BUFFALO THIEVES AT WORK IN PETRO-LEUM CENTRE .- From Mr. Owen Gaffaey, we learn that his liquor store, on Wa hington street, was broken into about half-past 11 o'clock last night. The thieves entered the building by breaking in the back door. After getting inside they broke the lock of failed to secure the anticipated pile of his money the night before. The rascals then left, taking with them four boxes of valuable cigars. This morning the cigars were found in the possession of two men named J. R. Taylor and "Stip" Lewis, bail ing from Buffalo, N. Y., and restored to the owner. The two men immediately left for parts unknown. Such are the facts of the robbery as we learn them from Mr. Gaffney.

EJECTED FROM THE CARS -On complaint of a woman that he had insulted her, Mr. J B. Fetterer, of Houseville, was ejected from the 3:30 train going north, at this place, yesterday afternoon, by the conductor and brakemen, and handled in a rather rough manner, bis coat being tern completely off his back. While we are not prepared to or pulled with a corkrerew. How is it, speak of the truth of the case, so far as the anyways? alleged insuit is concerned, from a long acqualatance with Mr. Fetterer, we do not believe him capable of descending so low as Williamsport set the fashion on Monday and to offer an insult to any one, much less a lady. The affair will probably end in a law eurt.

The Oil Creek & Allegheny River Rallway Co, are soon to commence the work of large numbers. Men who went divorces laying a new switch at this place. The switch is to connect with the iron tanks on the hill near the Lake Shore block,

On a recent visit to Titusville we paid a call to the large and commodious music store of Booth & Sargent, in the Parsball House Block. The store is fitted up in elegant style, and contains everything in the line of musical instruments from a plano forte down to a jews harp, including melodeons, organs, violins, banjos, drums, concertinas, &c. There is also a collection of over one thousand pieces of sheet and in- is doing 15 to 20 bbis. strumental music, forming the largest variety of music in Western Pennsylvania --An institution of this kind has long been needed in the oil region, and Meears. Booth & Sargent bave supplied this want, therefore are entitled to the liberal support of the people of this entire region. Give them a call when in Titusville.

REBUILDING .- Messrs. F. J. Hanna & Co. whose extensive machine and blacksmith shop was destroyed during the late disastrous configration, have commenced the work of building a new shop near the banks of the Creek, on the Egbert Farm, and but a short distance from the Egbert farm bridge. They expect to be in running order in the course of a week or two, and prepared to execute all work to the line of machine repairing, blacksmithing, &c.

ROMANTIC - i here is a story in the Des Momes Register about an Oblo girl who came to Muscatine in the spring of 186). and in the fall enlisted in the 24th lowa Infantry, and served till the close of the war Then she went back to her father's house, whereshe was received with open arms, but never said anything about her war history; she invested several hundred of her savings in Northern Iowa land, and became rich; a member of her own regiment fell in love with her, never dreaming that she had fought and bled at his side, so changed was the desk containing the money drawer, but her appearance; but she told him her bistory and they were married. Then she told her greenbacks, as Mr. Gaffney had removed father about her military career, and he didn't believe her; but he visited Des Moines consulted Gen. Baker and the records, and dew. found that it was even so.

A correspondent of the Erie Disputch writes as follows regarding the Bear Creek oll territory:

Last Thursday well No. 1, on Whyke Farm, Bear Creek, commenced pumping thirty barrels, but had increased to fluy barrels on Salarday. Of territory in this section begins to look up. Mr. J. Overy, of Petroleum Centre, and the McIntosh Brothers, of Pittsburgh, recently purchased two hundred acres in this immediate vicinity, (Bear Creek) and put down four wells, which now promise from ten to fifty barrels per day. They have five men drilling, and rigs are going up to r several others. Mr. Overy superintends the whole tract, which his former eight years' experience on Oil Creek fully fits bim. Mr. Samuel Mead, of Youngsville, is his head driller. Allseyes are turned in this direction, and we may took for lively times on Bear Creek the present summer.
