PITHOLE OIL ITEMS. The Phillips Bros of this place, have a well nearly completed on a bitherto undeveloped portion of the McCalmont Farm. The show for striking oil is said to be excellent.

The old Haskell well, near the famous Grant well, on the Holmden farm, continuce to yield between thirty and forty barrels per day. This will be remembered as the old well that was reamed out and drilled deeper a few weeks since.

A new well was recently drilled on the same lease, which is said to be yielding ten barrels per day.

A new well is being drilled on the same farm, in the immediate vicinity of the Catholie Church

Below these wells, on the point of the bluff between Holmden Run and Pithole Creek, a new well has been going down for several weeks past. The third sand was struck on Thursday, and the drill had penelrated it but a few feet, when a tremendous gus vein was struck, which threw oil, water, stones, and every movable thing in the well to the top of the derrick, which caught fire and burned down, together with the engine house and rig. The gas from this well is said to rival that struck in the old United States well in volume and force. A "big strike" is anticipated. Our informant did not learn the name of the fortunate owners. Much excitement is occasioned by this new development, in Pithole.

SILENT INFLUENCE -- We are touching ur fellow-beings on all sides. They are affected tor gord or for evil by what we are by what we say, and do, even by what we think and feel. May flowers in the parlor breathe their fragrance through the atmosphere. We are each of us as silently saturating the atmosphere about us with the subtile aroma of our obaracter. In the family circle, besides and beyond all the teaching. the daily life of both parent and child mysteriously modifies the life of every person in the household. The same process on a wider scale is going on through the community. No man liveth to bluee't, and no man dieth to himself. Others are built up and straight ened by our unconscious deeds; and others may be wrenched out of their place and thrown down by our unconscious influence.

There was one life lost at the burning of the Sherman House in Chicago. The victim had been carousing that night with a party of friends, and retired by the aid of his comrades, short after 12 o'clock. When the flame, threatened the fated building, they went to arouse him, but found the door looked. By dint of tremendons pounding they managed to make him bear. "Whater ma'er," huskily asked the half conscious inebriate. "Get up quick," was the reply, the hotel is on fire. "Eil on fire. Whs'er s'pose I care. Ishn't 'ell [bic] a'ways on fre !" Just at that moment a great volume of smoke burst through fibe ball-way, and the wretched man was left to his fate.

Owen Gaffney, the well known popular liquor dealer, is again on "the deck of bie own swift gliding craft," and announces the fact through our columns to day. Mr. Gaffney is the oldest liquor dealer in this vicinity, and bas always maintained the reputation of keeping a superior and pure article of wines, liquois of all kinds, ales and cigars. At present his stock cannot be excelled outside of New York city, or inside for that matter. Parties baving deal with him will find his stock just as represented, and discover him to be a square-dealing. upright business man. All of which is true to the best of our knowledge and belief.

"It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good," and even the great disaster which has overtaken Chicago is not without its ameliorating features, since unemployed mechanics, by 'thousands, will there find plenty to do in building up the destroyed portion of the city. Chicago has one pecultarity, that the fire and calamity are powerless to affect it but temporarily. The indomitable energy and dauctiess courage of its business men will never succumb to misfortune, however crushing; and the results of their quenchiess vitality will be apparent In wide-spread prosperity among mechanics and contractors, and rehabilitations of the Garden City in renewed splendor and ang-ment ed wealth and power.

Rosenzweig, the aportionist charged with causing the death of Miss Alice Bowlsby, in New York-the trunk case-has been found guilty and sentenced to 7 yeats imprisonment at hard labor. He is only oue of a large tribe.

What will Americans who go abroad to "see life" do now ? The Jardin Mabile of Paris is shore of its glory, or of its naughtiness, since the temporary purification by fire of Parisian morais, and its English type, Cremoine Gardens, has been suppressed by authority. The can-can no lunger sends the toes of Parlann girls to a level with their pert chins, and nevermore can the London frail beauties indulge in the bugging waitz beneath trees by the light of colored innteras, and to the inspiration of champagne, or "goes of gin."

FORESHADOWS.

Beautiful morning of light, Cloudless grace of the sky. Waters bathing the sight, Birds with their minstrelay. Singing the gladness of day, Making the fugitive sweet, Till a red leaf drops at my feet. And summer has vanished away.

The maple tree awings in other, The ripples are washing the sand, Winds give the waves the white feather, And they fling them back to the land; While the black ducks watch their play; But the crowding swallows we see In the scarred old juniper tree Say Summer is wearing away.

Shadows lie dark on the hillside. Sunshine lies warm on the shore, But the Golden-Rod waves in its pride And the clover blooms no more; Gone are white blossoms of May, Their robe is a purple leaf; And the corn stands ripe in the sheaf, For Summer is gliding away.

Turbulent morning of prime, Joy of the first rude endeavor, Dawn of a bioseomiog time. Buds no October can sever! The violet days are done. But the lily flames in his screncth And the calm of Automa at length Shali be grand in the cetting suc

An Illinois Recutes.

John Gulvin, of Decatur, was yesterday helping to get a safe out of the rules on South Water street, near the Union depot The men had got the safe nearly up on the sidewalk when it slipped beck on them -This man came along and asked what wes the matter with the safe, and one of them said it had slipped off the rollers and gone back on them. He said, "Get out of my way," and seizing on it like Samson, lifted it up, walked to the wagon with it, ten or twelve feet, and threw it on the wagon .-He caught it on the hottom edge, raised it up with the force levered against his breast, and walked off with it. The proprietor said it weighed 2,464 pounds. He is about five feet ten or eleven inches high, weighs, perhaps 260 pounds, ouilt like a Hercules, and about thirty-eight years old. He was a buss bricklayer in Macon.-[Chicago Tribune.

Professed spiritualists from Illinois and Wisconsin, under the lead of one Prof. Mitchell from Moline, have been digging for the lost sale of the steamer Lexington, suck in the Ohio near Derby, Perry county, Indiania, in 1854. The belief ob tains that in missing safe were $75,000 in gold. and the spiritualists referred to are going for it, act ing under the inspiration of "medium"freyelations. As the steamer R. C. Gray passed down last Saturday, the passengers ou board saw four men digging ; bravely on the sand bar in the neighborhood where the Lexington is reported to have sunk. They claimed to be within two feet of the buried safe, but no information of their baving reached it has since been received, and the inference is drawn that the "spirits" have failed again. Hydrate of obloral seems to develop fresh virtues every day. A case of rattleenake poison has lately been cured by it, at Point Pleasant, New Jersey. A young man bitten by the rattlesaske, and exhibiting the usual violent and alarming symptoms, was treated with bydrate, five doses of twenty grains each being administered, when sleep

AMUSEMENTS

A new well is going down near the mouth of West Pithole Greek.

Lively times are anticipated in Pithole by these new strikes.

Considerable excitement was occasioned this afterneon, on Main street, by a runaway, The borses ran to the end of the Eg. bert farm bridge, where they were stopped by the driver. Two other teams were on the bridge at the time, and it is almost a miracle that a serious disaster was avoided.

As the time for the opening lecture of the Y. M. C. Mr. O. S. Lyford, General Superintend. ent of the A. & G. W. Raliway, has resigned his position on the road, taking effect Nov. 1

It is suggested to those who find it neceseary for their bealth during the Summer to amuse themselves with croquet, case bal', etc., that they promptly look about for some other mode of exercise. The young ladies might fod a substitute in washing, cooking and scrubbing, and the young men in sawing wood.
