petroleum acts as a poison, the armptoms being dizziness and vomiting, and it is unsafe to use the old barrels for the storing of any article of food or drink .- Scientific American. JEFFERSON'S KIP VAN WINKLE. -Th. New York Tribune pays the foilowing por :ical compliment to the matchless impersonation of Rip Van Winkle by Jeffur COE: "There are certain days in this delicion autumn weather that soothe the fired spirit like a loving benediction. The dreamy sunshine, the almost leaf ess woodland, the fading grass, the floating vells of mistblue on the far of blils or russet in the sunthe fulling voice of the brook, and the coul caress of the wind, are all messengers of prace. They give us rest without sadgess and happy languor without oneytouch of pain. The influence of the time is blessed and is blossoms in blessing. From Mr J-fferson's personation of Rip Van Winkle

a kindred influence t cals in upon our thoughts, and makes them serene, cheerful and kind; and that is why, after more than on basdred consecutive performances, it still attracts and delights the public at Edwin Booth's theatre.

The Detroit Tribune says that a resident of that city, who I wes on a fa bionable thoroughtare, abserved a man he did not care to see coming lowards his door, and burriedly instructed Bridget to tell the person he was not at home. "All right, sir, said Bridget, as she made basts to answerthe door-bell. "Is Mr. ---- at home?" inquired the caller. "Faith an' he's gone out," responded the obedient servant. When will he to at bome!" asked the man at the door. "Honit on a minit!" put in Bridget "au' I'll az him!" It has been said that there are three things a woman cannot do, to wit: She cannot starpen a pencil, she cannot carry au umbrells, she cannot tie up a tunthat have been cracking jokes at her. The die. If the cynic who said, that much bad mentioned one thing more, and added that she cannot get into a city passenger car, be would not have shot very wide of the mark.
