ABOUT TOWN.

The roads are dusty. By the new time-table, those having business at Titusville, can leave here at 4:42 p. m., have about five hours in that city, and returning arrive home at 11:05 p. m. Messrs Skimmerhorn & TenEyck have opened their new flour and feed store, in the Petroleum Centre Hotel building. From the number of engines, boilers, &c., being hauled through the streets daily, we judge the oil business must be improving hereabouts. City Father Malloy, after an absence of a few weeks, he having been rusticated in the county jail at Franklin, has returned to town and resumed his old trade of drinking whiskey. A good many strangers are in town at present. These pleasant evenings the young folks enjoy, and those pleasant nothings are whispered beneath the trees, or perhaps 'tis but the rustle of the leaves. The ladies are engaged in making flower gardens. The water in Oil Creek is extremely low at present. The wells on the McCray Farm hold their own in production. Now is the time to advertise in order to catch the Spring trade. The Road Commissioner is engaged in repairing the public highway between this place and Plumer. Hark, from the tombs! Beneath these stones repose the bones of Theodorius Grim, Whose health most suddenly did fall From ceasing to drink John Theobolt's Lager Beer and Ale. Mercer county has nine candidates for Associate Judge.

There is a vast copper mine in England where shafts extend many hundred yards under the sea. The moaning of the waves as they dash against the rocks is forever sounding in those gloomy isles. When the storm comes, the sound of the waters becomes terrific, and even the boldest miners cannot stay below, but leave their work and come out upon the earth. Overhead are masses of bright copper streaming through the gallery in all directions, traversed by a network of thin, red veins of iron, and over all the salt water drips down from tiny crevices in the rock. Immense wealth of metals is contained in these roofs, but no miner dares give it another stroke with his pickaxe. Already there has been one day's work too much upon it, as a huge wedge of wood driven into the rock bears witness.—The wedge is all that keeps back the sea from bursting in upon them. Yet there are three tiers of galleries where men work day by day, not knowing but at some fatal hour the flood may be upon them, rendering all escape as hopeless as it was in the days of Noah.

CHANGE.—Nicholson Bros. have disposed of their interest in the Post Office Newsroom to Mr. W. C. Patterson, who will hereafter conduct the business. Mr. P. is a thorough business man, and will sustain the old-time good reputation of the Post Office Newsroom. Success to the new proprietor.

Eight individuals are willing to take charge of the funds in the Treasury of Mercer county.

Rev. John T. Oxtoby, well known hereabout, is absent from his present home, Northeast, on a visit to the Old Dominion. Pleasant visit and safe return for him is the wish of many friends.

We learn that a well completed on Saturday, located on the new oil territory near Reno, has proven to be a "dry hole." This well is but a short distance from the first well struck in that vicinity, and had only seven feet of third sand rock. This will be apt to dampen the ardor of many who have invested in that territory.

The Democratic State Convention meets at Harrisburg, to-morrow.

Decoration Day is a week from to-day.

John A. Wiley has been appointed First Assistant Engineer of the Oil City fire department. John is a thorough fireman.—We have "been there," at Pitohole, and knew just how he works at a fire.

By the explosion of a soda water generator, in the soda water factory of I. L. Well, at Titusville, yesterday afternoon, Henry Miller's leg was broken. Too high pressure was the cause.

Erie enjoyed the sensation of a prize fight on Sunday last. The combatants fought for an hour and a half when the "sponge" was thrown up. A woman was the cause of the fight.

Mr. Bonner denies the report that he has accepted the challenge to trot one of his horses against the San Francisco horse, at Chicago, for a purse of $50,000.

A raid was made on the houses of prostitution at Oil City, yesterday morning, and the sensation journals of the region pander to the tastes of their readers by coming out with flaming headings announcing the important news in a Police Gazette style.

Yesterday afternoon a man named Schoop was run over by the cars on the A. V. R. R., near Parker's Landing, and instantly killed.

