DEDICATION.—This evening the new hall of the Columbia Farm Library Association will be dedicated with appropriate exercises. An opening address will be delivered by Rev. R. W. Hawkes, which will undoubtedly prove a rare literary treat. Other exercises of an interesting character will follow, and the whole will be interspersed with music by the Columbia Cornet Band. Hereafter the hall and reading room will be open each evening for the benefit of the men employed on the farm. The Library Association are deserving the thanks of the residents of that farm for the manner in which the work has been carried through to completion. We predict that much good will result from the formation of this society, and suggest that a like Association be formed in our own town.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Spear, Superintendent of the Fox wells, Central Petroleum Co's farm, met with an accident yesterday afternoon, which will be apt to disable him for some time. The tubing has been in the well for some days past, and Mr. S. with some other workmen was engaged with jack screws and blocks in trying to remove it, when suddenly the bull wheel rope slipped, striking him and knocking him back against the wheel, which was running quite fast, and he was hurled about twelve feet into the air, falling on the derrick floor and breaking one of the small bones of his right leg, besides otherwise bruising and jarring him. His limb was dressed by a physician, and with proper care he will be about in a short time. The escape from an accident of a more serious character was a narrow one.

Look out for Alden's new clothing advertisement, in to-morrow's paper.

Several of the new buildings on the burnt district are completed, and will soon be occupied.

A St. Petersburg correspondent says:

The oil development is coming up the Clarion river, towards St. Petersburg, as David Shoup sold five and a half acres of land for $1,400, just below town, and leases are being taken all around the same locality. This town might become a city, if land owners not so close, and would sell lots at a reasonable price. They had rather a spirited time at a stone hauling on Gravel Ridge, near town a few days ago, but the war ended in a flow of Gas. —Clarion Democrat.

Gas.—A very large vein of gas was struck on Saturday at the new well being put down by the Erie Lime and Cement Company. The vein was opened about 10 o'clock at a depth of 399 feet. It blew the water to the top of the derrick at first and all through the day it continued to flow with great force. The supply promises to be double the amount required.—Erie Dispatch.

PICTURES.—We are in receipt of several specimens of a new style of photographs, from the well known art gallery of A. D. Deming, Oil City, Pa. They are known as the Rembrandt picture, and are an entirely new style of photos, having been introduced in the oil region but a short time. For beauty of finish and extremely life-like and natural appearance of the features of the individual, they cannot be excelled. In addition to this style, Mr. D. continues to take pictures in manner desired by his patrons, after the most superior and approved methods known to the art, and at the most reasonable rates. He has also for sale views of the oil region and its scenery. Those of our readers who desire to have a good picture taken should call at Deming's Photograph Gallery, Centre street, Oil City, Pa.

Mr. Ed. Fisher, of Allegheneseum City, son of our townsman Mr. E. D. Fisher, the well known oil refiner, celebrated the anniversary of his birth-day, at that place, yesterday. A sort of an impromptu gathering of his friends was had at his house, and Mayor Kenney was called to the chair, and made a few remarks pertinent to the occasion, expressing the hope that Mr. Fisher would live to witness the return of many more such pleasant reunions. His health and that of his amiable lady was then drank in a "flowing bumper of wine," after which the meeting adjourned. The occasion was a pleasant one and will long be remembered by the participants.

There was a goodly number of our citizens in attendance at Prof. Chamberlain's juvenile concert, at the Opera House, last evening. Although not present, we are informed that everything passed off pleasantly. This evening the adult class under his charge will give a concert. A good programme has been chosen, and some first class vocal and instrumental music may be expected. The house should be crowded.

Johnny Steele, within the last two years, by strict attention to business, has succeeded in paying for a small home, a good span of horses, wagon, etc., with a snug little deposit in bank. He says he is determined to retrieve a part of his lost fortune and all his good name if energy and perseverance will do it. He is now baggage agent at Rouseville for the O. C. & A. R. R.—Herald.

The result of the recent election in Erie was the defeat of Hon. O. Noble, the Republican candidate, by Wm. L. Scott, Democrat, who was elected by a small majority.

A Versailles telegram announces that a large flow of emigrants from the ceded provinces of Alsace to America is about set in. This might be expected from the Alsatian patriots, who being patriots, will make the best class of emigrants and future American citizens. It is thus that each forced cession of European territory benefits America. While quarrelsome Kings are struggling for the rich bunches of grapes, they squeeze the best juice into America's cup.

