On Saturday night last, a young man from Meadville, who as near as we can learn has been paying attentions to a highly respectable young lady, daughter of one of our most prominent citizens, and was said to have been engaged to be married to her, arrived in town on a visit to the lady. At Oil City the young man indulged in the flowing bowl to such an extent as to become intoxicated, and in that condition visited the lady, who quite properly immediately dismissed him from her presence requesting him never to intrude himself in her society again. Since then and up to this noon when he departed for the rural districts of Meadville, the gentle youth has been discouraged, and appeared to have entered into a contract with himself to drink all the whiskey in the oil region. Yesterday he concluded to shuffle off this mortal coil and retire to that undiscovered country where woman is unheard of, and for that purpose sought to borrow a two-edged pistol or a double-barreled knife to sever the cord that held him to things mundane in order that he might become joined to matters ethereal. In this he failed and to solace himself took a little more whiskey. We would advise the "spooney" individual to soak his feet in warm water immediately upon arriving home, and indulge liberally in Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children. It will no doubt afford instant relief for his wounded "phoelinks."

Testing commenced on the Ingersoll well, McFait farm, last night. The water was exhausted and the well had commenced to pump oil this morning, when unfortunately the seal-bag burst, and the tubing had to be drawn to repair damages. A good well is anticipated.

The children had a pleasant time at the picnic at Miller Farm, yesterday, and returned home last evening, somewhat tired but very happy.

POLICE.—The colored population of Benneboff Run, engaged in active conflict all along the line. Their forces were arrayed in battle line all along the Run, night before last, and skirmishing was carried on until a late hour without the spilling of blood. The amendments rested on their arms during the night, and all was quiet until yesterday morning when the conflict was renewed before Justice Reynolds, the following suits being entered for adjudication:

Mattie J. Sweeney was arrested on oath of Mattie Harper, charged with assault and battery. For indulging in the fun of striking the Harp-er, Mattie was induced to deposit $2.00 and costs for safe keeping with the Justice.

On oath of Martha J. Sweeney, Mrs. Nelson was arrested for assault and battery on the person of the lovely Martha. Case continued to June 6th.

On oath of Mrs. Nelson, Martha J. Sweeney was "pulled" for violently and with treacherous forethought abusing and in divers ways maltreating the aforesaid Mrs. Nelson Case continued to June 6th.

Martha J. Sweeney countered on Mrs. Nelson, by making oath charging her with malicious mischief. Case continued to June 6th.

Mrs. Nelson then caromed on Martha J. Sweeney, by making oath charging the lovely Sweeney with fornication. Case continued as above.

This last charge appeared to take Martha "all aback," and she probably concluded to settle the fornication charge by committing matrimony, as the following shows:

MARRIED.—May 29th, 1871, by Justice Reynolds, Mr. William Demery to Miss Martha Jane Sweeney. No cards.

Thus ended the battle of Benneboff Run. James L. Foster, who is as nearly white as the whiskey he drinks will allow him to be, was arrested yesterday by Constable McHugh, for drunken and disorderly conduct on the street. He loaned the county $2.00 and costs.

It is proper to state that James was not one of the participants in the XVth Amendment battle. He was battling with Whiskey. Whiskey was the conqueror.

The opening at the Franklin Exchange Hotel, Franklin, on Monday, was a grand affair. Mine host Mills did the honors in a manner highly creditable to himself and guests.

The present time tables on the railroads are not very satisfactory in some respects, and it is likely that another change will soon be made.—Corry Republican.

We learn that a new schedule will be adopted on the O. C. & A. R. R next week. It is to be hoped such will be the case, as the present time table appears to be anything but satisfactory to the business men on the Creek.

The Republican primary meetings of Crawford county will be held on Friday next.

A grand pigeon shooting tournament will come off at Youngstown, Ohio, commencing on Wednesday, June 7th, and continuing four days. It is anticipated that it will be one of the grandest affairs of the kind that has ever taken place in this part of the country. The managers have three thousand birds on hand for the occasion.

The Oil City Register is agitating the question of building a new hotel in that city.

Another wrestling match has been arranged between Major J. H. McLaughlin, of Titusville, and Mr. N. L. Dorrance, of Chicago, for $1,000 a side and the championship of America. The match is to come off at Titusville within two weeks.

CARD OF THANKS.—The children of St. Peter and Paul's School, Petroleum Centre, wish to offer their sincere thanks to Messrs. Sternburg, McLaughlin, Ingersoll, Fanny, Cosgrove and O'Neil, of Miller Farm, for the interest taken and kindness manifested on the day of their picnic. Also, to our worthy townsmen, Messrs. Simmons, Schombom and Messer.