A paper gives the following reply to a correspondent: "There is no stated rule for writing love letters. You should write on foolscap paper, and bear on as soft as you can, using words of such burning love that they will sizzle on the point of the pen. It is also advisable to sit in a hunch of pantofoles occasionally, such as 'Dearest Augustus, I love you with a love larger than an elephant's; I think of you every day, and by-and-by, when the days grow longer, shall think of you twice a day.' It is also well to put an ink blot in the corner, with the observation, 'Darling, I kissed this spot,' or 'I have a sigh in this vicinity.'

Among the names of jurors drawn for the fifth Monday of May, we notice that of A. D. McDowell, Petroleum Centre.

Why do thieves lead a comfortable life? Because they take things easy.

Mr. J. T. Cleveland, who has been for 20 years past in Texas, and who is now 73 years-old, returned to Boston last week to visit his father, who, if he lives, will be 100 in June. The old gentleman was very glad to greet his boy, of whom he is very proud, and whom he thinks very smart, considering 'be limited experience he has had in the world.

The Pacific & Atlantic Telegraph Company have established an office at Driftwood.

PETROLEUM AS A FUEL.—There seems a probability that eventually petroleum will be largely used as fuel for locomotives and the engines of steamers, since in proportion to its weight its heating power is greater than that of any coal. We notice that European engineers are bestowing considerable attention upon this subject. M. Diendonne recently exhibit in France the model of a small engine heated by means of petroleum. This locomotive carries 2,050 litres of oil in the tender, a hand pump forcing the oil into a smaller reservoir near the boiler.—This engine consumes its own smoke perfectly, and the driving apparatus is said to be very simple. A larger locomotive, with some small improvements, has since been built, which has drawn a train of fourteen carriages with ease, and has already traveled over two thousand kilometres, (about 1,250 miles) without accident. The consumption of oil was thirty-five per cent. less by weight than that of good patent compressed coal; one kilogramme—a little more than two pounds—of oil produced twelve kilogrammes (twenty-five pounds) of steam. The same system has been applied with success to the yacht Puelia.

This is what Theodore Tilton knows about prize fighting: "Every prize fight, being against the law, ought to be stopped by the public authorities. But this is not enough. When a prize fight has been thus stopped, and the two heroes are seized, the joint stakes for which they fought or were to fight ought to be confiscated to the government. The officials who stepped into the ring between Mace and Coburn ought to have carried out with them the five thousand dollars for which these two gentry proposed to mellow each other's mugs."

Whereupon the Cleveland Leader man observes that "perhaps he would like to volunteer in a nice little party to go into a ring among those two or three thousand gentle beings and carry off what money there was about there. Besides, the stakes—when there are any reality—are usually locked up in some pugilist's saloon far away from the fight, or deposited in a Broadway bank to the private account of the Clipper editor. The Golden Age means well, but Theodore is not up in the mysteries of the manly art."

The 83d Pennsylvania Volunteer Regiment will hold their second annual re-union in Meadville, Sept. 12th. The 145th and 111 regiments will hold their re-unions at the same place on the same date. These regiments were exclusively from Northwestern Pennsylvania, being composed entirely of Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Venango and Warren county men.

The dress-circle—Orinoline. A blacking-brush—A nigger fight. Warts on the mind!—Too often nothing. The prettier the ankle, the easier it gets up stairs.—N. O. Times.

If all the ladies went to China, it is said that the gentlemen would immediately go to Peking. Miss Prim, of doubtful age, said she is a fort that never will surrender. We are afraid she is too well forty-fied.

At St. Louis yesterday Mrs. Wittler, not satisfied with her fire, poured coal oil from a lamp on it. The lamp exploded and the burning fluid enveloped her child, two years and a half old, burning it almost to a crisp. Mrs Wittler also was so badly burned that she is not expected to live.

Jupiter has been playing sweet to Venus for a week or two, and has been seen every evening near her residence; but Juno has got wind of the affair, and raised such a breeze about it, declaring she wouldn't be treated so, no not by Jove, that Jupiter has left her and gone west for a divorce. He is not quite out of sight yet.