A petition of an original character, on the subject of temperance, was recently presented in the New York Legislature. It concluded thus: "The Emperor of China says he never will fill his coffers through the sin of opium eating. We ask you to make our State as good a sample of Christianity as is that heathen Emperor. As well might we increase our revenue by licensing horse stealing as to do it by building up legalized grog shops. We had rather let antique legislation rob us of our sober horses than to let it send our sons to the drunkard's grave." The legislators smiled at the idea of making New York as good a sample of Christianity "as is that heathen Emperor."

Seven mills on the dollar valuation is the rate of taxation for county purposes in Venango for 1871. The valuation has been considerably increased over that of 1870.

Dan Rice's Latest Exploit.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR A SIXTEEN MILE RIDE.

Dan Rice, the showman, arrived in the city on the 11 A. M. train, yesterday, from Indianapolis. He wanted to go to Girard, but the Cleveland train had just gone. The notable Daniel was much provoked, but concluded to keep as cool as the circumstances would permit, and that he might the better do this, came up town. He went to the depot again in good time for the 4 p. m. train, but in his anxiety to avoid impatience and excitement, read a newspaper, in a sitting room until just half a minute after the train steamed out of the depot for Cleveland.

He made a tremendous effort to reach the out going train, but even Dan Rice is a slow coach in such a race, and he failed.—He danced about like one of his famous trained horses for a brief period, and then made a charge on Eugene Ford, Passenger Agent of the Bee Line, with a proposition to the effect that he would pay one hundred dollars to catch the train. The accommodating "Bee Line" man submitted the proposition to Thomas Walsh, in charge of an engine in the yard, and Walsh agreed to catch the train.

Rice jumped on board, and without more ado the locomotive was put to full speed in pursuit of the Cleveland train. There were no cars attached, and the train was overtaken at Lewis Centre, sixteen miles from Columbus, in just sixteen minutes from the time of starting. The ride was not an unpleasant one, and the veteran showman rather enjoyed the mad gallop of the iron horse. When he reached the train he proceeded to settle accounts, when the engineer said half the amount would do, and $50 was paid over, the "mile a minute" man returned more leisurely to this city, leaving Dan Rice to pursue his journey to Girard on the regular train. The incident created much excitement at the depot, and the rapid start of the train without passenger was watched with the greatest interest.—Ohio State Journal.

Last week, the engineer of a train from Worcester to Boston was horrified to see a three year old child on the track looking on with wonder at the coming locomotive.—He whistled down brakes, and stopping the train, went back with a white face to find the little fellow picking himself up out of the mud in the ditch beside the track, un hurt.

Cincinnati has made a progressive step that might well be followed by other cities. The new plan of keeping the reading room of the mercantile library open on Sundays has operated so satisfactorily, that the school board of that city has voted, 26 to 10, to open the public library also on Sundays.

Kenyon's New Double Acting Oil Pump for Pumping Oil or Water in Deep Wells.

Kenyon's New Double Acting Oil Pump is acknowledged to be the best pump now in use. One of its leading features is that it not only produces a continuous flow of oil or other fluid, but that it creates and sustains a constant and powerful suction, by means of which the seams or veins of the well are in a great measure cleared of paraffine and other obstructions, and the oil in the veins is drawn towards the well. It has been ascertained by actual test that the use of this pump causes a gradually increasing flow of oil. It is well known by oil operators that this improvement is of great value, and one that has been long sought for. The ablest mechanics of our country have for years been at work trying to find out some new and untried plan to prolong the life time of an oil well; and nothing yet to our knowledge has been brought before the public that in any way equals the power of the Kenyon Pump, experience having taught that it is the long continued suction that has the power to keep up and increase the production of oil wells. Oil operators are referred to Mr. Geo. Boulton, Superintendent of the Columbia Farm, for information in regard to the practical workings of the Kenyon Pump. We append the following testimonial from the managers of the Columbia Farm:

OFFICE COLUMBIA OIL CO. }
Columbia Farm, Jan. 28. }

Mr. H. K. KENYON:
Dear Sir:—We are using your Double Acting Oil Pumps in three of our oil wells and take pleasure in stating that we are getting more oil and gas from each of them than was previously obtained by the use of working barrels. We believe your oil pump to be the best in use.

Respectfully yours,
G. W. BOULTON, Sup't.