KEEP YOUR BOYS IN NIGHTS.—It is astonishing to find what a large number of small boys, ranging from eight to twelve years of age, are permitted to run at large through the streets at night. They rapidly learn bad habits—running around in this way habits that may be the cause of landing them in prison for the commission of some crime. Parents should remember, that in granting such licenses to their boys, they are granting them an injury they never will efface. Bad habits formed in early youth are like first impressions—they always remain. What a fearful responsibility rests on those who permit their children to acquire bad habits in early youth by roaming about the streets at night smoking, drinking and cursing like pirates. It is fearful to think of, and we trust that parents will give the matter attention, so that their gray heads may not be bowed down in after years by reason of their early neglect.

Speculations about the Mound Builders still continues, but little information is obtained. A writer in Lippencott thinks that altogether the greatest monument of their labor, and one unequalled by any similar work in the world, is the public roads in Peru. Throughout the extent of that ancient empire ran two great highways, one following the sea coast over the plains for a distance of sixteen hundred miles, the other crossing the flanks and ridges of the Cordilleras, extending from Quito to Guano, a distance, including its windings, of nearly fifteen hundred miles. The latter is from eighteen to twenty feet wide, and runs without a break over the most difficult country, being carried over rivers and ravines by bridges of stone or wood supported by stone piers, and up the sides of the most precipitous mountains by deep grades cut in the solid rock. Stations were built at various points on the road, consisting of dwellings of cut stone, some of which were fortified and supplied with baths.

OIL BELTS.—It has been conclusively demonstrated that oil is to be found in belts or ranges. Nearly all of our most successful operators are following out this theory. Peuntice, Barbour, Crawford & Co., are now at work on their Bully Hill tract, on the belt line, and not more than a mile from the 250 barrel flowing well on the Prentiss & Angell tract. They are engaged in putting up new rigs, and have one well nearly down, with a very good show of oil. They are also laying out a portion of their large tract into acre lots, preparatory to having an auction sale. Their tract is larger than they can operate alone, and they propose to sell a portion of it to the highest bidder. This territory bids fair to become the field of large and successful operations, as its nearness to the large flowing well, is causing oil men to buy up the territory with a view of development.—Courier.

A professor in one of our theological seminaries relates this incident: Being in Germany, with a red covered book in his hand, a German, supposing the book to be "Murray" asked in English if he was an Englishman. The professor replied in German that he was not. The conversation presently turned upon an object of architectural beauty near at hand, in the course of which the professor incidentally raised the question of its cost. Sir exclaimed the German instantly, you are an American! How do you know that? rejoined the professor. Sir continued the German, striking an attitude and assuming a tone of solemnity, upon the resurrection morn, when we stand before the great white throne, the first question of every American in the whole assembly will be, How much did that throne cost.

Our citizens should bear in mind the lecture at the Catholic Church, by Mr. Whiteber, at 8 o'clock this evening. The object is a good one, and the church should be crowded to listen to him.

Mr. Thomas Frothingham sold his two wells on the Pierson Farm, to day, to Mr. John Farrell, for the sum of $4,500. A very good purchase.

An Illinois thief claims the belt, for stealing the lightning rod off a church.

A little negro with a pocketful of tame snakes is an Alexandria, Va., attraction.

A recent breach of promise suit led to the production of 763 love letters by the lady. The first three doses of medicine a Connecticut man took cut him off at the untimely age of 89.

Dubuque sets up its claims to notoriety on the strength of a four-legged gosling and a $1,400 livery hack.

A man from the Nutmeg State who "fig. ures pretty close," figured sickness the other day, when his wife was to be buried, in order to save his car fare, as she was to be taken to a distant place; but when it was found necessary to take a rope to hold the coffin in the wagon, as it was taken to the depot, he appeared and put in a request that said rope should be returned, as "it was handy to tie up the calf."

The Western Union Telegraph Company will immediately extend their wires from Dunkirk to Warren, Pa., along the line of the D. W. & P. R. R.

Ground is being cleared for the erection of the new depot of the Union & Titusville railroad, in Titusville.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist denomination within the bounds of the Erie conference, which includes the oil region, will hold a camp meeting on the grounds they have recently purchased at Fair Plat, on the shore of Chautauque Lake. It will begin June 27th, and will probably attract thousands of people from the surrounding country.

England consumes about 120 quarts of beer, per annum to each head of her population, Belgium 64, Germany 48, Austria 20, France 18, Switzerland 16 and Munich, Bavaria, 230 quarts.
